

Late General News

San Francisco, June 10—With the opening of the sale of seats, for the Jeffries-Monroe fight this morning, the betting began in earnest. The first betting was ten to three, but quickly snapped up all money in sight at that price, and sent the odds up to 100 to 35 which 'tis believed will be the ringside figure. The sale opened slow, speculators were not in evidence.

San Francisco, June 10—There is considerable betting on the length of the fight. Many wagers of ten to six that Monroe won't last ten rounds, are made.

Harbin Springs, June 10—Jeffries remained in bed this morning with a swollen left knee. No one knew whether or not the injury was serious.

His camp mates express the opinion that he will be able to resume work tomorrow but all are anxious over his condition as a postponement of the fight is among the possibilities. It is suggested that Jeffries may have hurt his knee while kneeling down to drink from a creek.

San Francisco, June 11—Reports received by the management of the Yosemite club this morning indicate that there will be no necessity of postponing the Jeffries-Monroe fight.

The greatest difficulty now confronting the club is the selection of a referee. While no serious hit is anticipated, the refusal of Monroe's managers to accept Groney is causing much worry. Manager Pollock reiterates today that he would not accept Groney under any circumstances. Harry Corbett and Eddie Smith are suggested by outsiders, but not considered by the club or the fighters' managers. Betting today is now 100 to 10, with few wagers. The sale of seats is slow.

New York, June 11—Passengers on the Cunarder, arriving this morning, were enabled to read news bulletins of the world's events each day at breakfast on the voyage, through the agency of the Marconi wireless. Marconi was a passenger and directed operations. Communication with Podihu, Cornwall, was maintained for 23 miles, when Cape Breton was picked up.

LOVE DIES.

Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox says there comes a time in the course of married life when "the thrill goes out of the hand-clasp and the kiss at times, and it is then that husband and wife may be susceptible to other magnetic personalities." The reason for this condition of affairs is often the fault of the husband, but how often is it not due to the wife's nervousness and irritability due to some trouble with the organs peculiarly feminine—the wife under such circumstances feels languid and spiritless—she suffers perhaps from headache and sleeplessness.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Dysmenorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapse, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. A great deal of sickness may be saved by keeping on hand a copy of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." Sent free, paper-bound, for twenty-one one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only; or cloth-bound for thirty-one stamps. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Philadelphia, June 10—Governor Pennypacker today appointed Attorney General Knox to succeed Quay as senator.

Washington, June 10—The prospective retirement of Atty. Gen. Knox started the cabinet makers to work. The names heard in connection with the revised cabinet are Spooner, of Wis.; Warren, of Wyo.; George A. Knight, of Calif., who will make the seconding speech in the Republican national convention; Henry C. Evans, of Tenn., former pension commissioner; Henry Cabot Lodge, of Mass., who, however, it is likely, would consider nothing except the state portfolio. Wm. Day, present asst. attorney general, may be given the position temporarily.

Paris, June 10—A rebellion has broken out in Siam, and several officials have been murdered. Fierce conflicts have occurred between the rebels and Siamese troops with heavy casualties on both sides. A general uprising is feared.

Cripple Creek, June 11—Wholesale deportations of strikers continue. Today about two hundred men were sent out of this place and adjacent camps. The troops and Citizens' Alliance continue their raids and new prisoners are brought in as fast as the others are deported. General Bell doubled precautions last night because of the bitter feeling aroused by the coroner's verdict in the dynamite case. Bell says about four thousand men will be deported before the martial law closes. The coroner's jury is continuing the inquest behind closed doors.

Cripple Creek, June 10—At noon one hundred and seventy-five union miners were loaded into four coaches and sent to Colorado Springs. The men were escorted to the cars by soldiers and members of the Citizens' Alliance, and sentries were placed at the car doors. A pilot engine was sent on half a mile ahead, with the soldiers in the cab. Another batch will be deported tonight, and it is said that several lawyers and district judges will be included. Troops and armed citizens are rounding up all unionists and skirmishes in the mountains are frequent but no casualties are reported.

