

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Saturday's Daily.
Sheriff Steve Gallier is over from the county seat on official business.

The interior of the Pioneer Grocery is receiving a new coat of paint at the hands of J. R. Roehon.

Ernest Sanford, who is now managing the father's ranch on Haynes slough was in town yesterday on business.

Ayask at special and dance is to be given tonight at the North Slough Hall by the people of that slough, for the benefit of their organ fund.

Geo. Ross, of Catchins slough was in town yesterday, to note progress on the launch which he is having constructed at John Blumquist's shop.

Emmett Pierce reports that about 600 of his logs, which he has been putting in on the north fork of the Coquille reached the boom at Lee on the fresher.

The Navarro arrived yesterday from Portland. She got off the bar about ten a. m. and waited about 6 hours on the tide. She stopped at North Bend and was not expected here until this morning.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are becoming a favorite for stomach troubles and constipation. For sale by Jno Preuss.

"Why do immigrants emigrate?" asks the Coquille Herald. Because in order to be immigrants they must first emigrate, as they can't be immigrants until after they do emigrate, and they can't emigrate and be immigrants at the same time from the same standpoint, and therefore immigrants don't emigrate anyhow.

Launch Overhauled

The launch "Milkmaid," owned by the Sanford boys, and running between Marshfield and Haynes slough has been on the ways at Peterson's landing for a couple of weeks receiving a thorough overhauling. The entire bottom has been re-caulked, the machinery put in good condition, more windows put in and has been repainted inside and out. She now has the appearance of a new boat.

New Shop, New Sign, Same Old Smith

A beautiful new sign now ornaments Wm. Deubner's blacksmith shop. This new sign adorning the front of the new shop sets it off in fine shape. Mr. Deubner has fitted his new shop in good condition to do all kinds of work. He may have a new shop and may have a new sign, but Mr. Deubner still employs the same old blacksmith, in fact, he has got so used to him and he has become so handy that he has never yet been obliged to pass a job by. Mr. Deubner thinks he will keep the same smith for all time or at least till he retires from the smithy.

Get Your Printing at Home

Of course you want to support home industries and especially the printer. It is true, you may save a little sometimes by sending it abroad. Remember, those few dollars may be a long while in returning to your field of business. If you pay them to one of the Marshfield printers you can keep tab on them, perchance, he may leave some of it with you before he gets out of your store. The patronize-home-industries cry is one every business man can well afford to encourage and especially so in patronizing the home papers, who are constantly doing battle for the town and daily helping build up the very community from which the merchant lives. Every citizen should fully consider the problem of keeping the dollar as near home as possible.

From Sunday's Daily.

Great weather for the coal man.
The Empire is supposed to have sailed from San Francisco yesterday.
The Bay City mill started up yesterday after being shut down for 9 days for minor repairs.

The Milkmaid made a special trip from Haynes slough last evening to take passengers to the dance on North slough.

J. L. Keplinger, formerly of Salem but now of San Francisco is in town. Mr. Keplinger will open a business of some kind in Marshfield.

W. E. Cox has a very large head of cabbage on exhibition at Campbell's store. It was grown by him on the Ross place on Catching slough.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Pooleville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect." For sale by Jno Preuss.

Miss Lulu M. Barnes, of Bandon is in Marshfield awaiting a steamer to go to Portland. She will go east from there to Jamesville, Wis., to visit with friends.

The Evergreen Whist Club met with Mrs. T. S. Minot yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Is Lando won first honors and Miss P. M. Wilbur was given the consolation.

A general understanding was arrived at last evening that the stores and business houses would close at noon Monday, out of respect to the memory of the late Thomas Hirst, whose funeral takes place at 2 p. m.

The story of Lot's wife turning to a pillar of salt can no longer be doubted. A young lady put her foot up on a dry goods box to tie her shoe and two young men who were passing turned to rubber. —Ex.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old-fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25-cent bottle of them. For sale by Jno Preuss.

Mrs. S. A. Edmunds will take charge of the kitchen in the hotel North Bend, Monday. Mrs. Edmunds is one of the most competent cooks on the bay and she thoroughly understands the art cuisine.

