The Governor also calls a special election in the ninth and nineteenth senatorial districts, to be held December 16. The demands for a special session came from nearly every county and city in the state.

Why.

"Lillian is not sure that she loves Walter. Sometimes she thinks she does, and at other times she's convinced she doesn't."
"And yet she is going to marry him?"
"Oh, yes, that's all settled."
"But if she is not sure she loves him why doesn't she break the engagement?"
"Because she is twenty-seven."—Kansas City Journal.

AFFAIRS GOING SMOOTHLY

For New Isthmus Re- public

Special to the Mail.

Washington, Nov. 20—Varilla introduced the Panama commissioners to Secretary Hay this morning. The commissioners stated that a call for a constitutional convention would be made as soon as possible. They had a cable from their government last night to that effect.

The State Department this morning received messages from Brazil and Germany, each indicating that as soon as a regular government is formed in Panama they are ready to officially recognize it.

LARGEST VESSEL LAUNCHED

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Belfast, Nov. 21—The new White Star liner Baltic, the largest vessel in the world, was launched today. She is 720 feet long and registers 23,000 tons.

LONELY VOYAGE ENDED

Special to the Mail.

Gibraltar, Nov. 20—The little American sloop Columbia with only Captain Bragg aboard arrived this morning from Boston after 100 days on the voyage.

The Laughing Hyena.

Although the hysterical laughter of the laughing hyena is not, as was once supposed, the outcome of a deliberate attempt to decoy unwary travelers to their doom, this strange animal is, nevertheless, one of the most cunning of dumb animals. He is so suspicious of everything he does not understand that the sight of even a bit of string at once puts him on his guard. Trappers are aware of this fact and generally use the stems of creeping plants instead of string of any kind in setting their spring traps.

The Catawba Comes to Its Own.

The Catawba grape in southern Ohio is itself again. Bunches weighing from three to five pounds are not uncommon. It originated in South Carolina about 1800 and was made famous by Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, a noted wine merchant of "before the war," says National Stockman.

Plants Wintered in the Cellar.

Plants wintered in the cellar should be kept quite dry, pot dust dry, but should have very little moisture. A dark place is best for them, as light tends to excite growth, and a cool cellar is better than a warm one, provided it be not frost cold.

"Twas dainty as a peach,
But now she's full of freckles
That cost ten dollars each."

Why not enlist the racing sort
To kill the enemies?

FITZSIMMONS IS THE FAVORITE

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

San Francisco, Nov. 21—With the big battle between Robert Fitzsimmons and George Gardner for the light heavy weight championship of the world but four days off the public interest in the event has reached a high pitch. The bout is the subject of conversation in all places where sporting men are wont to congregate. The contest will be as interesting as any ever pulled off in this city. The fight is expected to be nearly even and one of the best from the scientific standpoint.

Fitzsimmons continues to be a slight favorite over Gardner in the betting on the result. Both men are training hard and they will be in excellent trim. Fitzsimmons won light heavy-weight championship from Jack Root at Fort Erie last July.

TOM HORN QUIETLY HANGED

No Attempt at Rescue By His Friends

Special to the Mail.

Cheyenne, Nov. 20—Tom Horn was hanged at 11:05 this morning. There was not the slightest show of an attempt by Horn's friends to interfere, as the militia was prepared for a bloody battle.

As soon as Horn seemed to realize the situation, he sent for his former employer Coble, a cattle man, and had a long private talk. He showed no fear, just before the trap was sprung he declared he was innocent. He also left a letter to Coble, protesting his innocence.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR COMING

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

London, Nov. 21—The Etruria, sailing for New York today, has among her passengers, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the new British Ambassador to the United States. Lady Durand and Miss Durand will remain in England about a fortnight longer, but expect to reach Washington by Christmas.

Fixing the Blame.

"The trouble ain't with the farm," said the old man. "If the farm didn't have to do anything but support itself, it could be made to pay, but it don't seem to be able to carry the burden of us livin' on it, so I reckon we're to blame."—Chicago Post.

Losing an Opportunity.

"The curtain goes up at 8:15, so we'll be just in time."
"But if we have a box it really seems a shame to be so punctual."—Brooklyn Life.

Christened With Oil.

A steamer for the use of the missions to seamen was recently launched in England. The wife of the bishop of Durham broke upon the bows of the vessel a bottle containing pure oil and named it the Good Hope.

STILL WANT THE CUP

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

No Large Uprising Feared

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Washington, Nov. 23—The War Department has received a cable from the Philippines confirming the news of a battle between the troops under Woods and the Moros, in which the latter lost 300. None of the Americans were killed.

