

Personal and Local

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The Arcata sailed from San Francisco his a. m.

Fred Avery, a stock raiser, and a pioneer of the '80s, died at Eckley Sunday, of heart failure.

Captain A. M. Simpson arrived in North Bend from San Francisco via the overland route this morning.

The schooner Mary E. Russ, laden with timber aboard, cleared for San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

The steamer Empire, which sailed for San Francisco yesterday carried a large shipment of matchwood taken aboard at Empire.

R. E. Shine of Empire, accompanied by Elijah Smith, passed through Marshfield enroute for Coquille city on a business trip this morning.

The outside mail is now arriving on time every day and the down town business men find it distributed when they come to their work each morning.

Sick headache results from a disordered stomach, and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Jno. Preuss.

L. R. Robertson, manager for the telephone company, returned yesterday from Bridge, where he has been connecting up a new farmers' line of 18 subscribers.

Mrs. Hazelstein's new building now under construction near the Arlington house on Cedar street is fast nearing completion and when ready will be occupied by Mr. Wm. Merchant.

Peter Scott Jr., arrived from Portland today by way of the Coos Bay Wagon road, and will visit his parents for a week or ten days. From his appearance, a sea-faring life agrees with him.

We are informed that Mrs. M. J. Howlett of Cedar street, who for some time has been steadily failing with old age is now very low. No one is permitted to see her and she is constantly under the watch of two nurses.

P. B. Hoyt, a barber, and Clay Gout, a liveryman of Bandon are looking into Coos Bay real estate today. They arrived in Marshfield yesterday and left for North Bend this morning.

H. J. Peabody, of Ft. Worth, Texas, arrived in Marshfield via the Overland route today. He will spend a few days on the bay, with Marshfield as his headquarters, and visit the ranching sections with the view to purchasing a location.

C. H. Hodson, who has so effectually filled the position of chamber maid in the Coos river salmon hatchery during the past season, has resigned his position and returned to his home at Roseburg. He left today, going out by way of the mail route.

Fred Schetter, who for some time has been employed as head mechanic in the railroad shops at this place has resigned his position and will leave for a visit to his old home in Mansfield Ohio, in a few days. He will go by way of St. Louis and visit the Worlds Fair on his trip.

John T. Mays, a prominent merchant of Seattle, is a business visitor in the city today. When interviewed, Mr. Mays informed the Coast Mail reporter that he was here in the interests of a coal company but was not at present in a position to give out the nature of his business. He will go to Coquille city tomorrow.

W. J. Rust, of North Bend, has accepted the management of O. L. Williams' real estate office on A street in this city. Mr. Rust who came to the bay from San Francisco last fall is well and favorably known here, and that he will establish and conduct a successful business for Mr. Williams, is a foregone conclusion.

Jack Miraden has sold to Jack Quick his interest in the Union Saloon, which has been conducted by Miraden and Quick, and the latter will hereafter conduct that well known depot of liquid refreshments on the same lines that have given it its present popularity.

E. E. Cooper, chief engineer of the railroad surveying corps is in the city today. Mr. Cooper informed the MAIL reporter that his work of surveying is progressing nicely and that the surveyors are now about 12 miles below Bandon. He will order the headquarters camp moved Thursday.

Will Issue Bonds

At the school meeting held in the North Bend school district yesterday it was unanimously voted to issue bonds to the amount of $10,000 for the purpose of building the new school house.

Alumni Business Meeting

The High School Alumni met last evening at the home of Miss Grace McCormac. Considerable business was transacted, the bills for improvements made on the school grounds being voted paid and the following officers for the ensuing year being elected: Pres., Daisy E. B. Reedy; vice Pres., Evelyn Anderson; Sec., Mamie Mahoney; Treas., Josephine Cordes. A Banquet committee was also appointed.

Birthday Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Curtis, in South Marshfield, was the scene of a merry gathering on the afternoon of April 30th, when their daughter Alice celebrated her twelfth birthday.

The spirits of the young folks were in no wise affected by the inclemency of the weather. Indoor games were played with much enjoyment and later delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, to which not only the children but the mamas present, and our dignified Postmaster himself, did ample justice.

Miss Alice's parties are always delightful affairs and this one was no exception.

