THE NEW YORK WORLD
THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION

Read wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-a-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. Time is the test of all things, and has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-a-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever. All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week-World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week-World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week-World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Weekly COAST MAIL, together one year for $2.00.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.
NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, Sept. 3, 1902.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.

AUGUST W. PETERSON,
of Luteen, County of Cook, State of Minnesota, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 6681 for the purchase of the SW 1/4 of Section No. 29 in Township No. 25 North of Range No. 10 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Monday to 15th day of February, 1904.

He names as witnesses: J. M. Weatherly, Wm. Follock, Charles Thom, John Thom, all of Roseburg, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 15th day of February, 1904.

J. T. Burdass, Register.

Drying preparations simply dash up dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren St., N. Y.

Possibly a New Boat

There is strong talk among some of the farmers of the north fork of Coos river of putting on an opposition boat to the Alert as soon as it is certain that a change of ownership is made or a cooperative boat for their own use.

Woodmen Installation

The following officers were installed in Coos Bay Camp No. 196, W. O. W., on Saturday January 9th: C. C. A. R. Tenbrook; Adv. L. F. Dow; Escort, Wm. Eickworth; Watchman, C. D. Magary; Sentry, J. O. Stoops; Manager, J. Lee Brown; Banker, Is. Landu; Clerk, A. B. Prentis.

A Bad Actor

J. W. Tibbette had a serious accident the other evening. It is his usual custom to have a frolic with his dog before retiring for the night, while playing with it in some way his foot slipped and he struck his toe against the bed post, severely dislocating the toe, which has caused him to be obliged to use a cane.

Fine Cheese

Capt. Harris has left at this office a sample of cheese made at his Sumner factory in August last. It is equal to the best New York September full cream cheese, and shows what can be done in this section with proper knowledge and care. Captain Harris is certainly doing his part toward demonstrating that this is a dairy country without a superior.

Hume's Radium.

"The Radium" is the name of R. D. Hume's new paper. The paper is for the express purpose of Mr. Hume's own interests and will be a lively sheet. It will be published once a month. The expounding of Mr. Hume's views and up building of his own business and incidentally Curry County, will be the main object of the paper. It will be mailed to all addresses free of charge.

Not Willing to Give Him Up

Many of Captain Edwards' friends are very much surprised at learning that he is about to sell the steamer Alert. Mr. Edwards has worked hard and has earned the full confidence of all of his patrons and they are now demanding that he remain in the steamboat business. Captain Edwards is a careful, competent steamboatman and will be hard to replace and his many friends and patrons do not wish to see him retire from the business and are making an effort to have him remain in it.

Cows That Pay.

During the year just ending, one of the cows belonging to the dairy herd at the Agricultural college at Corvallis has given 9756 pounds of milk. The yield of butter from this milk was 526 pounds, and at an average price of 30 cents per pound, the butter product alone was worth nearly $160. In addition, a moderate valuation of the separated milk for feeding purposes to swine, has been placed at $40, making a total revenue from this cow about $200. The animal is a full blood Jersey, 4 years old, and while not a wonder, yet proves that a herd of such cows on a well-managed dairy farm, would return the proprietor a handsome income.

Stage Takes a Tumble

The out going stage met with a mishap Monday which gave the driver and passengers an experience which they will not soon forget. It was about 1 o'clock p. m. and the stage was going around a high grade near Hansen's place above Remote, when the wheel of the wagon slipped over the grade the vehicle and horses turning completely over and not stopping until they landed in the river forty feet below. When the wagon turned over the first time the driver, passenger and mail were thrown out, one of the passengers, Mr. Reyes, being badly bruised about the body. The other passenger was slightly bruised but luck favored the driver and he came out of the experience unscratched. The horses were taken out of the water and to the surprise of the driver were not seriously injured and were able to continue on the drive. The precipice was rough and steep and it is a great wonder that all were not instantly killed.

(It will now be in order for the North Bend Citizen to write an editorial on the Roseburg-Myrtle Point wagon road and tell its readers of Coos county, who have lived here all their lives the peculiar points about this road and warn them that "it is not a road, never was a road and never will be, even a respectable mule trail," before some of its thousands of subscribers are killed.)

