Among Sumner's old settlers in town yesterday were A. D. Boone, S. B. Sherwood and Wm. Sherrard.

Rev. Thos. Irvine and others are conducting street meetings every evening with considerable success.

Mrs. O. Hansen returned from the Coquille country yesterday where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

A. M. and L. J. Simpson took a run up Coos river yesterday, by launch, to inspect their operations in that section.

Ben Schuyler, who has been down at Wedderburn for the past few months is expected back to Marshfield next week.

S. Cutilip, of Daniels Creek, was in town last night. He has been under the weather with a bad cold, but is getting all right again.

The Death Penalty

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at Red Cross Drug Store.

Major L. D. Kinney left Roseburg yesterday morning by stage over the Coos Bay wagon road, and is due here this morning.

Rusty mikes Diary Aug. 27, 1903 - Keepin' a store nice is like Sally and her ironin'—takes a slick here and rubbing there and a polish over it all.

J. H. Diers, of the Great Central was in town yesterday, on his way to Sumner to meet Major Kinney. Mr. Diers is just recovered from a seige of muscular rheumatism.

Joe Youkam is quite swelled up by the report of the goal swells they are building around Myrtle Point, and is inclined to pose as a benefactor of that community.

D. W. Hazen and E. A. Puterbaugh, representing the Portland Journal, arrived yesterday over the Coos Bay wagon road, on a trip in the interests of that paper.

S. B. Sherwood, of Sumner, has sold his pair of horses, two wagons, cart and harness to Mr. Thompson, a newcomer, who has the old Stickney place on Catching slough.

The fixtures of the Elk saloon are being removed and the building will be converted into an ice cream stand by Carl Winner. Magnes & Matson will use the room vacated by Mr. Winner.

Coquille Herald—Ye editor took quite an extensive hunt last week but we can assure the public that there were no game law violators. With a wholesome diet of ham and eggs, we returned much refreshed by the outing.

J. E. Hilary, fireman on engine No. 2, got the little finger of his left hand caught and mashed yesterday while shaking down the fire, so that it was necessary to amputate the member, Dr. McCormac performing the operation.

Mr. Clyde Briggs, son of E. D. Briggs Esq., a prominent lawyer of Ashland, is here on a visit with Mr. Earl Strange. He graduated from the Ashland State Normal College in June and is on his way to St. Johns, Wash., where he is to teach school.

Puts an End to it All

A grievous ailment comes as a result of unbearable pain from over taxed organs, Dizziness, Backache, Liver complaint and Constipation. But thanks to Dr. King's New Life Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them only 25c. Guaranteed by Red Cross Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Blaine came down from their north Coos river farm yesterday. Mr. Blaine will take home the lumber for a new barn which he will build on a high ground for winter use. Chas. Rodin, of Allegany is also taking up lumber for a new barn.

A grand mask ball will be given at Libby on Saturday night, September 5th. Music will be furnished by the Libby orchestra, and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. The train will connect at the bunker with a boat from town. A good time is assured.

Birds of a Feather

A real live owl flew into the Owl saloon last evening. He first tried to fraternize with the stuffed owl back of the bar, but discovered the fraud and at last report had taken up his station on cash register. He was evidently in search of the traditional boiled owl.

Disgraceful Exhibition

Those who attended the show given by a traveling hypnotist here Tuesday evening were treated to a disgraceful exhibition which ought to bring his exploits in this section to a speedy close.

The hypnotist who takes advantage of the trust imposed on him by those who submit to his influence, and insults his audience of ladies and gentlemen, can not escape the responsibility, and should be shown that Coos is not a promising field for indecent shows.

Returned From Tennile

E. N. Holcomb returned yesterday from a three-weeks stay on Tennile lake, where he has taken up a home-stand and erected a cabin. He is enthusiastic as to the attractions of that section and thinks it is the garden spot of the world. He brought in a branch with Silver prunes, and another with Poties, which he will take to Ventura, Cal., to show people down there that Coos Bay can beat them for fruit. He expects to be absent about five months.

Gene Home to Tell How it was Done

The Roseburg baseball team, with the exception of two players have returned to Roseburg where they will be released. They suffered defeat in four out of seven games they played in Coos County. It is safe to say that they have at least not found the Coos "bush leaguers" as easy as they thought. If the bushleaguers were no better than they had them sized up they certainly could not have expected many laurels, as the honor of vanquishing such players would have added little to their glory.