Those present were Alice Curtis, Ruby Campbell, Frank Curtis, Myrtle Cowan, Pauline Sheldon, Marjory Cowan, Helen Dow, Teddy Dow, Ruth Cowan, Mary Levar, Bessie Ayres, Alice Cox Will Curtis, Hannah Sandquist, Janet Escott, Mable Lang, Ray Campbell, Cornelia Robertson, and Mesdames Cowan, Curtis, Sheldon, Levar, Dow and Miss Murphy.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mrs. C. H. Dungan has gone to her ranch for a few days.

S. R. Crawford, of Sumner, was a Marshfield visitor yesterday.

John Parker, of Ash Valley, eldest son of C. L. Parker, of North Bend, arrived on the bay yesterday.

The L. A. Club which was to meet at Mrs. Savage's on May 6th has been postponed until May 13.

Geo. Keating, employed in the Gardner mills, is visiting his brother, Dan Keating, of this city at present.

The steamer Alliance is advertised to leave San Francisco this afternoon. She will be due here Saturday.

J. D. Stewart and son, of Bandon, were visiting North Bend and Marshfield yesterday. They returned home today.

J. B. Balwin, traveling salesman for Blumber & Hoeb, of Portland, is looking after business for his house in Marshfield today.

Capt. T. W. Ahmann leaves on the next trip of the Arcata for San Francisco, to accept a position as purser on the new steamer Breakwater.

R. A. Church was in town yesterday, badly crippled with a carbuncle on his knee, which has laid him up for a week or so.

E. M. Furman, the piano dealer, returned yesterday from the Umpqua, where he has spent a few days in the interest of his growing business.

Judge Hamilton is in town, renewing old acquaintances and helping revive the Democratic spirits. He will return to Roseburg by way of Drain.

Langhin McDonald, who has been employed with Holland Bros. for several months, will visit at Templeton, his old home for a few days.

W. W. Gage is in town, bringing a blooded Durham calf which he purchased from Davenport, above Myrtle Point, which he will use to improve his herd.

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by John Preuss.

Dr. D. A. Curry made a professional visit up Coos River, performed a successful surgical operation, caught twenty of the speckled beauties and returned, all before dinner yesterday.

Capt. C. E. Edwards is in receipt of a letter from S. P. Pierce, of Curry county, Republican nominee for joint representative, saying that he expects to visit the Bay shortly.

C. C. Burnell, of Coquille, has accepted a position with W. P. Murphy. Mr. Burnell is well acquainted on the bay. He was formerly a member of the Margarita Fisher Company.

News has reached here of the death, at Dayton, Oregon, of G. W. Perkins, who was formerly in the grocery business here, where he has many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

Preparations are being made to fit up the warehouse back of Lockhart's store for the use of the Czarina and the Breakwater, and it is understood that the former will land there on her arrival this trip.

Thos. Larkin, of Beaver Hill, who has been employed at the mines for the past three years will take a trip East, leaving on the next Arcata and going via San Francisco. He will visit the St. Louis Exposition and from there he goes to Washington D. C. where he will visit his sisters, whom he has not seen for 28 years.

The Reverend Chas. T. McPherson, of the M. E. Church announces the regular services on the coming Sunday. The subject for the Mondays discourse will be "The Hopelessness of Flight." In the evening his subject will be "My Heart is Fixed." Special song service all are invited.

F. S. Dow, of Marshfield, agent for the Arcata, informed a reporter for the MAIL, that there is no foundation for the report recently circulated to the effect that the steamer Arcata has been condemned as a passenger boat. She left San Francisco yesterday morning, having a good passenger list and will be due to arrive at this port tomorrow.

Progress Club Meets

The Progress Club met at Mrs. P. C. Levar's residence Tuesday afternoon. An interesting paper on Sacajawea was read by Mrs. Sengstacken. Mrs. E. G. Flanagan also read several articles on current events, after which followed a discussion of the subjects presented. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Mings, Tuesday next.

Fulton Off at Last

L. W. Shaw informs the MAIL that the Fulton was pulled off the beach, rather unexpectedly, last Friday, and is probably in San Francisco by this time. The deck had been removed from the stranded boat. Part of the cargo in the hold had also been taken out and empty barrels placed therein, to help float her. On Friday morning it was found that the steamer was practically afloat. The Dispatch, which was lying off, was signaled and came in. Getting lines to the Fulton she pulled her off with very little difficulty, and at once put to sea with her, in tow for San Francisco. A tug was also sent out from the city to meet them and there is little doubt but they have safely reached their destination.

