

TOO MUCH WIND

Saturdays Cup Race Called Off

Lipton Abandons Hope of Winning

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Highlands, Aug. 29—There was no yacht race today because of a heavy storm which has been raging off the coast for the past two days. The racers lay tugging at their moorings under double anchors, with the crews awaiting official notice that the race was called off.

At midnight the wind was 37 miles and its speed had decreased but little by 5 this morning, at which hour the race was called off.

New York, Aug. 29—The Regatta committee of the New York Yacht Club announced this afternoon that Reliance and Shamrock will race Monday, and every day thereafter until the series of cup races have been completed. The committee named Monday, and each following day in view of the fact that Lipton has practically abandoned all hope of winning, and therefore feel that no time should be lost in concluding the races.

Secretary Carmack said there was absolutely no truth in the statement that the crews of Shamrock and Reliance would be transposed.

SENATOR HOAR'S BIRTHDAY

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Worcester, Mass., Aug. 29—Senator George F. Hoar today celebrated the seventy seventh anniversary of his birth and was congratulated by friends and admirers in many states of the Union. He is now serving his sixth term in the Senate. During the Summer he has devoted part of his time to pleasure and sight-seeing, but his literary work, which seemed to increase each year, has not been neglected. He also gives considerable attention to the affairs of Clark University and other public matters in which he is interested.

CANADA'S EXPOSITION OPENS

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 29—Canada's great industrial exhibition was opened today by Lord Strathcona, who, pressing an electric button, started the machinery in the various big buildings. Exhibitors are numerous this year and include a number of Americans. Among the interesting displays are sixty cases of the queen's jubilee presents and other articles loaned by King Edward. There are also on exhibition a number of Lord 4 fish's presents and a quantity of fish and line contributed by the Countess of Aberdeen.

Portland City Councils reduced circus license one half consequently they go the circus on free passes.

Henry Harms of St Helens met death Wednesday at Howatson logging camp near Clatskanie, by being crushed by a log.

Confronted with two ugly looking six-shooters, S. H. Burke, a man of about 30 years of age, and claiming Portland to be his home, was forced to submit to arrest while attempting to cash a forged paper E. W. Haines' bank at Forest Grove. The six-shooters were manipulated by President Haines and Cashier Kane, who were expecting a call from Burke.

The body of Charles Kangors, better known among the miners of Josephine county as "Russian Charlie," was found a few days ago by Mark Perry and W. H. Gearhart while hunting in the Butte Creek mountains, west of Leland, northern Josephine county. He disappeared two years ago. A few weeks ago a sack of clothing was found supposedly his and now the skeleton has been found only a few hundred yards from where his bones lay.

Hiram Leinenweber, local manager of the Standard Oil Company, at Astoria, distinguished himself last Wednesday by saving from drowning William Bidwell, a 12 year-old boy. When Leinenweber's attention was attracted to the drowning boy he had sunk for the third time in ten feet of water, and only a few bubbles coming to the surface indicated where he was. Without removing even his hat the rescuer dived after the drowning boy, bringing him to the surface, and swam with him to the shore. The boy was unconscious for some time, but efforts to resuscitate him were successful.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

Wilton Lackaye will begin his tour in a play based on the late Frank Norris' novel, "The Pit," early in October.

"From New York to Bering Straits" is the general title chosen by Burton Holmes for his series of five lectures on travels in America.

Although just at the half century mark, George Primrose has lost none of the grace that has characterized his dancing for so many years.

Of the several plays which Mme. Berthard has given in London this season most interest has been shown in Bergerat's "Plus que Reine."

Miss Lizzie Evans of Chicago will desert the variety stage next season and appear in a rural comedy of sentiment called "At Cozy Corners."

Edgar L. Davenport, who was a member of Miss Marlowe's company last season, has been engaged by Joseph Jefferson and will resume work Sept. 28.

Henry Harland is credited with making the announcement that Maxine Elliott is next season to appear in "Lady Paramount," the dramatization of Mr. Harland's novel.

John T. Sullivan has been engaged to play leading business with Orrin Johnson in "Hearts Courageous," which will be seen for the first time on any stage at Powers' theater, Chicago.

GOWN GOSSIP.

Lace covered buttons are a dainty finish to the sheer blouse.

Purple and white are a pretty combination this summer, the purple in somewhat pale tints.

The fall and winter street suits will be made with skirts of instep length and the long, fitted coat.

In millinery for fall and winter wear the high crowned hat in the big shape and the turban in the small shape are the favorites.

Plaid designs in gay colorings are seen in chiffons and are used for blouses made over soft linings of silk in one of the predominating tones of the plaid.

