

Personal and Local

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

C. B. Swafford, of Gardiner, was a visitor in our city yesterday.

The steamer Breakwater is advertised to sail from San Francisco tonight and will be due in this port sometime Thursday morning.

At a meeting of the school board last night, J. T. McCormac was re-elected director for three years and John F. Hall was re-elected clerk for one year.

F. M. Stewart and J. L. White have entered a partnership in the Coos Bay Marble and Granite Works, and will greatly enlarge the capacity of that plant.

W. J. Butler, who has been attending the grand lodge A. F. and A. M. in Portland, was a passenger on today's stage from Drain.

S. D. Magnes, of San Francisco, senior member of the firm of Magnes and Mason, of this city, arrived on today's stage from Drain, and will pay our city a short business visit.

Miss Alice McCormac, who has been attending school in Portland the past winter, returned home by way of the overland stage today and will spend the summer vacation at home.

P. M. German and V. O. Pratt have just finished painting and re-roofing the Coos Bay Laundry building and will begin at once upon the construction of a new engine room as an addition to this large plant.

Deputy District Attorney Farrin went to Myrtle Point this morning to prosecute an assault case, and will go from there to Dora, where he has a rape case on the table, in which one Frank Hance is the defendant.

The Empire Stock company left for the Coquille country this morning and will fill engagements at Coquille City, Myrtle Point and Bandon before their return here, from which place they will take the steamer for points in California.

Attorneys E. B. Seabrook and C. F. McKnight, who have been attending the Supreme court at the state capital and the Masonic grand lodge at Portland for several days, returned today on the overland stage. They report a very pleasant and successful trip.

Thos. Vignars, who recently arrived from Spokane, is about to open a real estate office in North Bend, and will place on the market a bunch of lots in Bangor. He has constructed a walk from North Bend across Pony slough, making the property easy of access, and will no doubt find a ready sale.

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." "The doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails." Sold by John Preuss.

It has been discovered that going in swimming is the healthiest exercise, but only for the lay whose mother finds it out.

A lazy man can always find plenty of time to lose time.

Sympathy that costs no money is hardly worth carrying home with you.

As between a man and a dog the dog often has the best drawing powers.

Lots of lazy people lose the comfort of their temperament by working hard to find excuses for it.

A Fraction Will Do

Oh, when they smash the trusts for fair before the action ceases I want to be around somewhere to gather up the pieces.

Good Piece of Work

The Empire Stock Co. presented the play of Faust last evening in a manner so far above what could reasonably be expected, that it was a genuine and pleasing surprise for those who attended. The scenic effects were far ahead of anything heretofore attempted in Marshfield, and considering the difficulties of the situation, were surprisingly good.

Alfred Aldridge, as Mephisto, gave a delineation of that character seldom surpassed on any stage. Miss Snell, as Marguerite, carried that very difficult part in a way that showed a high order of ability as an emotional actress. These two parts, the center of the play, made up the manifest overweighting of those to whom were entrusted the other characters, and the presentation can only be commended.

Temperance Lecture

J. A. McVeigh will deliver his humorous, pathetic and instructive lecture on "His Fight with Booze and how He Won Out" next Wednesday evening, June 22, 8 p. m. at the Baptist church.

A silver free will offering will be taken. The following is the program:

- 1 Prof. Ayre's quartette,
- 1st Tenor, P. M. German;
- 1st Bass, V. O. Pratt;
- 2nd Tenor, F. A. Sacchi;
- 2nd Bass, George Ayre.
- 2 Hymn by Congregation,
- 3 Mixed Quartette,
- 4 Prayer,
- 5 Male Quartette,
- 6 Scripture Reading,
- 7 Mixed Quartette,
- 8 Lecture,
- 9 Male Quartette,
- 10 Benediction.

TRIUMPHS OF MODERN SURGERY

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on the same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by John Preuss.

Among the Launches

The launch owned by the Sanford boys, of Haynes slough and plying between that place and Marshfield has been fitted at Blumquist's boat shop with a new engine and propeller, which arrived on the Breakwater. The engine is a five horse power Union of the very latest improved pattern, and it will propel the boat at a much greater speed and with more reliability than the old engine. The launch, which has been for years known as the Milkmaid will now be re-christened with a more up-to-date name, which is not yet decided upon. The launch has also put on a summer hue of pink and brown and received a general overhauling, and when completed will be a credit to Haynes slough.

The Milkmaid's old four horse power engine has been purchased by F. M. Stewart and is being thoroughly overhauled at the Coos Bay Iron works. It will be used for the purpose of propelling his large redwood dugout boat, which was picked up at sea by the Alliance and brought to Marshfield. It will be a servicable but rather unique addition to Coos Bay's fleet of small launches.

Captain Harris also has the Curlew at Blumquist's shop for minor repairs and renovation.

The Arcata is due here this evening.

The steamer Breakwater should arrive here tomorrow.

R. E. Shine, of Empire, was a visitor in the city today.

Attorney Bennett Swanton made a flying visit to the county seat on today's train.

L. S. Kaufman returned on today's train from a short business visit to Myrtle Point.

J. W. Bennett and family are on a fishing excursion in the Tenmile country this week.

The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce will meet in regular session tomorrow evening.

The Ladies' Art Club will meet on June 24th at the home of Mrs. Condon, on Pine street.

For sick headache take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by John Preuss.

Miss Hayden, of Bandon, is visiting Mrs. J. M. Upton, and will remain until after the Fourth.