Elijah Smith Wants Railroad

In conversation during his stay in Marshfield yesterday, Elijah Smith talked quite freely, and it would not appear that the Southern Oregon Company is likely to sell its holdings here.

Among other things, Mr. Smith expressed himself as anxious to see rail communication with the interior established, and he announced his intention of looking into the matter of the pass through the mountains which is reported to exist at the head of the East fork of the Coquille.

Mr. Smith said that this matter of a railroad was the uppermost of the things he had in mind for this summer, and it is to be hoped that he will devote his energies and influence to help along Coos Bay's prospects for a road.

From Coquille Herald

Road Supervisor Burns is doing good and substantial work on the approach to our city wharf, which has been very much needed for some time.

The citizens, primary held last Thursday evening for the purpose of making some nominations for the coming city election resulted in naming N. Lorenz, L. H. Hazard and J. A. Davenport for councilmen, J. J. Stanley for mayor and E. G. P. Holden for recorder.

Through a misunderstanding, or rather no understanding, it seems that Coquille was about to have two steam laundries, but terms have been reached by which only one will be pushed to a finish, and that will be conducted by Nosler & Lyons, of the Coquille City Creamery, Olive Wilson having decided to leave the field to them. Both had taken steps in ordering machinery, but as a matter of course, it would not be wise to establish two at present.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

A Harmony Speech

He wanted harmony, he said
But ere his speech was done
He had a cut across his head
And many a man whose nose was red
Was leaving on the run.
—Chicago Record-Herald.

Attorney J. S. Coke is confined to his home with Lagrippe.

Dr. A. B. Prentiss started this morning on a trip down the coast.

We are informed that the Simpson piledriver closed down today.

T. H. Barrie, the Empire City crab man, was seen on our streets yesterday.

C. A. Johnson is putting up a new awning in front of his furniture store today.

The Ladies' Art Club will hold its meeting on May 6th at the home of Mrs. Prentiss.

Mrs. David Holden and daughter, of Jarvis Landing, were shopping in the city yesterday afternoon.

W. C. Rose, Pacific states telephone agent, at Coquille city, is a business visitor in the city today.

The steamer Alert has arranged to dock at the Odd Fellows' wharf after the big ocean steamers take possession of the A. Street dock.

Through invitation, the entire cabinet of the Epworth League, were entertained at dinner by the Rev. Chas. T. McPherson last evening.

E. J. Hanson is moving his fruit-store onto the vacant lot between the new bakery and the Noble Bros. Meat Market near the corner of C and Front streets.

W. A. Gilmore has sold his ranch on Willanch slough, to C. C. Johnson, his adjoining neighbor. The transfer was made yesterday, the consideration being $2750.

The steamers Flyer and Cruiser are to land at the Dean & Co. wharf after the arrival of the Breakwater, which, with the Czarina, will now dock at the foot of A. street.

Sherman Short has resigned his position in the Union saloon in this city to take charge of the Union saloon at North Bend. He will be on duty at his new post next Monday morning.

S. C. Brown is re-papering and otherwise renovating the Ed Dean residence on A. street, which when finished will be occupied by Mr. Squires, the book-keeper for Dean & Co.;

The schooner Encore, Captain Baumgren, now taking lumber at the Porter wharf, began taking her deck load this morning. She will soon be ready for the long voyage to Sidney, Australia.

Whooping Cough

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by John Preuss.

Messrs. Erickson, Oleson and Telferson are clearing away the ruins of their building where the fire occurred last January, and will remodel and rebuild 60 feet of it on the Front street side. They expect to have it ready for occupancy by July 4th.

The Pioneer Grocery company are moving the old warehouse from the rear of their store down the water front to the rear of the Y. M. C. A. building. They are to have the same amount of warehouse in the new warehouse soon to be constructed for the steamers Breakwater and Czarina, at that place.

Allegany Items

Alfred Rodine is among the sick.

Mrs. Albert Stearnsman is very sick.

H. Blake has purchased a fine six octave organ.

Most of the camps on the river have closed down.

Mrs. Gould will spend a few weeks at Elk Horn ranch.

Newell Price is in Allegany, after several days on his ranch.