Further movements are contemplated, and the Moros have taken a position considered impregnable. Indications are that there will be no uprising, or in any case, no difficulty in handling the uprising.

Then come England with 45½ years; France, 44½; Prussia, 39; Wurttemberg, 38; Bavaria and other parts of Germany, 30. In Austria and Spain the inhabitants have the shortest lives, the average age being only 33.

First American Steel.

The first steel manufacturer in the United States was Cornelius Atherton. Born in Cambridge, Mass., in 1763, he went into the iron business early and made his first successful experiments in the manufacture of steel in 1769. He died at South Bainbridge, N. Y. (now Afton), in 1809.

Greenland Now Christian.

With the exception of a few hundred inaccessible heathen on the east coast, Greenland, with its 10,000 population, is now under a uniform Christian influence.

Phosphorus Toughens Aluminum.

According to a German patent the toughness and durability of aluminum can be much increased by the addition of phosphorus. The addition of 7 to 15 per cent makes the metal extremely hard and tough and well adapted for forgings. Three per cent produces a good horseshoe metal, and with a 2 per cent addition it can be easily rolled.

Great Letter Writers.

The United States postal department handles 7,250,000,000 letters and cards a year, a number about equal to that of Great Britain, Germany and France taken together.

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Senator Hale discussed the Cuban annexation proposition in the Senate today. He said he did not doubt but Canada would become a part of the United States within 20 years and even that time might be hastened if the tariff discussion continues in England.

JESSE FULLER NAMED

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Washington, Nov. 23—President Roosevelt sent in to the Senate the nomination of Jesse Fuller to be pension agent at San Francisco.

Industrial Submarine.

The submarine has at last been adapted to the purposes of pacific industry. The author of this interesting achievement is, appropriately enough, a minister of religion, the Abbe Raoul of Tunis. His submarine is a diving boat of small dimensions, worked by three strong screws and manipulated from within. It is intended to be used for the purposes of the pearl and sponge fisheries and for exploring the ocean's bed. Recently a descent was made to a depth of forty-one yards in the gulf of Goletta, and the little craft gave a very good account of itself.

Disposal of Sewage.

An exhaustive report has been issued by the Worcestershire (England) county council upon the bacterial treatment of sewage by different methods. The conclusion arrived at is that the best method for the treatment of domestic sewage is a closed septic tank with bacterial beds filled with coke, which was found to be better than coal, brick or stone, two bacterial beds being provided to be used alternately to avoid ponding.

The Rhodum Sidus.

An amusing story told by Hood describes how a country nurseryman made a large sum out of sales of a simple little flower which he sold under the name of the Rhodum sidus. This charming name proved quite an attraction to the ladies, and the flower became the rage of the season. It was one of those freaks of fashion for which there is no accounting. At length a botanist who found that the plant was not an uncommon weed requested to know where the nurseryman got the name from. He elicited the following reply: "I found this flower in the road beside us, so christened it the Rhodum sidus."

"He's the most eccentric genius I ever met."
"He certainly is a genius, but I never considered him eccentric."
"That's just it. The average genius is eccentric, and his lack of eccentricity makes him all the more eccentric."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Family History.

"Both of my grandparents on my mother's side were nonagenarians," said Mrs. Oldcastle.
"Is that so?" replied her hostess. "My folks was all Baptists, but Josiah comes from a Methodist family."—Chicago Record-Herald.

THEY WILL FIGHT

Belligerent Talk From Columbia

Wont Submit Tamely in Isthmus.

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Colon, Nov. 21—After much difficulty, the associated press correspondent succeeded this afternoon in interviewing General Reyes, the distinguished Colombian soldier who came to the Isthmus on a peace mission representing his government.

General Reyes said this morning: "Admiral Coghlan has informed me officially that the United States will prevent the landing of troops on any part of the Isthmus, and I have promised Admiral Coghlan that Colombia will not take such action until I reach Washington, whither I am proceeding via Port Limon and New Orleans.

"I also told Admiral Coghlan that if my efforts at Washington failed to bring about an arrangement concerning the present situation on the Isthmus satisfactory to Colombia the United States would have to fight the entire Colombian people, and it would be a second Boer war.

"I am going to Washington for the purpose of doing my utmost to arrange affairs amicably. Colombia is in desperation, and I doubt if the Washington government or President Roosevelt or whom I have the highest respect, realizes the seriousness of establishing such a precedent."

Vegetables.

Among those vegetables containing the largest per cent of starch may be mentioned potatoes, beans, corn, peas, carrots, beets, turnips and parsnips. The pungent vegetable foods, as leeks, onions, garlics, horseradish, etc., increase the saliva and the gastric juices, acting somewhat on the kidneys.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb.

Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble.

Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