The return of the fitted bodice is heralded. Women have been trying to get rid of the pouch effect in bodices and coats for some time, and the autumn and winter models show that they are succeeding.

ANOTHER SLOW RACE ROUGH WEATHER BUT NOT WIND ENOUGH

Reliance Finishes the Course a Little Too Late With Shamrock Far in the Rear

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Highland, Aug. 21—It was a rattling start for a heavy test of the yachts that dawned this morning.

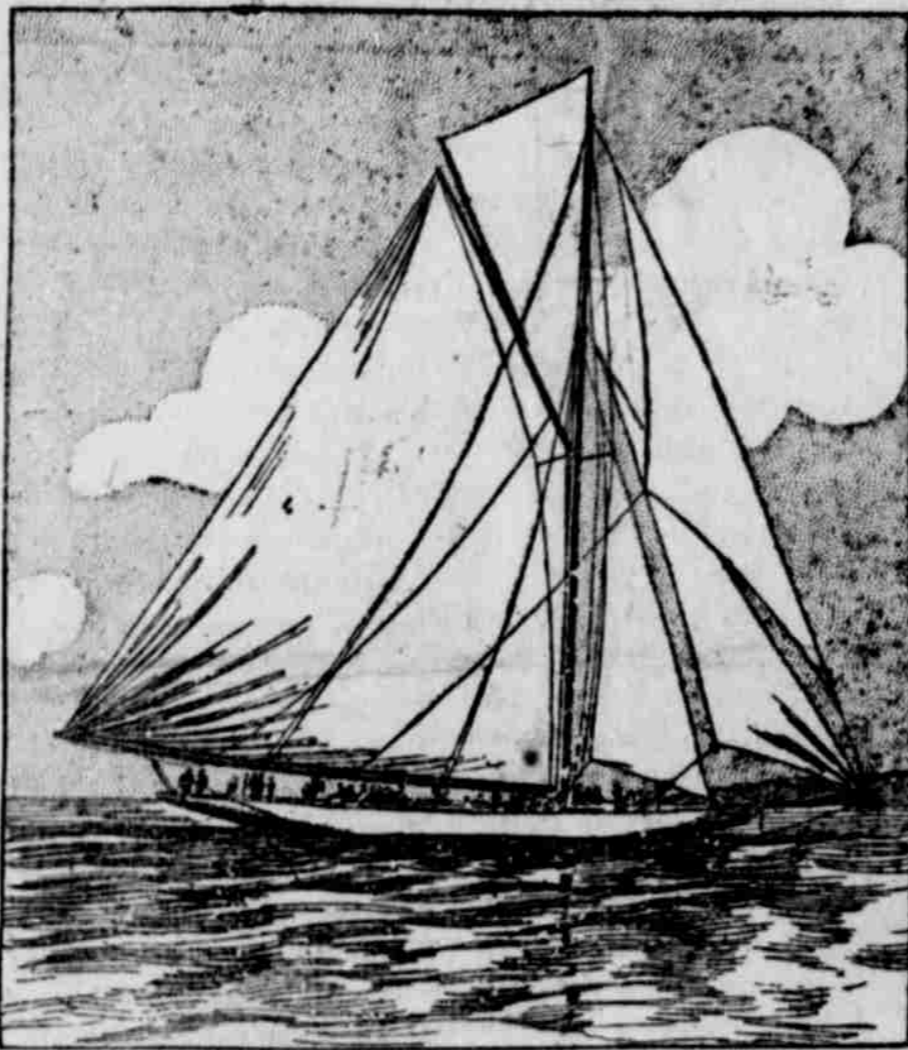

The weather was so rough that it was believed for a time there would be no race. A heavy sea pitched the light-ships like cockle shells. Not a few old

Shortly after 9 o'clock both yachts took tow and stood away for the starting line.