Carrie Rodine came home Saturday from North Bend where she has been teaching the past winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill returned home Saturday, after a two weeks visit to Mrs. Hill's parents.

Elec Easstrom packed fresh butter from Loon Lake Saturday destined for the Coos Bay Creamery.

Frank Vincamp, moved to North Bend Saturday to take charge of the boarding house formerly run by Mr. Wyatt.

Midget.

South Coos River Items

A fine day today.

Floyd Coffelt comes to see us now.

Miss Eva Wilson is visiting friends on Coos river.

Anson Rogers went to town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Billie Anderson is visiting friends at the forks.

Ira Tucker went to Marshfield one day last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Haydon is visiting friends on Coos river.

Mrs. M. R. Cutlip has returned from a visit to Myrtle Point.

It is reported that Sherman Cutlip's little girl is improving.

The surprise party was greatly enjoyed by those who went.

Walter Capus went to Marshfield Saturday. Walter was sick.

Mrs. May Perkins was a passenger on the Coos river last Saturday.

Hillis Short who has been on Coos river for a vacation returned to Marshfield Saturday.

Frankie Dillon left Coos river Saturday for Sumner, where he will teach in the Frank Black district.

Sumner Items

Mayday, sunshine and flowers galore.

T. N. Boone has his house moved and is planting garden.

Ayer's

Your doctor will tell you that thin, pale, weak, nervous children become strong and well by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Small doses, for a few days.

Sarsaparilla

The change is very prompt and very marked. Ask your doctor why it is. He has our formula and will explain.

"When 13 years old, for many months no one thought I could live because of this blood. But in a few weeks, Ayer's Sarsaparilla completely restored me to health."
—Mrs. E. HUGHENSTAR, Vineland, N. J.

25¢ a bottle. All druggists. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

The Children

Billiousness, constipation prevent recovery. Cure these with Ayer's Pills.

Our Sunday school and church had a good attendance.

There is a move on foot to put in a modern water works in Sumner.

A. D. Wright, the veteran gardener will raise and renovate his residence in June.

Jim Boon, who has been on the Coquille for several days, returned today via Fairview.

Archie Boone and George Catching are down with measles. It is reported that Archie is quite sick.

S. B. Sherwood has built a new wire fence around the postal corner, papered the house and will re-shingle and paint the building.

I am pleased to state that Miss Gamble is teaching one of the most orderly schools in the county and the verdict of praise comes from every tongue.

Matt Matson was in town today and wants a sheep-shearer. Ed Stock has retired from the shears and leaves the ranch in the lurch and the sheep in the wool.

Jas. Stock, the poultry man was in town today and says his wife has been quite ill for two weeks past and that she is improving, and getting along nicely at present.

As this is a leap year, it is quite likely that there will be some trusts incorporated, regardless of the political issue of the national campaign. No wonder they stepped of the wharf.

If you have that tired, don't-care-to-eat feeling, tickle your stomach and create your ribs with Sumner cheese, then compare us to Captain Harris. When you squeeze, think of DeFreese.

Frank Black has opened up a small canal through his tussock meadow to the end of Pollywog avenue, from where it is extended up Garbage street to Coos river street, giving that portion of the city excellent drainage.

There should be a school meeting called and some means provided by which we could build a new school house with some modern conveniences. The old one now in use is a disgrace to any prosperous community.

Harris and DeFreese are installing a new boiler and engine in their summer cheese factory and putting in their spring crop, and are making more and better cheese than they have ever made at this time of the year before.

The Cottage Hotel is open to the public and it goes without saying that in the Cottage dining rooms the best meals in the county are served. The house is conveniently arranged, large sunny rooms and good beds. There is no pains spared to make this one of the most ideal resorts of the county.

W. C. M.

W. C. Chase, of Coquille City, chairman of the Republican county committee, is in town on a brief visit. He says that the Republicans of the county are getting in line to roll up a big majority for every candidate on the ticket, and that there is no question about their success. In this year of national politics, everyone is looking to Oregon, and Coos county will do her part in making the right kind of a showing.

Married

BONBRAKE—HARRISON—At the home of J. W. Bonebrake, Marshfield, Or., April 30th, 1904, Willie B. Bonebrake and Mary E. Harrison, Rev. B. F. Bengtson officiating. Only a few intimate friends were present.