

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for coryza, rhinitis, sinusitis, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

The Greed of Great Britain
By ANDREW CARNEGIE

MY aim is to show Englishmen how absurdly grasping they are—how unreasonable. Never has the world seen such a nation and there is much excuse for the feeling that Britain is entitled to continue to inherit the earth. She still wants more when what surprises every one conversant with her position is HOW SHE EVER SUCCEEDED IN GETTING AND DOING SO MUCH. I am impressed every time I look into the figures.

Mark ye, our foreign commerce is ONLY £903,363,000 per year. Ungrateful favorite of the gods! It never was so great either in imports or exports. No nation ever approached it in amount. Per capita it is £21 10s. France has only £8 11s. 9d.; Germany, £5 6s. 3d.; United States, £6 3s.

Insatiate greed! It never was so great and is constantly increasing. ALL THE OTHER NATIONS COMBINED HAVE NOT AS MUCH. Beware lest thine ingratitude offend the gods. Think not that one nation can long continue to possess more than all others. Thy fleets shall increase, though thy world's share may fall as new nations grow. Thou wert first; now others build ships and must share with thee.

Our national wealth is ONLY £11,806,000,000. To none of thy sister nations has so much been given per capita, and to none, even to the largest, such sum in the aggregate. Only the American Union, forty-five nations combined, exceeds thy hoard, but even it—thy child beloved of the gods—HAS MUCH LESS PER CAPITA.

ONLY 9,000,000 tons of iron and ONLY 5,000,000 tons of steel do we now produce per year. Even our product of coal (230,000,000 tons) is no longer greatest of all.

This is the highest product of iron and steel thou hast ever reached, greater per capita than Germany both of iron and steel. Not even the giant United States equals thy iron product per capita. Hear thou the counsel of the friendly gods. Until a new supply of iron ore be discovered, draw not upon thy present store one ton more per year. Thy consumption per man is greatest of all.

Our people number only 42,000,000 and increase slowly. Russia has 120,000,000 and increases apace. Germany has increased until she has one-third more than we, and her yearly rate of increase is nearly double. America has double our number and has increased in the last three years more than 2,000,000 yearly. Our increase is not 400,000. We dwindle in comparison. Consider the lessening stamina of thy sons, the numbers rejected as unfit for military service, the millions upon the brink of starvation. The gods in their mercy deny thy prayer for much denser population. This must not be. MUCH INCREASE OF POPULATION WOULD DRAG THE STANDARD STILL FURTHER DOWN.

NOT TO ALL THE LEADING COUNTRIES COMBINED HAVE SO MANY BEEN GIVEN. WHAT WILL SATISFY THEE, SPOILED DARING OF THE GODS? BEWARE THOU TEMPTTEST THEM NOT TO WITHDRAW THEIR FAVOR. NOT EVEN THE AMERICAN UNION HAS HALF AS MANY SPINDLES, THOUGH DOUBLE IN POPULATION. HEAR THIS AND PAUSE.

In recent years what thy brimming cups could not hold has necessarily been bestowed upon other lands. What they get lessens not thy store; far otherwise—THOU SHAREST THEIR PROSPERITY. To thee the gods have placed under tribute the nations of the earth; none escapes. Rejoice, therefore, in the rapid advancement of the world, for upon this three own undiminished prosperity depends. Thou must decline if the world prospers not. CEASE TO BE AS CHILDREN CRYING FOR THE MOON.

Thinkest thou the friendly gods have not foreseen this and ordered all for Britain's safety? Consider war, with the combination of powers which drove Japan from her spoil—France, Germany and Russia. Where, then, would be thy food supply if dependent upon thy own empire, every ton of it subject to capture upon the seas? How different thy position with the republic demanding that her flag be respected and food not contraband of war, every ton of thy needed food protected, or the republic thine ally! Think of all this and render thanks to the gods for their prevision.

THIS FOR YOUR OWN EAR: THE GODS HAVE MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE THAT THERE CAN EVER BE WAR BETWEEN THEE AND THY CHILD ACROSS THE SEA—SIMPLY IMPOSSIBLE.

If ever there could be war, which the gods have made impossible, food for thee from Canada would never reach Canadian seaports. Dismiss from thy thoughts such phantoms and chimeras dire; never again are English speaking men to stand face to face in battle. When they fight it will be SIDE BY SIDE for noble causes. Thus have the gods decreed. Know this, therefore—the best and safest position possible for thee, dependent as thou art and must remain for food from across the sea to feed thy people, is that thou be not dependent for thy chief supply upon thy colonies, thy food subject to capture, but upon the independent republic of THINE OWN RACE.

Lots more men would remain single if girls were as particular at twenty-seven as they are at seventeen.

The ice-man begins to cast a memento shadow.

It is claimed that flirting develops a man. It may also bankrupt him.

Alimony is the penalty a man pays for going against a proposition that he does not understand.

Descanting on the changes in life and work brought about by time, a farmer said, "When I was young I used to think my father had a nuckle sense, but my sons look on myself as a bora cedit!"—Reminiscences, by Sir Archibald Geikie.

"70!"

More marriages would be happy if the girl had to first pass a civil service examination to prove that she was not troubled with cold feet.

Away With It.

We pinch and sweat and scarp and save
And labor like a galley slave,
And when we've got our little pile
We find that it is not worth while.

By drays we gather up a store,
Our nights we spend in getting more,
And all to what worthy end?
That some great-grandchild may spend.

We pinch a dollar till it squeaks,
Endangering its husky veins,
And when we have it stowed away
Perhaps we go and die next day.

Let others seek the filthy dross;
We know its gain is only loss.
Why should we wish for overmuch
When we have friends whom we can touch?

Best of Motives.

Shrieks, agonizing and blood curdling,
Tang out on the startled air, as though some one overpowered in a life and death struggle had cried out in a last hope that some fellow man would hear and rush to his aid.

Windows flew up and men and women looked wildly about, but one man, heedless of danger, rushed toward the wood shed from which the sounds were issuing.

Just as he arrived a man walked out of the door with a grim smile on his face and a skate strap over his shoulder.

"Bown licking your boy, neighbor?"
asked the newcomer in a voice that was not at all reassuring.

"It's nobody's business but my own
if I have," replied the man defiantly.

"I was just coming to see if you were needing any help," said the neighbor, who had met up with the boy a time or two.

Instead of offering a reward, Carnegie could get plenty of heroes by advertising for men to work at it at the rate of about $2 a day.

When a girl's face is her fortune, it sometimes runs largely to cheek.

A wise man removes the advertisements from his mail before turning it over to his wife.

One reason for wanting to get to the front is because the company is apt to be more desirable there.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McEire's Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
