PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Saturday's Daily.

Salem is to have a new lighting plant.

John Porter one of the substantial farmers of Allegany was in town yesterday.

Brag on this fine weather while you may, for it keeps up you'll all be sick. "It ain't nucheral."

Bert Anderson and Dick Van Bibber have opened up a hand logging camp on the east fork of north Coos river.

Geo. Waters of North Bend came up yesterday for treatment to his eye, having been struck by a limb from a tree.

Dr. Geo. Russell, of Coquille City came over to Marshfield Friday to be treated for tonsillitis. He will remain a few days.

J. J. Clinkenbeard just returned from the Tenmile country which he has been visiting in his capacity of county commissioner.

Mysterious Circumstance

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. My gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c, at John Preuss Drugget.

Every one should turn out to the Firemen's ball tonight and give the boys a good lift for their improvement fund, having a grand good time also.

The Cooper surveying party will move headquarters back to the bay the first of next week, having completed the beach survey from the Umpqua as far as Tenmile.

The Chico sailed yesterday for the Coquille, whence she arrived the day before with the machinery of the Bandon Woolen mills and 200 sacks of wool, which were unloaded at the new mill at North Bend.

Died in Arizona

Miss Jennie Peterson of Empire, died Wednesday at Phoenix, Ariz, whither she went about 4 months ago, accompanied by her mother, in vain hope of benefit to her health, her ailment being consumption. She was a granddaughter of David Roberts of Empire, and age was 26. The remains will be brought home, probably on the Arcata, and will be interred at Coquille City, where the father of the deceased is buried.

Tenmile Items

Capt. C. Norris left a few days ago for a visit to San Francisco, expecting to be absent about three weeks. The captain intends to ocean up a place of business where the weary and thirsty travellers may get a stimulant when journeying across the lake.

George Schroeder of North Bend is expected here in a week or two, to get ready for active business by March 1st. Mr. Alex Scott late of Coos River will assist when the creamery again resumes operation.

J. J. Clinkenbeard of Coos River, the recently appointed Co. Commissioner, has been travelling in the community this week looking into the condition of the public highways. He returned to Marshfield by way of May Thursday.

Mr. Clinkenbeard appeared well pleased with his trip and predicts a bright future for the Tenmile country. Prof. N. Galway M. A. is teaching classes the terpsichorean art at the Tenipleten Opera House, and the students are rapidly becoming proficient in waltzes, two-steps and other dances.

Best Hibbard and family have returned from California and are living with his father J. H. Hibbard.

Dave Roberts cut his foot with an axe Wednesday, thus being unable to assist Prof. Galway in the art of dancing.

Mr. O. Western and his son Tom have taken up homesteads on the hill south of Capt. Norris' place. Mr. W. is a man of means and will probably invest in farm or city property later on when better acquainted. They are late arrivals from Minnesota, where the young man was born and where they have been engaged in extensive farming until last summer, when they sold out. They have traveled over several states and particularly over Oregon and Washington, deciding finally on making their home in Coos Co.

From Sunday's Daily.

The Food Father

Of Baby I was very fond,
She'd won her father's heart.
So, when she fell into the pond,
It gave me quite a start.
Col. D. Streamer.

The Carina is due to arrive today.

Robert Rooke of Coos river was in town Saturday shopping.

Robert Kruger brought down a large raft of logs for the Simpson mill yesterday.

The Alert carried a double crew yesterday to handle the large amount of freight.

W. U. Douglas and J. W. Bennett were arrivals by the Drain stage last evening.

The Hunter came up Saturday after a large lot of freight. She returned to Empire in the afternoon.

Jesse Farrin writes to the MAIL from Astoria that he is employed in the Occident Barber shop and is doing fine; also that he wants the COAST MAIL.

Miss Carrie Rodin and Miss Logan, the North Bend School teachers have taken a vacation of two weeks on Coos river.

The Fireman's Ball last evening was a brilliant success socially. The attendance was good and a neat sum was realized for the Department's improvement fund.

The Evergreen Whist club met at the home of Mrs. W. J. Butler Saturday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Tower won first prize and Mrs. J. R. Rochon won the consolation.

F. M. Stewart of the Coos County Marble and Granite works has just returned from a trip on the Coquille. He completed some monument work for Grandma Sage.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages there should be cleanliness.
Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.
Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drugists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.
E.L.Y. BROTHERS, 56 Watron Street, New York.

Walter McFarland, representing J. A. Folger & Co. of San Francisco and Wm. Ford representing the Pacific hardware and steel company left Saturday for Gardiner on the tug Hunter, on their way to San Francisco.

