

BISHOP POTTER TO ENTERTAIN

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Coopertown, N. Y., Aug. 23—Bishop and Mrs. Henry C. Potter have completed arrangements for the elaborate entertainment to be given this evening celebration of the twenty-first birthday of Stephen Carlton Clark, youngest son of Mrs. Potter. The affair will be held in a large house recently completed for the Clark estate in this village.

NEW RAIL ROAD FOR BOISE, IDAHO

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Boise City, Idaho, Aug. 23—It is confidently expected that by this time next year northern and southern Idaho will be connected by a new road to be known as the Lewiston & Owyhee. The road is to extend from Huntington, Or., to Lewiston, Idaho, a distance of 300 miles. It will connect Huntington with the Oregon Short Line, that point being also the terminus of the O. R. & N. Construction is to begin at Huntington, and it is expected that by May 1 of next year 60 miles will be completed and in operation.
The new road will open up a rich mineral, agricultural and stock country. It will tap the Seven Dials mining district in Idaho, where a number of extensive mines have been developed, and are awaiting transportation facilities to begin extensive operations.

The Souls Of Flowers

Mingle in happy union in the exquisite perfumes we carry. Scents are as difficult to blend into harmony as sounds. It takes almost as high an order of ability to make true perfumes as is required to write good music. No wonder so much of the perfumes offered is rank, flat and unsatisfactory. If not wholly pleased with the orders you are now using, we would like to have you try some of the delightful ones we handle. Cost you no more than the poorer kinds.

SENGSTACKEN'S PHARMACY, MARSHFIELD, OREGON

OVERWHELMING VICTORY FOR THE RADICALS

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Vienna, Aug. 23—A dispatch from Belgrade says that the elections in Serbia today will undoubtedly result in an overwhelming victory for the Radicals and the conflict between them and the army will then become acute, rendering King Peter's position all the more unenviable. His recent threat to leave the country, it is believed, may soon be translated into reality.
The outlook for Serbia is indeed dark. The country seems to be drifting into anarchy. The result of the ministerial crisis shows that the king is completely in the hands of the military Cambrills which placed him in power.

NATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Ogden, Utah, Aug. 23—The list of scientists and experts in irrigation and forestry who will attend the meeting of the National Irrigation Congress to be held in this city next month is rapidly being swelled. Word has been received from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson that he would attend the congress and deliver an address. He will be accompanied by a number of scientists and experts of the United States Department of Agriculture.

C. C. Broadwell, of Silverton, received an invitation to attend the wedding of his youngest sister Tuesday at Dundee, and before starting learned by telephone of the sudden death of his oldest sister. He went to the funeral.

A POLITICAL CRIME

MURDER OF VICE CONSUL INSTIGATED BY TURKEY

President Roosevelt Takes Vigorous Measures Without Wasting Time on Diplomacy

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Washington, Aug. 23—The State Department is still non committal on the Turkish affair.
It recalls the illustration of the feeling at Beirut last Fourth of July when Vice Consul Magelsen who has just been murdered observed the day at his residence by employing a Turkish band to play America, the Star Spangled Banner, and other patriotic airs. The Turkish governor reported that he had been insulted by this, but neither the Turkish foreign office nor the American embassy paid any attention to him.
Since then the Turkish officials have shown a veiled dislike for the vice consul. Orders have been sent to the Machias now at Genoa to proceed immediately to Port Said for coal and await orders. The Brooklyn and San Francisco have been ordered to proceed at once to Beirut without waiting for the slower Machias and they should arrive at Beirut Thursday.
The assertion that the Turkish official had no knowledge of the assassination is discredited here. The state department pays no attention to Lelshman, who is instructed to continue demands for the punishment of the offenders.
Berlin, Aug. 23—Authentic information received here says that Magelsen's assassination was a political crime, welcomed by officialdom because the vice consul had excited the hatred of Turkey by his energetic protection of Americans in Armenia.
He also unearthed a number of Turkish outrages and hunted down the culprits, and thus became a perfect thorn in the sides of the authorities. He has never brooked delay where American interests were involved.
He was an enthusiastic golfer, and lacking players, played alone in the Syrian desert. He was returning from a game when he was murdered.
In Semi-official circles it believed the event is liable to drag America into the far Eastern turmoil. The chance that a collision between the powers may result in a crisis is causing considerable anxiety.
Oyster Bay, Aug. 23—President Roosevelt is terribly in earnest in his determination that Turkey must make amends for the murder of the American vice consul. If the porte is at all ugly, probably Admiral Cotton will drop a shell among the Beirut mosques.
Washington, Aug. 23—There is some comment over the unusual action of the President, who instead of first consulting the State Department issued orders direct to the navy. The usual course is to apply to the State Department which appeals to the navy, requesting protection.
Roosevelt has brushed aside red tape and precedent. The State Department is developing conservatism and expresses some regret that the President has acted before all diplomacy has failed.

