

Late General News

Orlando, July 1—The American gunboat May Flower collided with the British cruiser Bacchant off here today. The amount of damage is not ascertained.

Washington, July 1—All is in preparation for the departure of President Roosevelt for Oyster Bay tomorrow, where he will remain until July 28. After the notification committee calls upon him he returns to Washington.

Manchester, July 1—The Dispatch prints a report that Premier Balfour's health is poor and he is showing signs of collapse. This may hasten the dissolution of Parliament.

Newark, July 1—In executing Remonstrant and Chapman orders today, a battalion of infantry and a detachment of dragoons assisted the police, while firemen delayed the monastery and took out the occupants by means of ladders, the doors having been barricaded.

St. Louis, July 1—J. B. Ryan, a member of the National Democratic Committee for Nevada, died at the Jefferson hotel this morning of pneumonia. He caught cold while en route here, and on his arrival was compelled to take to his bed.

New London, July 1—The second regatta day dawned in a pouring rain, but at 8 the clouds cleared. Despite the weather conditions, immense crowds were on hand to witness the Yale-Harvard Varsity eight and four races. With a ten-knot breeze blowing up the river and a heavy mist hanging over the course the four took position at 9:30 a.m. and three minutes later were sent away. Harvard took the lead and maintained it until a mile and an eighth had been passed, when Yale drew up on even terms. Harvard won by a length.

New London, July 1—Yale wins the Varsity eight.

Washington, July 1—Paul Morton, who obtained a nine months' leave of absence from his duties as vice president of the Santa Fe, in order to serve in Roosevelt's cabinet the remainder of the President's term, was sworn in this morning as Secretary and was presented to the bureau chiefs, entering upon his new work immediately by attending the regular Friday meeting of the cabinet.

Secretary Moody was also sworn in as Attorney General. The principal officers of the department witnessed the ceremonies, which were preceded by a short speech from Knox. McCall has not yet reached Washington.

St. Louis, July 1—"Arizona is instructed for Hearst but after the second ballot will support Parker," said J. H. Broun, national committee man from that territory this morning. "In my opinion the New York jurist will be nominated on the 3rd or 4th ballot."

On almost every proposition now advanced here there is a query "What will Bryan do about it?" The Nebraska man will arrive Sunday according to present plans. It became known today that Bryan will urge that any man who did not support the ticket in 1906 or 1908 would not make a candidate. Few so-called conservatives will fill that bill.

McLellan and Rose is the ticket being quietly tipped by leading members of the Michigan delegation.

St. Louis, July 1—Cleveland is casting a shadow that makes discussion of his name be carried on in an averted whisper. All realize that some sort of a Cleveland cabal is being hatched in the east. "If Parker is to be nominated," was the epitome of the situation as forecasted by Judge Ditty who is here in charge of the interests of Jackson Harmon, "and if it should be Cleveland the fight will be between Burn on and Gorham."

However there is a palpable effort to ridicule the Cleveland boom out of the convention.

"What do I think of the Cleveland boom?" said Senator Dubois of Idaho, whose main purpose is to get a strong anti-polygamist plank into the platform. "I think it's full of wind, absurd, and started by some of Cleveland's friends to kill off Parker, and if they do defeat Parker, they can't nominate Cleveland, for Bryan then will control."

Active campaigning for Parker began in earnest today when the advance guard of Parker boomers opened headquarters at the Planter's hotel. Maurice Minton, associated politically with August Belmont, is busy button-holing delegates for the New York jurist. The Parker people have six parlors on the first floor of the Planter's. Parker's friends are doing their best to eliminate the impression that Parker is Hill's man.

St. Petersburg, July 2—Prince Ivan Obolensky accepted the governorship of Finland, succeeding Holbrikoff.

Dover, July 2—Viceroy Curzon was today installed as Lord Warden of the Cinque ports, amid great ceremony.

Paris, July 2—Deputy De Lome, former minister of Spain at Washington, died here last night, of cerebral hemorrhage.

Aden, July 2—The Mad Mullah, with six thousand followers, many well armed, is encamped south of Nogal, and is again on the warpath.

Stockton, July 2—James Gillis, president of the Union Transportation Co., was kicked to death by a horse on his ranch near this city this morning.

New York, July 2—Harvard this morning defeated Yale five to nothing in a ball game to decide the second honors in this year's inter-collegiate series. An immense crowd witnessed the game.