The Coast Mail, Marshfield's progressive weekly got out a special illustrated edition which does credit to the publisher and to the town. It is in magazine form and contains 40 pages of well written descriptive matter and excellent illustrations.—Condon Globe.

The following order was made in the Supreme court Wednesday: W. E. Haines, applicant vs. Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern Railroad and Navigation Company, respondent; ordered that respondent have until February 10 to file brief.

Messrs Dr. Haydon, Robert Maraden Sr. Chas. George, A. D. Border and S. R. Davis were visitors to North Bend Friday. The party went down on the Dixie and were a general tour of inspection. These gentlemen report North Bend as the most promising town of its age they ever visited.

Nearly Forfeits His Life

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at the Red Cross Drug Store.

Much attention was attracted yesterday by the Robertson Kid Band which paraded the streets in the interests of the Fireman's Ball. It consisted of a score or more of small boys with tin horns, marching with a banner. They were taken to North Bend on a launch to remind the residents of our sister city to come up last night.

The Radium Continues to Shine

The second number of the Radium, a neat 8 page monthly publication, edited by R. D. Hume, at Wedderburn, has appeared. It is full of brainy articles. Mr. Hume's "Review of the Salmon Industry" is an able article and gives a large amount of valuable information and is well worth reading.

How Spuds

In an exhibit that reached the World's Fair recently from Idaho were some potatoes of unusual size. Many weighed over four pounds each and it required only from a dozen to fifteen to fill a bushel measure. These potatoes may be seen in the Idaho section in the Palace of Agriculture.

North Bend School Closed

Dr. Mings, deputy county health officer, went to North Bend Thursday and conferred with the school board with regard to the advisability of closing the school on account of measles which have broken out among the pupils.

It was decided to close the school for two weeks.

Western Timber

Four great timbers two feet square and 110 feet long which are to be used in the Washington state building at the World's Fair reached St. Louis recently. The great length of the timber caused the railroads transporting them no little trouble. It was necessary to use three cars to carry them, the weight being allowed to rest on the two end cars, the middle car being an "idler."

Davis Must Stay in Jail

A late San Francisco dispatch, referring to the case of Mrs. Ames, says: The case of Thomas Davis accused of assaulting a woman on the high seas, who was indicted yesterday by the United States grand jury, has been demitted by Judge DeHaven of the District Court to the United States Circuit Court. He was at first allowed bail, which order is now vacated, and he must remain in jail.

Pegging Some

During the past year the Dean Lumber Co. sold a larger amount of lumber to the home trade than ever in the history of that firm on Coos Bay. The home trade consumed over 3,000,000 feet in the construction of cottages and other buildings. The sales of the year were more than double those of 1902.

The above facts go to show that there has been general prosperity on Coos Bay. The local lumber trade is holding up well and 1904 bids fair to go even better than '02.

Lesson In Politeness

District Attorney Jerome, of New York, whose father, Lawrence Jerome, was a celebrated wit of his day, says that on a certain occasion, when he was a little chap, he was riding on his father's knee in a Fifth Avenue stage, every other seat being taken. At the corner a lady entered, and his father said to him in severe tones: "Why Tavers, my boy, I am ashamed of you! Why don't you get up and give this lady your seat?"

School No. Two

Principal F. A. Golden, of the Marshfield public school, has completed arrangements for the accommodation of the Negro and Chinese children, in accordance with the action of the special school meeting recently held.

School number 2 will open Monday. A room has been comfortably fitted up with a competent teacher in charge, in the front room of the Noble building on north Front.

Push Buttons in Demand

North Bend is up to date. President Dow and Secretary Farrin, of the Push Club, went down there Friday, and secured 325 members for the club, in a very short time.

Push buttons "go" in Coquille City also. Secretary Farrin sent a package over to D. D. Pierce on the 27th, and that gentleman disposed of the whole bunch and started the money back with the list of members all the same day.

Escaped an Awful Fate

Mr. H. Higgins of Melbourne, Fla. writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Druggists Price 50c & $1.00
Trial Bottles free.

Prolific Billy Goats

The ten-year old son of ex-Secretary Foster is a tremendous pro-Boer, and has written a book on the war which is delightfully funny. Among other stories he tells the following, which by the way, was told to him by Commandant Jan Krieg, who had it from an English officer: "One day the British tied ten billy goats, to try the effect of some new shells; so he fired about twenty shots at them, and then went up to see how many were left, and he found there were eleven—One had been born."