School Superintendent W. H. Bunch, of McKinley, is visiting the districts on this side of the divide this week.

F. J. Bingham, proprietor of the Coos Bay Mattress factory, left for a business visit to Coquille City and Bandon today.

It is announced that Mr. Chas. Stauff and Miss Clara Johnson are to be married at the home of Miss Johnson's parents in Marshfield this evening.

A corps of surveyors left North Bend yesterday to survey the route for a pipe line from Eel and Clear lakes in the Tenmile country to North Bend.

Capt. H. E. Wilcox and John C. Frye, of McKinley, will arrive at Allegany today with a large drove of hogs which they are bringing to the Coos Bay creamery.

The steamer Signal, operating for the Simpson Lumber Co., arrived in the bay from San Francisco last night. The Signal brings a large cargo of gasoline and oil for the Standard Oil Company here.

Wm. Chandler and his sister, Miss Helen, who have been attending school, Miss Helen at Portland, and Will at Eugene, arrived on today's train and will spend their vacation with home folk in this city.

There was a mistake in the announcement appearing in yesterday's paper to the effect that Attorney Chas. McKnight had returned from Portland. It was due to a pious case. The article should have stated that E. B. Seabrook had returned and that Mr. McKnight, as counsel for plaintiff, had stopped over to plead an important case now pending at Corvallis.

Summer's New Schoolhouse

At the regular annual school meeting held at Sumner on Monday, a 13 mill special tax was levied for the purpose of building a new school house. The old school house has served its time, and is entitled to the blessings of Nirvana. The new building will be up-to-date and worthy of the progressive spirit that has taken possession of Sumner.

Another Farmers' Line

Manager Robertson, of the P. S. T. & T. Co., informs the MAIL that another Farmers' line is about to be established, leading out of the Marshfield Central. The line will run to Coos City, and perhaps as far as Taylor Sigh's place at the head of Isthmus slough, taking in Flagstaff and the country pieces along the route. The line is already constructed to Coos City and will soon be in active operation.

Opening of the Opera House

The opening of the new opera house in Marshfield, Saturday, July 2nd, promises to prove one of the most interesting events in the history of Coos county. Already hundreds of inquiries have been made for reserved seats and from present indications, the house will be sold out solid before the curtain rises on the opening night. No better selection could have been made by the Mascons for the opening of their magnificent edifice than that of the James Keane Co. Mr. Keane is well known here and from the reports from cities where he and his company have appeared this season a great performance may be expected by his many friends and admirers on the opening night.

The engagement of the Keane company in Marshfield is for one week, and during that time a number of the latest eastern successes will be presented, among others the famous detective play SHERLOCK HOLMES and one of the most popular dramas of the season "A Mexican Romance".

A complete scenic production is promised of each play and the same cast and equipment which have proved so popular in all the large cities, will be seen in the coming engagement in Marshfield.

The MAIL acknowledges receipt of a box of luscious strawberries from Louis Wirth. They are of the Jumbo variety and are well named, the largest one measuring 6 1/2 inches in circumference. The flavor is also first class. These berries are on sale at C. W. Walcott's and F. A. Sacchi's.

The Vote For Queen

The vote for Carnival Queen stood as follows at last report:

MARSHFIELD
Addie Anderson	223
Alice Aiken	59
Hattie Ferrey	4
MYRTLE POINT
Jennie Curran	304
Daisy Deyoe	95
COQUILLE CITY
Clara Sherwood	571

ACTS ON IMPORTANT MATTERS

Coos Bay Chamber of Commerce Doing Good Work

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Coos Bay Chamber of Commerce, held Monday evening, quite a number of important matters were acted upon.

Steps were taken to revive the matter of the removal of the Cape Arago lifesaving station to Charleston bay, also to stir up the Department in the matter of the fog signal at Cape Arago, which is said to have become an uncertain quantity in the calculations of coasting skippers.

In the matter of dredging Pony slough shoal, an endeavor will be made to have each of the ocean steamship companies operating here to contribute $1000 each for continuation of the work being done by the government. It is thought that this will add another foot to the depth of water on the shoal.

The county court will be asked to appropriate a substantial sum to assist in the digging of the North slough canal for which the settlers in that section have already raised about $2000.

Steps were also taken to secure some seed oysters, of the Japanese strain of blood, to be planted in the bays.

The postal authorities will be asked to put another clerk in the postoffice at Roseburg, so that Coos Bay mail arriving there in the night will be sent off on the first train instead of lying over half a day longer.

It will be seen that the Coos Bay Chamber of Commerce is doing good work in matters of vital importance to the Bay.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this medicine. For sale by John Preuss.

Married

STAUFF-JOHNSON—Marshfield, Oregon, June 21, 1904, Chas. F. Stauff to Miss Clara Amette Johnson the Rev. B. P. Bengston, officiating.

The wedding was a very pretty little affair, taking place in the presence of a few invited friends at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 after, which delicious refreshments were served.

The party was treated to a serenade by the Marshfield Fire Department Band.

Both Mr. Stauff and his bride are well known to Marshfield society, having been raised on Coos Bay. Mr. Stauff is one of our most enterprising young merchants, a prominent factor in business circles, while the fair young bride comes from one of the best known families of the county.

The young couple leave for Arago by tomorrow's train and will spend a few days visiting with Mr. Stauff's relatives at that place, after which they will return to Marshfield to settle in their future home.

The COAST MAIL joins with their every friends in the best wishes for their continued happiness and success.