A High Priced Fricassee.
Lord Alvanley, a noted wit and high liver in England a hundred years ago, insisted on having an apple tart on his dinner table every day throughout the year. On one occasion he paid a caterer $1,000 for a luncheon put up in a basket that sufficed a small boating party going up the Thames. Being one of a dozen men dining together at a London club where each was required to produce his own dish, Alvanley's, as the most expensive, won him the advantage of being entertained free of cost. This benefit was gained at an expense of $540, that being the price of a simple fricassee composed entirely of the "noix," or small pieces at each side of the back, taken from thirteen kinds of birds, among them being 100 snipe, 40 woodcocks and 20 pheasants—in all about 300 birds.

Corn Breeding Fields.
In breeding corn a small field usually an acre in size is used. The land is prepared and the seed bed treated as for the ordinary field. They are usually about 120 hills long and thirty rows wide. Each row is planted from a separate ear. The barren stalks, poor stalks and all undesirable stalks, such as suckers, are removed before the tassels appear. The field is protected or isolated, so that no mixture can take place from other varieties or from any source. In the fall these rows are husked separately, and the seed for the next year's crop is selected from the rows giving the highest yields per acre, of best composition, with the least barren stalks and of the best type. In this way the yield per acre of the variety is increased, the quality improved and the type preserved and developed. By this plan we are able to give personal attention and direct selection to the individual stalk and ear, which would be impossible in a large field.—Cosmopolitan.

Our Common Woo.
"Beg pardon, sir," remarked the man who was hanging to strap No. 1, "but lo you got off at the next corner?"
"I don't see that it is any of your business," replied his fussy neighbor.
"Well, no," admitted the mild gentleman, "but I was merely going to remark that I got off there and if you will be so kind as to lift I'd like to take that foot with me!"—Baltimore News.

BABIES RULE BOARD AND BEACH

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 23—The annual baby parade today, viewed by nearly 25,000 persons, was the greatest parade that has ever taken place at Founder Bradley's summer resort. The beach and board walk were a solid mass of humanity, assembled from all parts of the United States to witness the event. The starting point was from the Asbury Park auditorium. The route was from this point to Deal Lake and return. Along the line of march there were decorations, with the national colors and bunting, and the baby coaches, bicycles, floats and fire engines that were in the parade were also garnished with flags and flowers. The infant light infantry was of a quiet order, and went through the grand parade without a murmur. The parade was divided into a number of sections, each being headed by a marshal and aids. Prizes were awarded for the prettiest babies and for the most grotesque and fancy costumes, some of which won loud plaudits from the thousands of spectators.

THE AMERICAN LAUGH.

It is a valuable aid in building up our national greatness.
God's greatest gift to man was the laugh. Without it the human race would have wept itself to death or exterminated itself long ago. Pathos is beautiful; tragedy is absorbing. But both pathos and tragedy are instantly routed by the laugh.
Laughter has sunshine in it. It is warm. Learned men have searched for the secret of life. What is it but good humor? That's the secret of life being worth living.
What sunshine is to earth good humor is to man. Take the smile and the laugh away, and it would be the end of man.
Men can't fight while they enjoy a joke. Death himself recoils from the laugh. The man in a good humor has an enormous advantage over the man who is angry. Anger is dark. Bitterness is filled with shadow. Intolerance is grim and black. Prejudice is blind.
Good humor, with the smile and the laugh, is sunshine in which objects are plain and distortion disappears and wherein phantoms become nothing.
One reason for America's greatness is that, above all, it is a nation that laughs. There have been gay peoples and frivolous nations, but gayety and frivolity are strangely akin to melancholy. That gay Germany whose national happiness is expressed in song is clouded by melancholy. Sadness pervades the temperament of Germany.
And frivolous France—how tragic she becomes—how desperately tragic!
The great American laugh is another thing. Investigate the American national laugh, and there's a sound, practical something behind it. It is never a forced laugh. It is healthy, vigorous, spontaneous.
Empires and powers have crumbled and gone to pieces in solemn seriousness and gloomy grandeur, while Uncle Sam, with a joke on his lips, forged ahead.—Denver Post.

MURDERER CLOSELY WATCHED

(Special to the Coast Mail.)
Union, Mo., Aug. 23—This was the date originally fixed for the hanging of George Collins, the youthful bank robber and murderer of Detective Schumacher, but owing to the fact that an appeal has been taken to the supreme court the execution has necessarily been postponed until after the hearing before that tribunal in October. In view of the daring and successful escape from prison of William Rudolph, the accomplice of Collins, and the further fact that improvised wooden keys have been twice found in Collins' cell since his conviction extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent the escape of the condemned man.

'LEVEN TO NOTHING

North Bend Nine Had Another Off Day

From Friday's Daily.

The postponed league game of ball which was played by the Marshfield and North Bend teams here yesterday was not an absorbingly interesting exhibition of the national sport.
The score of 12 to 0 in favor of the home team is a sufficient indication that the visitors were not at their best.
North Bend's new pitcher, Gillespie, did not cover himself with glory in the box, and Bradely was substituted in the third inning. The latter, did somewhat better, but his support was poor. Wild throws and fumbles were common, and our boys did not have opposition enough to make it interesting.
Bliss was nearly disabled in the first part of the game by being hit with the ball.
The attendance was small. Nothing disagreeable occurred, and the best of feeling prevailed.
Following was the score.
