A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. V., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried every thing I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by Jno. Preuss, druggist. Trial bottle free, Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

WALTER LAIRD.

A Markievitch Improving

Mrs. A. Markievitch is in receipt of the following letter from the third assistant physician at the state insane Asylum indicating some improvement in Mr. Markievitch's condition: May 12 1904.

Salem, Ore. Marshfield, Oregon.

Dear Madam: In reply to your letter I am pleased to inform you that your husband is getting along quite well. He seems to have improved to quite an extent since we last wrote you and is inclined to be very much more happy than he was a month ago. We have arranged that he should be able to perform some work in the tailor shop, which he does very intelligently and is very much pleased to be given this much liberty to keep himself occupied with work which he seems to enjoy.

We believe that a visit from you, at such a time as you may see fit, will not be of any disturbance to him. In fact, I think he will enjoy a visit from you and I think you would be much pleased to see his improved state of mind. I am,

Yours very truly,
A. E. Tamesle,
Srd. Asst. Phys.

Republican's Notice

A Republican mass-meeting has been called to convene at the rooms of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening, May 20th at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of organizing a Republican club in this city. Every Republican of this precinct who is interested in the welfare and promotion of the party and its ticket is earnestly requested to be present. An organization of the Republican forces will be effected, some very interesting speeches on the leading issues and the political outlook will be delivered, and you will go feeling the better by your visit.

Local Option Meeting

A good audience including a large proportion of voters assembled in the I. O. O. F. Hall last night to hear Capt. L. D. Mahone present arguments for the new local option law, that is to be voted on in June. Mr. Mahone made a strong plea for the proposed law stating that it was intended to establish the right of the majority to decide the question of licenses, and gave facts and comparisons to show that the presence of saloons in a community undermines the prosperity of other lines of business.

Rev. H. T. Murray briefly told of the success of local option in Pasadena, Riverside, and other southern cities. Capt. Mahone left today for Coquille and will return to Marshfield on Monday.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT

Man's Head Crushed by a Falling Tree

A man named Wedekemper was seriously and probably fatally injured this afternoon, while engaged in cutting wood on H. Sengstacken's land near town, in company with J. W. Davis.

The wind blew down a tree which fell toward them. Wedekemper took refuge under an old snag, which was struck by the falling tree and caught the unfortunate man's head, fracturing the skull and otherwise badly injuring his head. Dr. McCormac was called, and the man was brought to town, where he lies in a precarious condition.

BORN

SACCHI—At Marshfield, May 17 1904, to the wife of F. A. Sacchi, a son.

REICHERT—At Porter, May 17, 1904, to the wife of Wm. Reichert twins, both daughters.

NORDSTROM—In Marshfield, Or., May 13, 1904, to the wife of Chas Nordstrom, a son.

Flanagan—Marshfield, May 19, 1904 to the wife of J. W. Flanagan, a daughter.

Died

SHORT—In Marshfield, Or., Mar. 17, 1904, Miss Birdie Short.

The death of Miss Short marks the end of a long struggle against the inevitable, during which the unfortunate young lady has had the sympathy of a host of friends, as she had lived nearly all her life on the bay and was popular in social circles until ill-health forced her retirement.

The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. tomorrow from the residence of E. G. Flanagan, Rev. Wm. Horsfall, officiating.