A Sunday Morning Bath

Sunday morning, at 4 o'clock when the merry dancers were returning from Bay City, where they had been enjoying an excellent time dancing to the sweet strains of a $30 Wagner and a banjo picker of renown. Dancing broke up in the small hours. The night was inky black and the party was slowly wending its way through the lumber piles to the wharf. The van was led by the fiddler, with his trusty violin under one arm and his best girl keeping step to the sweet dreams and reveries of the evening, followed by the rest of the merry dancers. The leader missed the proper hole in the lumber yard and came to the water front before he expected it and stepping suddenly into blank, black, nothingness, going down, with the frightened scream of his best girl ringing in his ears as he took soundings in the briny depths of three fathoms of icy aqua. Excitement ran high. Fortunately the disciple of Paganini began fiddling for his life with both his hands and his feet and was finally rescued by an oar, but his trusty Wagner had vanished in the darkness. It was returned to its owner for a reward of $2.50. The violin was ruined, a new suit of clothes soaked in brine. The party spent the rest of the night in the engine room of the sawmill while the fiddler dried his clothes and the crowd cheered his weary soul. It was broad daylight when the party reached home.

Push Club Notes

We have received advice that the Push Club buttons have been shipped and will be here by the next steamer leaving San Francisco and as soon after their arrival as possible the Committee expected to have them in every store in the County and it will not take long to see who are the "Pushing" people of Coos County, in fact, the Push Club bids fair to be the largest organization in this part of the State except the County itself.

CONDENSED MILK PLANT

Looking Up Location in Coos County

Mr. Seeley, of Albany, was in Marshfield Saturday and Sunday looking over the field in view of putting in a condensed milk plant on the bay.

Mr. Seeley is a gentleman of means and fully understands the business. He is in meeting with some encouragement from the dairymen of this section. Mr. Seeley is the owner of a creamery and cold storage plant at Albany and has had a wide experience in this business. He comes here well recommended and will establish a condenser somewhere in this county.

It now stands the dairymen of this end of the county in hand to fully investigate this proposition and if there is a greater profit in condensing the product of their cows than in the manufacture of butter or cheese it will be wise for them to know the full importance of a new industry of this sort.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Robbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Red Cross Drug Store.

Arago is the main "Push" in the "Push." The Committee would have some wrappers for the apples to distribute if the Myrtle Point Enterprise was not so rushed with work that they are unable to get them out. Myrtle Point must be a pushing place.

The Simpson Lumber Co. are preparing a fine exhibit of woods; all the Creameries of the county are enthusiastic over a dairy exhibit.

The Committee waited on the County court last week with a petition signed by 578 voters and this petition also represented from 90 to 70 per cent of the tax payers of the county, asking for $1000 to help advertise the county. The Committee expect to raise from three to four thousand dollars in addition to this and they have about half of it in sight already. Who says that Coos county people are not "Pushers,"

A Very Close Call

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Jno. Treves. Price 50 cents.

STEAMER DISPATCH IS WRECKED
The Vessel Breaks in Two After Being Beached

On Friday the steamer Dispatch owned by the Coquille River Steamboat Co., which operates on the Coquille river, ran onto a snag between Parkersburg and Bandon, tearing a hole in her bow. It was during a hard wind and the steamer being quite high she was unmanageable and was beached. When the tide receded the steamer settled down breaking her hog chains, leaving the vessel in a precarious condition. It is the opinion of some that she may yet be saved but others think it will cost as much as the vessel is worth to get her off and rebuild her as her back is broken. The Dispatch is one of the finest river steamers ever built in this part of Oregon, and will be a serious loss to the Coquille river people. The steamer cost about $18,000.

Christmas Night-Tired Out.
The yule logs burn to an ashbar.
The joys of the day assemble
Like beams that cling to a dying star.
While a wooden soldier dreams of war
On a Christmas bough a-tremble.

Still is the voice of the little child,
And sleep is come to capture
The painted beasts of the jungle wild
And the eyes that danced with glee and smiled
When the dawn awoke to rapture.

The last little bear in the picture book
His tale in the wood has spoken.
And tired eyes close on a last fond look
At the sweets and toys in niche and nook
Scattered and bent and broken.

Christmas fades from the weary eyes,
As day to her dark and dreaming,
But over the coals, in love's disguise,
Two hearts, like stars in the shadowy skies,
Are burning yet and beaming.

For sleep may come to the drowsy glee
And night to the love's supernal,
But age in paternal ecstasy
And youth in the dreams of joy to be
Are immortal and eternal.
