(From Thursday's Daily.)

The Marshfield High School closes today.

The Arcata sailed from San Francisco at noon yesterday.

E. B. Seabrook is in Coquille City on business today.

Let's get ready to give the Breakwater a fitting reception.

A. R. Butler is a Portland man whose name appears on the Blanco register today.

The Casarina sails from San Francisco tomorrow and the Breakwater is scheduled to sail June 8th.

Holt Bonebrake, who was lately operated on for appendicitis is reported to be very low today.

J. I. Little and wife drove over from Coquille city yesterday and are guests at the Central here today.

For sick headache take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets; and a quick cure is certain. For sale by John Preuss.

J. J. Curran, the Coquille city hotel man is a business visitor in Marshfield today and is a guest at the Central.

Members of the COAST MAIL force are now eking out an existence by bringing fresh vegetables to market, "and the like of that."

A. E. Sherman and J. W. Newton of Myrtle creek arrived in this city via the Roseburg stage route this morning and may be found at the Hotel Central for the next few days.

Judging from recent developments, no one newspaper man will hereafter have a monopoly in the matter of swearing in a nice fat circulation, at the county court this Fall.

J. Q. Williams, traveling salesman for Leege & Haskins of San Francisco arrived in the city yesterday and is making the Hotel Central his headquarters.

Remember if you are a prohibitionist to vote for the local option law; if you are not a prohibitionist, then don't forget to vote against it.

Mrs. J. D. Tresham, formerly Miss Warnick and at one time a teacher in the 3rd grade of the Marshfield high school, is expected to arrive in Marshfield today, where she will visit at the home of Mrs. P. M. Wilbur.

Albert Campbell, local lineman for the telephone Co. at this place returned yesterday from a trip to the lower Rogue river where he has been for some time building new lines for the company.

Schiller B. Hermann, the popular Republican candidate for representative from Coos county, arrived in the Coos Bay metropolis yesterday afternoon. His headquarters in this city are at the Central.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church in this city are advertising a grand excursion and picnic to come off at the Ensign grove on South Coos river, next Thursday June 9th. Tickets are now on sale at Lockhart's.

The Woodmen of the World have secured the Empire Stock Company to produce Faust or Why Women Sin in benefit to the Marshfield Lodge, Saturday June 18. Seats now on sale by the committee.

F. W. Wegner, formerly in the real estate business here, arrived from Spokane over the Drain route today. He is accompanied by Thos. Vigars, also of Spokane, and they will stay some weeks on the bay.

Allen R. Joy, of Portland arrived in Marshfield on today's train from Coquille City and is registered at the Blanco. Mr. Joy will deliver an address at the Republican rally this evening in the place of Frank Davey, who is advertised to speak on this occasion but will be unable to reach here.

Mr. H. I. Palmer, business manager for the Empire Stock Co., of New York, is in our city announcing the coming to the opera house of this company of fourteen well known artists—headed by Miss Corinne Snell, who is favorably known to the Marshfield theatre goes as the leading lady for the James Keane Co. during their last visit to Marshfield. Their repertoire will consist of the following well known eastern plays: Resurrection, Sapho, Married by Mistake, Faust or Why Women Sin, and the sensational political play, Capital vs Labor.

Will Hold Grand Rally

Under the auspices of the Roosevelt Republican club a grand Republican rally will be held at the Odd Fellows hall in this city tonight. A long program of political speaking and band music has been arranged. Allen R. Joy, John S. Coke, Schiller B. Herman, L. J. Simpson and J. W. Bennett are prominent speakers of the party who will address the people on the leading political issues of the day.

Funeral Services

The funeral services of Mrs. R. C. Lee, who died at her home in this city last Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, were held at the M. E. church here this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The church was richly decorated with beautiful flowers and was crowded to its fullest seating capacity with deeply sorrowing friends and acquaintances.

The fraternal orders in attendance were the Degree of Honor, the Eastern Star and the Eagles. The very impressive ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. Chas. T. McPherson.

After the funeral, a large procession followed the remains to the Odd Fellows cemetery, where the burial took place shortly after 3 o'clock.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Trubart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach trouble, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this medicine. For sale by John Preuss.

Improvements Ordered

At the meeting of the Marshfield City board last night, grades were ordered for the sidewalks on Chester street between 1st and 2nd streets, also the grade for a sewer on 4th street in North Marshfield.

The question of purchasing a street sprinkler was discussed and it was decided to furnish one, provided the business men of the city would defray the expenses of operating it.

The Social Whirl

The members of the Progress Club and their husbands were the guests at a delightful musicale given by Mrs. C. W. Tower at her home Tuesday evening.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with potted plants and rhododendrons, the club flower.

After some good stories and small talk which put every one at ease, Mrs. Tower read a paper on "Music" which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, being as it was, a concise history of music and the great musicians, gracefully written and perfectly read.

After discussion of the subject, quotations were given, the gentlemen responding promptly to their names.

An adjournment was then made to the music room where a delightful musical program was carried out.

In a program of such uniform excellence, where, as a guest remarked, the last piece was always the best, it is hard to decide which numbers should have special mention. But it was the verdict of those present that Mrs. Tower and Miss Eickworth had never sung so sweetly before. Miss Eickworth's piano solo was superb, as was her playing throughout the evening. Mrs. Mings sang two solos which made one wish she could be heard oftener. A lullaby song being especially beautiful. Miss Nellie Tower sang two solos in a voice which left no doubt that she has inherited her mother's beautiful gift.