BULLETINS OF THE RACE

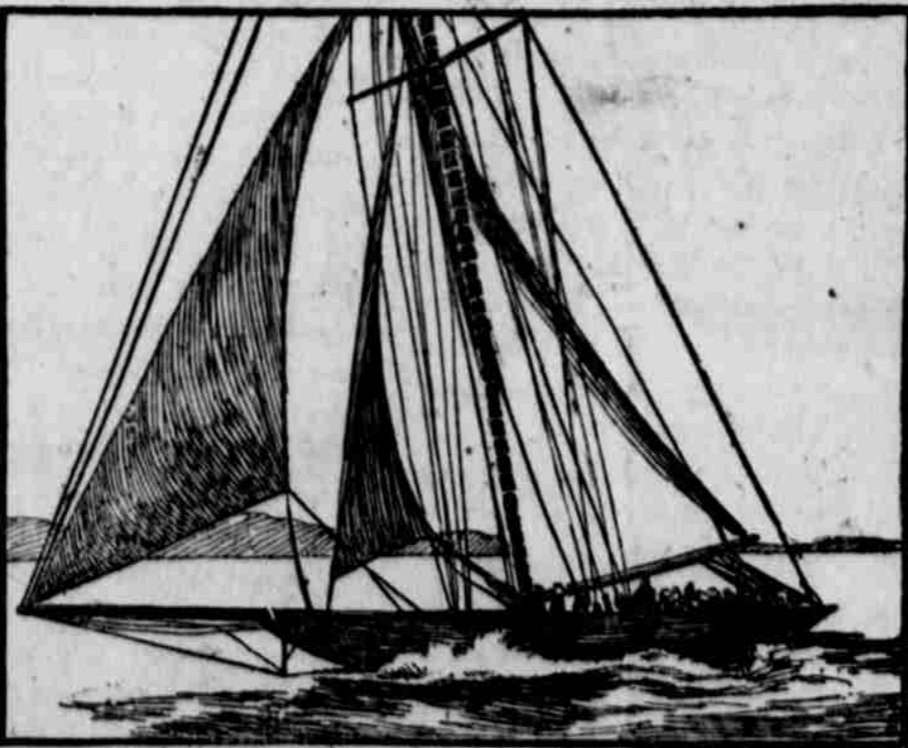

The starting gun was fired at 11:45 with a steady wind.

Starboard tack. Shamrock her only chance, as he was convinced that in light weather she was no match for Reliance.

Today's race was 15 miles to windward and return. All was quiet aboard the yachts till the race was announced, as the captains did not want to raise their sails in the rain which tore down in frequent gusts.

The aerogram says Reliance leads by a mile. The wind off shore is very light and the yachts will not finish within the time limit.

CAPTAIN CHARLES BARR OF RELIANCE, AMERICA'S GREATEST SEA SOCKEY.

3:20—The wind at the starting line is barely four knots. Unless Reliance carries a breeze with her she can hardly finish within the time limit. The aerogram says Shamrock rounded the outer mark 19 minutes after Reliance. The yachts are still lost to view in the mist.

BOB WEINGE, SHAMROCK III'S CAPTAIN.

A long Beach dispatch reports that Reliance turned the outer mark about three o'clock. Wind is light off shore.

4:38—Reliance is seen coming through the mist looking as if she might finish before the time limit.

5:17—On Crossing the line the limit had elapsed, and the race was declared off.

ITEMS FROM AUSTRIA.

On the ground that letters patent have no intrinsic value a woman was acquitted of theft on her trial at Vienna for stealing such a document.

In Austria many parents refuse their daughters to suitors who have no life insurance policy. This is done on sanitary as well as on economic grounds.

It is proposed to establish at Salzburg a summer university, to which men of science can retire for research and postgraduate work during their vacations.

A man in Vienna had his left ear bitten off by a vicious horse. His doctor made him a new one of rubber and succeeded in fastening it in such a way that no one can see any difference between his two ears.

SCRAPS OF SCIENCE.

Mirrors of platinum, palladium, iron, nickel, cobalt, copper and bismuth have been prepared by projecting the metallic particles of cathode rays.

Professor Lodge surmises that the process of disintegration of atoms into electrons, of which they are made up, may constitute the evolution of the chemical elements.

Electrons are actual particles of matter so infinitely small that a microscope with 1,000,000 times the capacity of the most powerful instrument now in existence could not discover them.

STATE LINES.

NOT EVEN HURT

Vice Consul Magelssen Only Scared

War Clouds Can Now Disperse

Washington, Aug. 29—A decidedly new turn in the case of United States Vice Consul William C. Magelssen, at Beirut, Syria, reported to have been assassinated last Sunday, developed tonight when it became known that the report was incorrect, and that although Mr. Magelssen had been shot at he had not even been injured.

This information came to the state Department tonight in a dispatch from United States Minister Leshman, at Constantinople.

Constantinople, Aug. 29—The mistake in making the original announcement of the Magelssen incident was due to error in transmission of a cipher dispatch from Consul Ravengale, at Beirut, reporting the incident to Minister Leshman.

OFFICIALS

COME WEST TO FINISH

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 29—A fishing and hunting party composed of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Armstrong, Assistant United States Treasurer Fish and Collector Stearnahan of New York left Washington today for Chicago and the West. The party will follow an itinerary that will extend as far as the Pacific Coast and will include a week's stay in the Yellowstone Park. The party travels in the magnificent private car of President Fish of the Illinois Central railroad, who is a brother of Assistant Treasurer Fish.