The Wrong Lady

A good story is being told at the expense of Rube Mast, deputy county clerk. It seems that a few days ago, a young man from the Bay went over to procure a marriage license. His lady love being under age, he took along the mother's consent in writing, to her marriage. He got his license all right and came home, when it was discovered that Deputy Mast had given the law's consent to the young man's marriage, not to the girl he intended to wed, but to the lady whom he had been fondly regarding as his mother-in-law to be. Rather than follow this program mapped out for him by the deputy county clerk, however, the young man did some lively rustling, and had the daughter's name re-substituted for the mother's, and they will be happy yet.

Presbytery Meets this Evening

The Presbytery of Southern Oregon will convene in the First Presbyterian Church of this city this evening at 8 o'clock, with 20 or more in attendance. The opening sermon will be preached this evening by the retiring Moderator, Rev. W. F. Shields of Medford. The day sessions will convene at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. and will be devoted to business for the most part, but they are open to the public and all are invited to attend.

Revs. W. F. Shields, of Medford, W. G. Connell, of Grants Pass, Geo. Gillespie, of Port Orford, J. W. Strange, of Myrtle Point and Mr. David McComb of Klamath Falls, arrived yesterday and gone fishing today.

This is the first meeting of the kind to be held in Marshfield.

Dora Items

The little church at Dora, has had quite a refreshing, there has been preaching at the schoolhouse for three Sundays, and are to have meeting again next Sunday, besides Rev. Burgess, Rev. C. F. Clap, of Forest Grove, has been here two Sundays. Last Sunday two new members were taken into the church.

President Clark and Foreman Chase of the Bandon Woolen mills are at North Bend looking over the progress made at the new mills there.

Chas. Selander was in town yesterday, bringing his little girl to have the stitches removed from the wound in her foot caused by the removal of a large splinter about a week ago.

Rusty Mike's Diary, Aug. 28, 1903.—Salt's salt, but if Jones advertises it done up in neat packages, clean and desirable he will sell more than Smith, who never advertises it.

Analysis: She—"After all, what is the difference between illusion and delusion? He—"Illusion is the lovely fancies we have about ourselves; delusion is the foolish fancies other people have about themselves."

Begin on the ground. If your appropriation is small, or your experience limited, go carefully. The modest first advertisement is often a germ from which develops a large success, and a large business. A big, pretentious campaign without capital or experience behind it, is usually a soap bubble affair working disaster.

Fate: Once there were two beautiful white eggs laid side by side in a nice new nest. A great big man gathered them up with his rough hands and sold them to a grocer. And one little egg was a goose little egg, and went into an angel cake, but the other little egg was a very, very bad little egg, and got mashed on an actress.—Town Topics.

L A Club Picnic

The annual picnic of the L. A. Club took place yesterday, going down on the Flyer in the morning and returning in the evening. The government works, Life-Saving station and beach were visited, and a fine time is reported.

A Hard Fall

J. B. Arnott, the painter, was quite badly hurt yesterday afternoon by the fall of the sling on which he was at work on a house in south Marshfield. He fell about 12 feet, and though examination by Dr. McCormac disclosed no bones broken, he was shaken up and will be laid up for a while.

End of Bitter Fight

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes, of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by Red Cross Drug Store. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Artifice

A lovelorn maid once feigned Her ankle to have sprained, To make her suitor Unlace her boot, or Massage the muscle strained. Slyly; nymph! Instead He turned and fled; While she, quite banked, Got up; and wauked.—Town Topics.

Suicide Prevented

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, of dispendency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nervine will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c, satisfaction guaranteed by John Frouse, Druggist.

Killed Some Bears

J. W. Catching and Jas. Stock killed three bears near Sumner, Wednesday. They were working on the road, when Mr. Catching's shepherd dog treed two cubs near the road. Mr. Stock went home for a gun, and during his absence, the old she-bear appeared on the scene. She appeared to be annoyed about something and acted very rudely toward Mr. Catching. The boxing match which is said to have taken place would undoubtedly have been very interesting to a spectator, but the old bear was handicapped by the dog hanging to her tail and Mr. Catching stayed in the ring until the arrival of his re-enforcements, when a few shots settled the bear family.

