LEBANON.

On Monday last we visited Brownsville for the purpose of hearing discussed the political issues now before the voters of Linn county. Judge Whitney, candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge was the first speaker. The Judge in a very able manner discussed the five issues of the day. Then in a plain business like way he showed up the financial standing of the county, showing to every voter present that his administration of the county affairs for the last four years had been admirably conducted. Judge Whitney treated his opponent, Judge Blackburn, with a gentle, manly courtesy that was in striking contrast with the treatment of Judge Whitney by Mr. Blackburn. Judge Whitney left a very favorable impression upon the minds of the people, judging as I do, from the many favorable comments made by both Democrats and Republicans, after the speaking. Judge Blackburn took the floor and with one of those killing sneers on his classic face, told the voters of Linn county that it was a simple sum in mathematics, the summing of the business of the county. We had always thought before hearing that speaker that it took some judgment, some executive ability, and a little sound common sense, combined with honesty of purpose to manage the affairs of a large and popular county. But Judge Blackburn let me down hard, and I was honest in it. I did think that a man ought to know a little something in order to make an efficient County Judge. Judge Blackburn told the people that he had no pledges to make them and no favors to ask of them, yet in the same breath as one of those sweet pensive smiles broke over his finely chisled profile, he, in the soft voice of the sycophant begged for the votes of the dear people. He told us that he did not propose to work and sweat on the canvass. That he was opposed to bathing himself in perspiration. I thought perhaps that the Hon. Gentleman was saving his strength to battle with the cold, clammy sweat that will break out all over his delicate frame Tuesday next. But before I left Brownsville I was told that Capt. Humphrey was put on the trail of Judge Whitney to work up all the dissatisfaction among the Democrats possible, in order to defeat one of the best men that ever held a position of trust in Linn county.

Farmers and tax payers of Linn county, don't be deceived. Judge Whitney has guarded your interests for the last four years with jealous care. His record is clear. He knows the needs of the county. He is vigilant and watchful. It is for your interest to vote for him on Monday next, knowing, as every candid man in the county does, that in his hands the county business will be safe.

A VOTER.

NOTES.

Oregon "mass" beats the world, and Z. B. Moss will lay his opponent in the shade next Monday.

John Shea is making ready for a big job as Coroner, having to set on both republican and prohibition candidates.

Democrats of Scio, the democracy of the whole county expects every man to do his whole duty.

Now for a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and victory will perch on the democratic banner next Monday.

The purchasable cattle will be hanging around on the streets of Portland next Monday morning with itching palms looking for Joe Simon and Dave Thompson.

Democrats, keep your eyes open next Monday. Republicans are offering to trade two and three votes for one. They have three candidates whom they would willingly sacrifice to elect the Judge or Sheriff.

Look out for bogus tickets and sensational stories and circulars on Monday. It is said they will be circulated about some of the democratic candidates on that day when it is too late to correct them.

We have information that the Campaign Slanderers have a plan on foot to spring a whole batch of the worst and dirtiest sort of campaign lies that can be invented. They may do so; but they will gain nothing by it.

We have no especial complaint to make of Mr. Hermann; for a man of very ordinary calibre, he has done pretty well; but the House is democratic. Elect Gearin, and he can accomplish more for Oregon in a month than Hermann can in two years.

A letter from a prominent democrat in Portland received this morning says that the outlook for democrats in that city are of the most cheering character. They expect to elect four or five members of the legislature. He says Gearin meets but little opposition. Democrats, take courage.

My democratic friend, suppose you should vote for some republican candidate next Monday. Do you suppose that man would vote for you if you should be on the democratic ticket two years from now? No, sir, he would then travel all over this county denouncing you as a bolter, and abusing you just as a prominent republican is doing to-day.

The Herald says John Smallman's integrity is impeached. This is some more of that paper's campaign slander. No man's integrity is more above reproach among his neighbors than Mr. Smallman's. That paper is willing to resort to anything base and mean to save its sinking ship.

TO THE THINKING PEOPLE OF ALBANY

—Friends: Inasmuch as this is the day and age of sensational advertising and every business man is racking his brain trying to concoct some scheme whereby he can get ahead of his neighbor. We wish to deviate from that rule and make the following statements, knowing that they will be appreciated by all lovers of truth and justice. We are here in business for the purpose of making money and we realize that in order to accomplish that object we must have a continuance of our large patronage. Furthermore we know that this can be assured only by extreme effort on our part and we wish to state that we will at all times give you first-class goods at prices as low or lower than any house in Albany and in addition allow you 5 per cent off on all cash purchases. The statement made by some dealers that they can buy cheaper than others is folly in the extreme as all cash buyers have equal advantages one with another. What we are striving to do is to merit your patronage and we hope by square, upright dealing to do so and be of mutual benefit one to another.

Respectfully,
BROWNELL & STANARD.
