Rusty Mike's Diary, Jan. 22, 1904.—When I told my boy, Bill, he couldn't go to the circus till his chores was done, he hiked 'em through, but you ought to see the way they was done—it takes both time and attention to do good advertising.

An Oversight

By some oversight on the part of those who furnished the item, the name of F. A. Golden was omitted from the list of those who contributed to the donation of $80 to the fire department from the property owners in the block saved from fire last week.

Further Particulars of Drowning

Body of Leonard Gould not yet Recovered

Further particulars of the drowning of Leonard Gould at Allegany Thursday were obtained from Capt. Edwards on the arrival of the Alert yesterday.

It seems that there were only two persons in the boat instead of three, as reported. Young Gould's companion was Fay Matson, a son of Matt Matson. They started in a small skiff across the east fork above the point where a wire cable is swung across the river.

The swift current carried the skiff under this cable, which hung a couple of feet above the water. Young Matson ducked under, but Gould seized hold of the cable with the result that the skiff capsized. Matson swam ashore, but Gould was carried down stream and not being a good swimmer kept afloat but a short time.

The accident was witnessed by several people. John Sawyer and Bert Anderson jumped into a boat at the steamer landing and started for the point where Gould was struggling in the water, but he went down before they could reach him.

There is little chance for an immediate recovery of the body, as the freshest would carry it down the river.

PUSH CLUB BUTTONS

Something Everyone Ought to Provide Himself With.

The Push Club buttons have been received and may be seen adorning the lapels of all progressive citizens in a few days.

The buttons are large enough and white enough to be seen quite a ways, and the moral effect of their appearance in large numbers is certain to be good. What Coos county wants is an awakening of the progressive spirit represented by the push club, and every man can help arouse his fellow citizen by wearing one of these buttons. They are sold for 50 cents apiece and the money goes to advertise Coos county. Buy one. Wear one.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between A. V. Wickman and V. A. Wickman under the firm name of Wickman & Wickman has this day been dissolved by mutual consent; that all claims and demands owing said firm are payable to V. A. Wickman, and that said V. A. Wickman has assumed and will pay all demands against said firm.

Dated this 1st day of January, 1904.

Mrs. May Huntley, of Ferndale, who has been confined to her bed for the past five weeks with rheumatism, was able to get up and around the house yesterday.

Found a Cure for Indigestion

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by Jno. Preuss.

The new owners of the Crecent mine are passengers on the Arcata, now due, and it is expected that they will commence the development of their property on a large scale.

Very Dry Place

The following extracts are from a letter written by J. D. Sunderland, formerly of Marshfield, who has been living at Santa Ana but has now moved to San Diego.

"I have been here about two weeks; like it allright, but it is very dry, has not rained for nearly a year. There is but one dryer place, and no one ever returned to tell us all about it.

"J. D. Johnson is here with us and likes the climate very much, but has not bought a place yet."

Large Shipment of Lumber
 (Bandon Recorder)

The greatest amount of lumber that ever passed over the Coquille bar in one day, passed out last Friday; when the three three-masters and the two steamers cleared for San Francisco, with nearly a million and a half feet of lumber aboard. The schooners Ruby, Onward and Coquille are ready to pass out when the bar smooths down again, and they will take out about another million feet. This month will probably witness the largest output of lumber from the Coquille within the history of the river. The Coquille got out yesterday.

Coos County Shows Enterprise
 (Oregonian)

Coos County, which has already distinguished itself by being the first county to make active preparations for representation at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, as well as at St. Louis, has exhibited more enterprise by making a county appropriation for the St. Louis fair. The County Court has just appropriated $1000 for use in advertising the county there. This amount will be placed at the disposal of the Coos County Push Club, which is composed of enterprising and energetic residents of that section, to be expended as it sees fit.

DEATH OF A GOOD CITIZEN

Attorney Galus Webster, a Pioneer of this Section-

(The Paso Robles Record)

The death of Attorney G. Webster occurred at the home of his family in this city Tuesday, Jan. 12 at 10 a. m. Mr. Webster had been ill for many weeks and though his family realized that recovery was impossible, yet did not expect the end so soon.

Mr. Webster's health began to fail about two years ago and with his family he moved to Pacific grove with the hope that the sea air might brace up his declining constitution. A few months ago they came to Paso Robles in an endeavor to restore the invalid to his once robust condition. But in spite of climatic effect and physicians' efforts his health continued to wane and death came peacefully to relieve him of earthly cares and suffering.

The remains were taken Thursday to San Miguel where services were held at the M. E. church and surrounded by all the members of the family, his friends and acquaintances, the body was laid to rest in the San Miguel cemetery.

Galus Webster was born in New York Nov. 23, 1842. At the early age of 19 he enlisted in the Union Army and served throughout the Civil war. With apparent fondness for frontier life he came to the Pacific Coast and settled in Oregon where he took up the study of law in the office of the late Gov. Chadwick. He was later admitted to practice and began his legal career in Southern Oregon. Mr. Webster was elected twice as joint senator from Coos and Curry counties, Oregon.

In 1882 with his family he moved to San Miguel, then a sparsely settled region. There he established the first paper in this portion of the state and devoted his time jointly to the practice of law and journalism. With the height of the boom in Paso Robles, he came here with his sons, Alex and J. C. Webster, and edited the Paso Robles Record for a time and established the law firm of G. & A. Webster, his son Alex Webster being junior partner. A few years ago Mr. Webster retired to his farm at San Miguel preferring the more quiet life of a farm to business though he still retained to some extent his legal practice which his extensive acquaintance and sterling methods had built up.

Personally he was a quiet, unassuming man, devoting himself strictly to his own affairs or to those who had employed his services. His strict integrity and ability won for him a high regard from the business community and the highest esteem of all.

He was a member of the Ancient Order of Foresters and a Delegation of the Paso Robles Lodge was present at the funeral to pay their last respects to an honored member.

There survives the deceased his wife, two sons and two daughters. The latter are Attorney Alex Webster of Paso Robles, Attorney J. C. Webster of Sonora and the Misses Esther and Elizabeth Webster also of Paso Robles. A sister, Mrs. E. A. Mains resides at San Miguel. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this community and elsewhere.

Congratulations

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by Jno. Preuss.

The Marshfield, Or., Coast Mall issued a neat illustrated supplement on January 7th, which gives a good description of the various resources of Coos county.—Del Norte Record.

Every body is getting in line and the man who does not adorn his lapel with a push button is simply not in earnest about Coos county coming to the front in raising funds for the exhibit.

Coos county has to her credit $1,485.28 from the 2 per cent set aside by the government for all public lands sold. The fund can be used only for road purposes.

Isn't it about time the city council gave the A. N. W. Club a definite answer as to where and when a public drinking fountain can be placed.

BAD BLOOD

"CASCARETS do all claimed for them and are a truly wonderful medicine. I have often wished for a medicine pleasant to take and at last have found it in Cascarets. Since taking them, my blood has been purified and my complexion has improved wonderfully and I feel much better in every way."

Logs for Simpson Lumber Co.

About 4000 logs were boomed in the Coquille at Cedar Point boom last week. In all, this season, 11,000 logs have been handled there and there are yet 8000 to come which will be brought over to the Eagle Point boom by railroad for the Simpson Lumber company.

There still remains about 8000 logs in the tributaries of the Coquille for this company.

City Council Meets

The city council met last evening with a full representation. Up to the time of going to press, they had passed an ordinance defining the duties of the city officers. The team license ordinance recently passed was also modified, so as to permit the taking of a license for one year from date of issue, instead of for the calendar year, also doing away with the exemption of teams employed on street work.