Revival Meetings

The special services that have been in progress for the last three weeks at the Baptist Church conducted by the pastor assisted by the Rev. J. L. Whirry colporteur, of the Baptist Publication Society, Captain O. Berg and wife. Miss Cuthbert and others, have been quite encouraging and successful. Mrs. O. Berg and Miss Cuthbert are accomplished musicians. Their singing have made the nightly street meetings as well as the meetings in the church quite attractive. The Rev. Whirry started to day with his gospel whirry on his return journey to McMinnville. The meetings will be continued. Street meetings will begin at 7 p. m. sharp. Meeting at the church at 8 p. m., all are cordially invited.

Will Advertise Oregon

(Albany Herald) A young man at the Russ House opened a small sack of Bull Durham smoking tobacco last evening and found neatly tucked in the cloth the following note: "To the Boyer: Give this to some pretty girl and tell her to write at once to Frank Harward, Durham, N. C. July 2, 1902."

The note was copied and several messengers started post haste throughout the city, giving the address to every girl they met, as all the Oregon girls are pretty. Mr. Harward, we suppose, will imagine he has been elected secretary of a Mormon Immigration society when the dainty little notes commence to arrive at his home away back midst the tobacco fields of "Old Carolina." The girls will doubtless tell him of the beauties of the Webfoot state, and if he can withstand their diplomacy and tact he has passed all hopes of redemption.

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Bartha Jayer, of Coquille, was visiting friends in Marshfield yesterday.

The usual services will be held at the Catholic church tomorrow, by Rev. Fr Donnelly.

A new step has been put in at the Central hotel, to take up the slack caused by the lowering of the sidewalk.

W. E. Stubbs was down yesterday from Coos river, where he is still improving the country by digging ditches for the farmers.

The Marshfield Water Co. has two shifts of men at work laying a new pipe line from the reservoir to the main line in town, working night and day.

Work has been commenced again upon the railroad shed, by the carpenters and painters. Painters have also been at work on the C. B. & E. R. R. round house.

Ducks are slowly flying; in on the waters of Coos Bay, while the wary hunters are digging their guns out of garret, their boots out of the mud and swiping their neighbor's dog.

A letter from E. C. Whitley, who recently went to Tenino, Wash., to visit his brother, says that he intends to stay there all winter, as his brother is not well. He says there is lots of work going on there, but wages are not so good as in Coos county.

Chas. Snedden will go to San Francisco on the next Arcata, accompanying his daughter Mrs. Bedford, who is returning to her home near Bakersfield, Cal., who has been making a visit here. Mr. Snedden will stay over one trip of the steamer.

Don't be foolish in trading a substance for a shadow. Any substitute offered as "just as good" as many of the well-known and popular remedies, is a shadow of that medicine. There are cures behind claims made for the well-known remedies, which no "just as good" medicines can show.

Off for San Francisco

The tug Reliance, came up from San Francisco arriving Friday, remaining only long enough to make fast to the new mad scow which was launched recently at the Kruss shipyard. She went out immediately with the new scow in tow.

Methodist Church

The Rev. Townsend pastor of the Presbyterian church at Roseburg will preach at the Methodist church Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. M. M. Marshall, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Oakland, Oregon, will occupy the pulpit at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. All members and friends are requested to be present at all the services of the day.

Not a League Game

The Mail informed that the ball game played here Thursday between the Marshfield and North Bend teams was not a league game, as the North Bend team had been withdrawn from the league by Mr. Simpson a day or two before. The Mail was told by a member of the Marshfield team the evening before, that it was to be a league game, but if our report gave that impression it was an error.

Dead Town Advertisement

There is no quieter or safer place on the globe to live in than right here in Springfield, if you only knew it. Your slumbers are never disturbed—not even by the frogs since the water has dried up. And as for protection we don't need any. It is perfectly safe to lay a ten on your front doorstep and sleep all through the night without the least fear of it being removed; and you can leave the windows and doors unlocked too, if you like.—Springfield News.

Will Preach Tomorrow

The Ministers of the Presbytery of Southern Oregon will supply the following pulpits tomorrow:
1. Presbyterian Church, Marshfield, Morning Rev. Geo. Gillespie, Evening Dr. J. A. Townsend.
2. M. E. Church, Marshfield, Morning Dr. J. A. Townsend, Evening Rev. M. M. Marshall.
3. North Bend, Morning Dr. J. V. Milligan.
4. Empire, Evening Rev. J. V. Milligan, D. D.
5. Willowdale, Mr. Geo. D. Byers.
6. Bandon, Rev. W. F. Shields.
7. Myrtle Point, Rev. J. R. Landborough.
8. Coquille, Rev. W. G. Connell.