Washington, D. C., July 2—President Roosevelt and his office force left this morning for Oyster Bay, at 10 o'clock on a special train of two cars, running as a section of the regular train. The party will arrive at 4:30.

Salt Lake July 2—The heaviest losers from last night's cloud burst were the Consolidated Light and Power company. The bolts struck three power plants within a radius of 50 miles. Almost every cellar on the east side was flooded. Streets were torn up and tracks demolished, but no lives were lost.

George Frederic Watts, the celebrated painter, dead, bronchitis. Born 1817. Large caravan of Armenians overtaken and butchered by Kurds and Turkish regulars Thursday. All adults killed, boys and girls carried off.

Cuban Secretary of State Zealoy's resignation accepted. Secretary of Finance Montes will probably succeed him.

Saratoga, N. Y. July 2—Fire last night destroyed Blue Mountain Lake house, a prominent resort just opened for the season. Loss is estimated at $50,000. The guests escaped without injury.

St. Louis, July 2—If the views of the delegates, alternates and others interested in the Democratic national convention now here, are to be taken as a criterion, the nomination of Parker would seem assured on the second or third ballot. Thus far the Hearst boom has fallen flat, and the loyalty of the delegations instructed for him is in question. The allegation is made in all seriousness that he cannot depend on Ill., Wash., Idaho, Oregon or Mo., and that at the first break the delegates from each and all these states will flock to Parker.

The convention leaders are positive that if Parker is defeated, the nomination will go to another New Yorker, meaning McCallan, or any Tammany favorite, including Cleveland. Governor talk grows stronger. With Parker eliminated, there is a disposition to capsize a strong position for the Marylander, Bryan's strength thus far is not of a positive character. According to plans now hatching, John Sharp Williams, of Miss., may not only be temporary chairman of the convention, but chairman of the Committee on Resolutions as well. It is known that Williams has been at work on the platform draft for some time.

Washington, July 2—The State Department today received the following, dated Ishayan and signed "Armenian Bishops of Persia":

"Turkish barbarians are massacring thousands each day. We humbly solicit the United States government, in the name of Christianity and humanity to save human lives."

Billings, Mont., July 2—The Owl gambling house was this morning robbed of two thousand dollars by two masked men, by whom the inmates were held up. In pursuit of the robbers, Chief of Police Hanna was killed, Sheriff Hubbard was wounded, and one of the robbers' accomplices was arrested.

The saloon was in the very heart of Billings. The robbers entered the front door and commanded every one to throw up his hands; one man, however, escaped unnoticed and warned the police. Just as the men emerged from the saloon, they were ordered to surrender by Hanna, who hurried there unarmed. Both responded with their guns, killing Hanna. The bartender told the police that a few minutes before the robbery Jim O'Grady, a desperate character, had sized up the place, and going outside had signalled a companion, and a moment later the place was invaded by Ed O'Grady and Tom Mozier.

Sheriff Hubbard went to the O'Grady house to arrest Jim, who told him he did not know where his brother was. The sheriff started to go through the place whereupon he was shot from the second story by Mozier or O'Grady who jumped to the ground and escaped. Although shot Hubbard managed after a fearful struggle to hold Jim O'Grady until assistance arrived.

Big posers are persuing the bandits who have taken to the hills. The officers believe they are wanted for more serious and desperate crimes possibly including the train robbery.

St. Louis, July 2—The most sensational move of the entire political situation was made today when, at 10 o'clock, it was announced by the Anti-Parker leaders that a combination against Parker had finally been effected: At that hour Bryan authorized Harlan Cleveland, in charge of the boom of former Attorney General J. Harmon to wire Harmon at Cincinnati to have a letter in St. Louis Wednesday morning stating what his position was in '96. If the letter satisfies Bryan, Harmon will be the choice of the anti's and they will concentrate their strength to beat Parker.

The strength of Olney, Wall, Cockrell, Harmon and Gray formed the nucleus of the deal made by the Bryan Hearst forces. The basis of the move was constituted in a petition, secretly circulated during the night by the anti's which was numerously signed.

It is confidentially announced that a hundred voters are in the combine all pledged against Parker on first and second ballots. The compact does not extend beyond that period but the antiparkerers are just as skillful in the political game as their opponents and with this foothold will be able to defeat Parker. They say the future will take care of itself, and declare the Gotham party in a most dangerous position being within striking distance.