Coquille Herald:—A petition addressed to Hon. Binger Hermann, and memorializing congress for an enlarged appropriation for the mouth of the Coquille river, is being circulated and unanimously signed by the citizens of this county. All to whom it has not been presented should make it a point to sign it before it be sent away.

Coquille Herald:—The diphtheria scare has about passed over, there having no new cases developed, and Miss March is about well again. A new case of mumps shows up now and then, but little attention if paid to that disease, and the case of smallpox quarantined will be out in a few days. Thus it will be seen that our town is all O. K. and people need not be afraid now.

A Tie Game

J. W. Bennett received a phone from San Francisco last evening saying that the great ball game between Berkeley Stanford yesterday was a tie game, 6 to 6.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. George Adams wishes to express through the Coast Mail her sincere thanks to neighbors and friends, and especially to the members of the W. of W. for their kindness and sympathy in her late bereavement, in the loss of her husband George Adams.

Steamer Ruth Ashore

A dispatch dated Nov. 11th, brings news that the steamer Ruth has gone ashore at Fisherman's Bay, in Mendocino county, where she was loading railroad ties. All hands were saved. Captain Reed, who formerly ran to the Bay was master of the Ruth, and the place where she went ashore is 42 miles north of Point Arena.

Alliance and Navarro

The Alliance and the Navarro arrived yesterday from the South and North, respectively.

The Navarro did not bring all the Coos Bay freight piled up at Portland, as there was more than she could carry and about 100 tons was left behind.

The Alliance is billed to sail at 7 a. m. today, and the Navarro probably tomorrow morning.

There has been a changing around of pursers on the boats. Harry Skinner is now purser on the Alliance succeeding L. W. Shaw, who takes the Navarro here. E. A. Abbott, late purser on the Alliance and later of the Navarro, goes to Portland on the Alliance to take a position on another boat.

Of Interest to Farmers

Chas. E. Jordan, of East Marshfield, says that the farmer who doesn't take the New York Tribune Farmer is no good; that there are articles in nearly every issue that are worth more than the cost for a year, that the veterinary department, conducted by Smeed is the best yet.

W. B. Cox, of Ross slough, says the Tribune Farmer is the best farm paper published, and he, too, speaks particularly of Smeed. He says no farmer will quit taking the paper after he has had it for a year.

We are quoting these gentlemen without their permission, because we want our farmer friends to become interested in a good thing they can get the Farmer in connection with the COAST MAIL daily or weekly at a nominal cost. See our clubbing offers.

Hard on the Salmon

Emmett Pierce thinks that the county court, or fish warden, or some person or power interested in salmon culture should do a little work at a certain place on the north fork of the Coquille. He says that about 14 miles above Fairview there is a perpendicular fall of about 15 feet in the river, which no salmon can pass except when the water is high. There is a deep pool below and this becomes crowded with salmon that can get no farther. There is no place for them to spawn and they wear themselves out trying to jump the falls, which are too high. A little work with dynamite on the top of the falls would blast them down to an incline which could be surmounted by the fish, which could then go five or six miles farther and find good spawning grounds. There are undoubtedly many streams where such conditions appear, and the matter is worthy the consideration of the fishing interests.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and I brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Jno Preuss.

More Algebra

ED MAIL—T. A. B.'s method of solving the problem I asked for a solution of in your paper is correct in all but that he says in proving the problem he finds one to be incorrect.

Had he worked it by an easier method which I had in mind he would have found that as well as 4 is correct.

The next to the last step in the problem as I worked it is: Square root of X equals 2 or minus 1. Squaring both sides of the equation X equals 4 or 1.

Now here is where T. A. B. made his mistake in that he forgot that the square root of one as used in Algebra equals one or minus one. Had he substituted minus one in the problem he would have found it to prove right.

The next to the last step in the problem shows that minus one should have been used in proving the problem.

Another New Club

Sixteen of the young ladies and young married folks of Marshfield met Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Essie Brown and organized a sewing club. This new organization will meet each Saturday. The next regular meeting of the club will be at the home of Misses Margaret and Evelyn Anderson. The club is run in a business like way and has a set of officers. The meetings will be for mutual benefit. Once each month the ladies will entertain their gentlemen friends. The club has not yet been named but it will be christened at the next meeting. The regular members are:

Misses Alice Aiken, Margaret Anderson, Eva Anderson, Elsie Bennett, Gussie Brown, Alice Butler, Agnes Hurcheson, Grace McCormac, Edna O'Connell, Maud Reed, Jettie Watson Stella O'Connell and Mesdames W. H. Short, Wm. Lawlor, J. W. Finagan, E. L. C. Farris.

