ONE OF DR. PIERCE'S PRESCRIPTIONS.
That Love sometimes cures disease is a fact that has recently been called to the attention of the public by a prominent physician and college professor. In some nervous diseases of women, such as hysteria, this physician gives instances where women were put in a pleasant frame of mind, were made happy by falling in love, and in consequence were cured of their nervous troubles—the weak nervous system toned and stimulated by little Dr. Pierce's—became strong and vigorous, almost without their knowledge. Many a woman is nervous and irritable, feels dragged down and worn out, for no reason that she can think of. She may be ever so much in love, but Dr. Pierce fails to cure her. In ninety-nine per cent. of these cases it is the womanly organism which requires attention; the weak back, dizzy spells and black circles about the eyes, are only symptoms. Go to the source of the trouble and correct the irregularities, the drains on the womanly system and the other symptoms disappear. So sure of it is the World's Dispensary Medical Association, proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer a $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of leucorrhoea, female weakness, proflapsus, or falling of the womb. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath, they cleanse and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels and produce permanent benefit and do not re-act on the system. One is a gentle laxative.

Albuquerque, N. M. April 27—On application of the Santa Fe. District Judge Baker has issued an injunction restraining the striking railroad shopmen from any more interference with the agents employed by the company, or the movement or operation of the company's cars and all other machinery and appliances, also enjoining them from entering the company's right of way or other grounds or property.

Washington, Apr. 29—Referring to the posted notice in the company's shops warning the men against unlawful acts, O'Connell says the company jumps at conclusions in its preparations to meet desperate methods. The officials know that we are opposed to violence. While the handbills deserve no attention it is only right to say that this is an attempt at intimidation in threatening suits. The company hopes to frighten men who own homes in the neighborhood of the shops. The warning is a big bluff. The machinists have nothing to do with the operation of trains so cannot interfere with the mails or commerce.

Washington, Apr. 29—President O'Connell, of the machinists, this morning stated that there were no prospects of avoiding a strike of the Machinists of the Santa Fe, though last overtures to the company are now being made, pending a formal strike order about May 1st. O'Connell has just returned from Denver.

Among the dead are Engineer Bailey, Fireman Grumport, Messenger Groat, Master Mechanic Taylor, mail clerk. A relief train of physicians hurried to the scene of wreck from St. Louis, 28 miles.

(From Saturday's Daily.) IMPROVING SCHOOL GROUNDS

Work Already Accomplished And Contemplated.

The work of improving the school grounds, for part of which the A. N. W. Club is bearing the expense, already begins to show results. A number of elm and maple trees have been planted along the front of the grounds and protected with boxing, the latter painted green. Rich earth has been put in and two large triangular flower beds planted, one on each side of the front steps. The flowers were contributed by the children, the boys and girls bringing the plants for their respective sides. Sweet peas and other climbing vines have been planted where they would do the most good.

The work already done makes a decided improvement in the appearance of the grounds, and other work in contemplation will result in still further beautification of the surroundings. The school board will put in new and wider walks around the school house and a new building around the foot of the bank.

The A. N. W. Club proposes to then plant the slopes with ivy, covering the unsightly yellow clay and also holding it in place.

From the utilitarian standpoint, however, the wisest proposition of all is to cover the yellow clay of the grounds with a coating of burned slack, providing a play-ground for the children, a place where they may get off the board walks, and may even run if they want to.

The toilet arrangements also require attention, which they will doubtless receive from the school board.

News of the War

Details of Capture

Vladivostok April 29—Admiral Yezzen's four cruisers, which made the dash off the Korean coast, are being cleaned today.

Details of the cruise show that the squadron met the Japanese transport Kinshiu Maru at 11 o'clock on the night of the 27th. The latter's commander mistook the Russian for a Japanese squadron and signalled that he had coal for them.

The Russian commander signalled the order to stop whereupon the Japanese discovered their mistake and began to lower boats and steam pinnaces in an effort to escape but the Russian steam cutters captured all.

Apparently none were left aboard, but examination revealed that six infantry officers were in the cabin and in another part of the ship one hundred and thirty infantry who refused to surrender. Yezzen ordered the men away and the Japanese soldiers opened fire, wounding a Russian boatwain.

After that the transport was sent to the bottom by a mechanical mine and a few sharpshooters.

The Japanese aboard did not cease firing and made no attempt to save themselves, although they had a launch left. The shots rang until the waters closed over the heads of the intrepid soldiers.

Ships off Port Arthur

St. Petersburg, Apr. 29—Alexieff reports the enemy's ships seen six miles off Port Arthur last night.

Many Prisoners Taken

St. Petersburg, Apr. 29—Further reports of the sinking of the Kinshiu Maru state that altogether two hundred and ten prisoners were taken. Of these 183 were taken from the transport, and include a colonel and a high staff officer.

The Japanese Account

Tokio, April 29—According to a Japanese account, only 73 Japanese were killed or drowned when the transport Kinshiu Maru sank. As the ship went down, several soldiers committed suicide. Two captains and three lieutenants were among those who went down. The transport became separated from her convoy.

Alexieff's Version

London, Apr. 29—The Central News correspondent at St. Petersburg states that Alexieff has issued a communication indicating that the Czar, instead of recalling the Viceroy, has commended him for his work. Alexieff says "I am happy to receive at Mukden a dispatch from the Emperor stating that his majesty is watching attentively the concentration of the troops for the far east, and notes with special pleasure the splendid success attained in this respect. The Czar concluded: 'I attribute its success only to your able direction and initiative and the work of the staff officials subordinate to you.'"

Chemulpo Survivors Arrive

St. Petersburg, Apr. 29—Six hundred survivors of the Variag and Koriatz disaster at Chemulpo arrived this morning. Their reception at Nicholas station was of a religious nature with no speech and no band.

Grand Duke Alexis was present and shook hands with the officers as they left the train. The men he greeted with: "Good day brother." Outside the station a large crowd gathered and greeted the heroes enthusiastically.

Slow Transportation

Japanese Victory Reported

Washington, April 30—The State Department officials are informed that a big battle fought on the Yalu river resulted in a Japanese victory, but decline to give the source of their information.

The State department advises are of an indefinite character and while they give a rumor of Japanese victory on the Manchuria side of the Yalu this is not confirmed. The text or source of the department dispatch is refused.

The Russian Verdict

St. Petersburg, Apr. 30—Heavy engagement on the Yalu is reported. Sixteen thousand Japanese crossed Thursday, and attacked thirty thousand strongly fortified Russians.

It is rumored that the Japanese were

Japanese sharpshooters killed many Russian officers.

Nothing Known in London

London, Apr. 30—No confirmation is obtainable of the report current this afternoon to the effect that a battle has taken place on the Yalu.

The Japanese minister has received nothing authentic. The Russian embassy states the same. The last news from the Yalu they say was contained in Kuropatkin's report to the Czar stating that all was quiet along the Yalu yesterday morning.

Marching on Wiju

St. Petersburg, April 30—An official dispatch today reports the Japanese column marching from Yomgampho toward Wiju. Small forces of Japanese have crossed the Yalu.

Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 59 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. "If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElee's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