Coolidge, Kan. June 11—Three of the Colorado union exiles arrived here today. Ninety-one were unloaded at the state line three miles west of here last night, and all except the three mentioned have gone west into Colorado. Mayor Standish has made no arrangements to care for the men here, and there are no unions to attend to their wants. After unloading the exiles, the Colorado troops fired a volley and yelled to their victims to hike, as their train pulled back to La Junta. Ninety-one men struck for Holy, inside the Colorado line, where they obtained food. The next town of importance is Lamar, 26 miles away and fifty miles from La Junta.

New York, June 13—The grand jury this morning found an indictment for murder in the first degree against Nan Patterson, who was present at the time of the shooting of Bookmaker Caesar Young, in a honson a week ago Saturday.

Washington, June 13—Chadwick cables that a mission to Raisuli left Sunday with the Sultan's answer to his demands.

Paris, June 13—The Temps' Tanguier correspondent states that the Sultan has granted all Raisuli's demands.

Washington, June 13—The strike of Santa Fe machinists will, it is said, be materially aided calling out of the boilermakers and blacksmiths.

Rome, June 13—The Vatican is informed that a number of Catholic missionaries in Korea and southern Manchuria, to escape persecution, have taken refuge aboard French, German and Italian warships. They intend to claim indemnity.

Constantinople, June 13—Armenian patriarchy has received information that an irade issued by the Sultan resulted in the wholesale massacre and destruction of Armenian property. The irade prohibits the settlement of Armenians in the villages destroyed.

May 15th and June 3rd fifteen villages were destroyed in the district of Chetass and 22 in the district of Hian. Of a population aggregating five thousand, two thousand are killed.

Massacres are feared in many other places and the shops have been closed for three days past at Bitlis, while at Diarbekir and Sassoun reserves have been sent for by the authorities to suppress disorder.

McKeesport, June 11—Abner McKinley, elder brother of the late president, died this morning at his home in Somerset, after a long illness, of Bright's disease. He was found dead by his wife this morning.

Sing Sing, June 13—Albert Kooping and Oscar Bergstrom were successfully electrocuted here this morning, the former at 5:55, the latter at 6:07.

The number thirteen figured largely in this case. The thirteenth month after their crimes were committed, and on the thirteenth day the condemned men were placed in the death house at the same time. Bergstrom murdered his wife in the thirteenth month after their marriage, and thirteen minutes after the first shock was given Kooping, the current was turned into Bergstrom's body.

Emily Bergstrom was killed at Mount Kisco, on Easter Monday of last year because she threatened to have her husband arrested to prevent him carrying out his murderous intentions, already expressed.

Kooping killed John G. Marlin, at the latter's home in Port Jarvis, February 19th, the result of a long standing quarrel.

Cripple Creek, June 13—The situation in this district this morning is practically normal. The authorities both civil and military expect no further trouble. Another batch of unionists will be deported tomorrow and this will wind up the military's campaign of driving men from the district. Tomorrow the mine owners will issue a statement outlining their position regarding the unionists in this district. It is expected that a ban will be placed only on the Western Federation of Miners and any other organization to which the metaliferous miners may belong. Troops will probably be withdrawn from the district this week. Nearly all the mines which closed Monday last, after the Independence explosion, resumed operations this morning. Portland, Pride, Cripple Creek and numerous leases which were manned by union men will not be allowed to resume work as long as the soldiers are here.

When the Portland resumes it will be found that all union miners have been forced to leave the camp, thus forcing the Co. to employ non union help or remain closed indefinitely. General Bell in a statement on his action in deporting miners, attributes the recent troubles to socialists in the Western Federation, who captured the organization two years ago. Socialism now is its fetish, Bell says.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid irritating inhalants, fumes, smokes and muffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 53 Warren St., N. Y.

Often a married man writes out a declaration of independence, but never musters up courage to read it to his wife. No matter how scarce it may be, quinine is always a drug on the market.

It is all right to talk about telling your troubles to a policeman, but just try it once, if you have not a political pull, and see how long he will stand for it. The man who can make a mountain out of a molehill is not necessarily a miracle worker.

It is quite a safe bet that a politician does not offer you a cigar unless he has some object in view. Fourth of July firecrackers are beginning to look around for thumbs to trim.