The guessing contest which varied the evening's entertainment, proved that Mrs. Upton and Mr. Sealrook could see more in a penny, and Mrs. Mings and Mr. Sengstacken less, than any one else present, and they were rewarded accordingly. Dainty refreshments were then served followed by more music, Mr. Sealrook surpassing himself in two solos, and Mrs. Tower and Miss Eickworth completing the subjugation of the entire audience.

This the first and only social evening of the club this season, will be a forerunner of many enjoyable evenings in succeeding seasons.

(From Friday's Daily.)

J. S. Lawrence, Democratic candidate of county clerk, is a visitor in our city today.

Andrew Jackson Sherwood is one of the candidates who are treating the thirsty voters in Marshfield today.

E. B. Seabrook, who has been rounding up the Coquille Democrats the past few days, returned to this city on today's train.

Steve Gallier, present incumbent, and Republican nominee for reelection to the office of sheriff in this county is a visitor in our city today.

Robt. Burns, Democratic nominee for joint representative from this and Curry counties is looking for Democratic voters in Marshfield today.

Edward R. Jacobson and Theo E. Peiser, photographers, of Portland, arrived today overland and are staying at the Arlington.

Messrs McVeigh and Hart, evangelist and singer, are expected here today, to begin a series of revival meetings Sunday morning in the Baptist church.

A. S. Dibble has received a wheeled chair, capable of being propelled by hands or feet, which enables him to make his way about the streets in comfort, in spite of being badly crippled with rheumatism.

We will inform our Post critic that the ungrammatical "Was" to which he calls attention is a left-over. The air of the office was at one time so thoroughly impregnated with that sort of thing that it has been impossible to clear it, all at once.

Allen R. Joy, the leading speaker at the Republican rally here last night, was a passenger on this morning's train for the county seat where he goes to continue his work in the interest of the Republican campaign.

Let's We Forget

Don't forget that the Republicans of North Bend are to hold another grand rally under the auspices of the Mitchell Club in the old town pavilion there tomorrow evening. Political speaking good band music and a big free dance are features of the promised program.

Albert Campbell was treated to a very pleasant little surprise party by a number of his young friends his home in South Marshfield last evening. The affair was in honor of himself, Wm Burnett and Ray Tibbets, who are soon to leave this city for a bicycle trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis. The young surprisers assembled at the Eickworth home from which place they proceeded to the Campbell residence and dropped in upon the unsuspecting young man without the slightest warning. Albert was equal to the occasion however, and proceeded at once to make things pleasant for his friends by introducing various games and amusements. At midnight dainty refreshments were served after which the merry crowd dispersed.

PROSPECTS FOR BAR DREDGER

The following correspondence, having reference to the matter of a bar dredger, shows that Congressman Hermann has had our needs in mind.

Roseburg, Or. May 30, 1904.

Dear Mr. Sengstacken:— Enclosed find some official correspondence of great value to Coos Bay. It is in reply to my efforts for Coos and other ports in Oregon.

I am working for a bar dredger to help the smaller entrances. We will see that now we shall get the money we need for that shoal on Pony slough.

Yours truly,
Binger Hermann.

Hon. Binger Hermann, M. C.,
Washington, D. C.

Sir: Your letter of May 6th, 1904, regarding the advisability of constructing a dredge for use on the Pacific coast similar to those used on the Atlantic coast, is received.

In reply I would say that the question of dredging the harbors on the Oregon coast has been under consideration, and it is thought that the result obtained by the "Chinook" on the Columbia River Bar will afford valuable data as to whether such operations would be sufficiently successful as to render their undertaking profitable. The weather conditions that exist on this coast are so different from those existing on the South Atlantic coast that equally successful results can not be predicted. As the question is still experiment, it is not thought that an allotment will be made for further experiments from the Emergency bill in view of the fact that the Chinook is now operating on the Columbia River bar and it can probably be determined as to the probable success on the harbors on this coast.

Regarding the shoal in Coos Bay, I have asked for an additional allotment sufficient, it is hoped, to make a decided improvement in that locality.

Very respectfully,
W. C. Langitt
Major, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

CHAMBERLAIN CLUB SAYS A FEW WORDS TO KIRK THE COMEDIAN

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Mr. Loofbourrow, the genial dispenser of hot air for the "Hume Post", blew a ten foot volume of the same at four members of the Chamberlain Democratic club in today's issue, and then jumped all over them and proceeded to kick them to pieces.

As the Chamberlain Democratic club is minus a daily paper with which to paint the grass green, they take this occasion, through the courtesy of the Daily Coast Mail, to answer "Kirk, the traveling comedian".

In the first place the above club has not and will not throw slurs at John Coke, who is a citizen of our little burg. Everything we have said about, him has been open and above board as Mr Coke will vouch for himself.

Secondly, it is a well known fact that E. D. Hume is the chief owner of the "Hume Post" and that his sole ambition is to beat out Jim Hamilton. Thirdly, the "bum Republica Booses" referred to are not editors or as far as we know, do they have any connection with the "Hume Post."

So "Kirk" roll another pill.