About Ready to Start

The North Bend Woolen Mill Co. expect a consignment of wool on the steamer Signal, which is due to arrive the coming week. After the wool stock is at hand it will be but a short time before the mill will be turning out goods in large quantities.

A large consignment of dye stuffs is expected on the Empire, which is due to arrive this week. The dye vats and tanks are now being erected and put in position.

Jack Haskins the engineer in the Bandon mill will be at the mill the coming week and start the big engine and the machinery. Mr. Newmyer the superintendent, will get the various machines in order for steady work, and it is thought that inside of 10 days the mill will be in full operation.

The light system is installed and the different departments of the mill are all arranged so light can be turned on from one switchboard in the main part of the building.

Superintendent Farris is hurrying the work with all speed and thinks North Bend woolen mill product can be on the market some time this month.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Clarence Walters, one of the heavy loggers of McKinley is in town on business.

H. B. Fulton of Haynes slough was in town yesterday for the first time in quite a while.

If Floyd Coffelt will call at this office, we would like to ask him a question or two, about that dog.

J. B. Arnott, of East Marshfield, came over to town Monday for the first time in several week. He is improving slowly from a broken hip caused by a fall while painting a house in South Marshfield.

The Pioneer Grocery Company is having a warehouse built at the rear of the store 24x24 for housing their surplus stock of goods. This will enable this firm to handle their largely increasing trade to much better advantage.

Fred Wilson of Sumner brought down seven head of fat steers Monday for Noble Brothers. Talk about your broncho busters and cowboys you would think a whole band had been turned loose the way those steers came over the trail.

A New Eating House

Andrews & Squires have bought out the old stand where the Broiler formerly held forth. This new eating house will be conducted under the name of the Star Restaurant. Messrs Andrews & Squires are experienced restaurant people and respectfully invite the public to give them a trial. Meals will be served at all hours and neatness, cleanliness and dispatch is their motto.

Farewell Surprise Party

A surprise and farewell party was given last evening at the home of A. Abbott to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cole, who start this morning by way of Drain for Portland, where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have made many friends in Marshfield who regret their departure.

The Office Hero

The marine reporter has a claim on a medal from the humane society. Coming to work last night he discovered the small cat of A. Amstien's little daughter perched away up on a telephone pole by the South Marshfield bridge. Some naughty boys had chased her up there and she was at a loss how to get down. The marine reporter shinned up the pole at the expense of considerable exertion and rescued the small feline, to the great joy of its small mistress.

He Was Surprised

The following clipping from a late Vancouver paper has reference to a former Marshfield boy.

"A most delightful surprise party was given Mr. Frank Bridges at his home on Eighth street Saturday evening. Mr. Bridges returned from downtown about 8:00 o'clock found a large number of young folks awaiting him. The surprise was quite complete. A short literary and musical program was rendered after which refreshments were served.

Got Our Share

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday night while the daily MAIL was being ground out and the whole force was in a contemplative mood. We were wondering what was going on the "back stairs." We knew all was going on in good shape up in the hall but just what was doing on the back stairs where the Woodmen advertised that something would be doing. We knew the Woodmen were having a time getting a lot of logs in shape and that a clearing was being made up the tall brush and logs were being piled and brush burned. All these things were turned over in our minds, when the silence was broken by the Marine Reporter who ventured the remark "I wonder if the W. O. W. will have anything left over! I guess they'll make a clean sweep! They never do have anything left over!" and several other such remarks, which usually act as a wet blanket on the peculiar craving of the printer about that time of night, when all of a sudden bum-bum-bum went the door and in came a lanky Woodman. He wore a perpetual smile. He told us the Woodmen had sent up this launch, then he disappeared.

We soon opened the package and felt too. In it were fine sandwiches, delicious cookies, cheese and pickles. There was one package, it was a beauty, all wrapped in silver foil, pure silver foil. The Marine Reporter at once recognized it as being some of the "Sh-sh-sh on the back stairs" which the Woodmen advertised.
