Suffering Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than to soothe it—are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs. But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained, but weakened nerves. A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill. This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands. They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc. Pleasant to take, quick in results. I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties for they are successful.—REV. RAY WATROS, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists, at 25c. Money back if first box does not help. Never sold in bulk.

The House passed the bill regulating the disposal of public lands released and excluded from public forest reservations.

The conference report on the General Deficiency bill was accepted.

In the Senate, the Burrows Smoot resolution, that the Committee sit during recess of Congress went to committee.

The general Deficiency and Sundry Civil conference reports were agreed to.

Washington, April 26—Dalsell, Republican of Pa., and Cockrane, of New York, went at it again in the House, today, hammer and tongs.

Referring to Saturday's speech, the former said that Cockrane had made a contemptible attack on him, Dalsell, and he would be a paltrone if he did not meet it. He did not say Cockrane received money for political work, but was "so informed." He then lashed the Tammany orator in bitter language, referring to his checkered career as a tentative adventurer.

Cockran came back with a sarcastic inquiry if vituperation is to be the keynote of the Republican campaign, referring to the Pennsylvania with scorn and loathing that kept the House silent in awe.

Washington, Apr. 27—In the Smoot investigation, L. E. Abbott, a Mormon, of Farmington, Utah, was questioned as to his knowledge of Apostle J. W. Taylor. He said Taylor was reputed to have five wives, two of whom are now living at Farmington, one with six, the other with five children. Taylor also married two sisters, Rhoda and Roxie Wellington, two years ago according to public talk. Prior to that they had been living with Taylor's wife as hired girls.

J. T. Tanner, former President of the Utah Agricultural College and now con-acted with Mormon schools had plural wives, too, but witness could not tell how many.

A letter from President Smith to Senator Burrows was then put on record. In it he regrets his inability to procure the attendance of John Henry Smith, Geo. Teasdale, M. W. Taylor, and M. E. Cowley.

The committee adjourned, subject to call of the chairman.

Oakland Cal. Apr. 27—After a battle with a heavy squad of police armed with Winchesters and sawed-off shot-guns, beginning at 7:30 last night and lasting until 8:50 a.m., Joe Smith, a negro sharpshooter, former member of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, was shot to death in his home.

Not until 7 bullets had pierced his body did the desperate negro succumb, and up to the time the fatal missile struck him he kept the besieging party at bay with a perfect hail of bullets, none of which, however, found a mark.

Two officers went to Smith's home last night to arrest him for disturbing the peace. He drove the officers away with bullets and barricading his house, fled to the upper floor where he stationed himself at a window armed with two revolvers. Reinforcements were sent on a truck on which was placed a piece of sheet steel which was used as a shield. From the time of their arrival until midnight, the fight was kept up. At midnight, bells signalled for cessation of hostilities until daylight, when the battle was resumed.

Smith hesitated a moment after emptying both revolvers and one of the officers shot him in the arm. A second later another bullet struck him under the right arm pit. He was seen to reel, and fell to the floor. The officers rushed to the house and entering the room in which the negro had made his desperate stand, found him dead in a pool of blood on the floor, with scores of empty shells and both revolvers by his side.
