LOCAL RECORD.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Saturday, three prisoners in the county jail, who were in the corridor, where they were allowed to remain during the day, attempted to break jail, by sawing the bars off in the front door of the corridor. They succeeded in getting one bar completely off, which was more than they intended, and had stuck it on again with tallow, when the vigilant eye of Sheriff Smith discovered the trick, and they were all placed in their cells for safe keeping.

THE ROCK CREEK AFFAIR.—A gentleman from Rock Creek says the man or men who shot at Chas. Thomas are not and probably will not be known. It is claimed that there is an organized vigilantes committee, consisting of five to twenty men, who propose to protect their homes, which he claims have been threatened by the Thomas Brothers. He says strong statements have been made, and serious trouble is feared. A number of arrests will probably be made, at least are threatened.

MORE COLUMBIANS.—Yesterday, Z. H. Rudd, of Peoria, was in town and took home with him a new 52 inch Columbia light roadster bicycle, which he bought of J. P. Hall, the Columbia agent at Albany. Zone believes, like the majority of riders, that the best is always the cheapest, and consequently rides a Columbia. Mr. Hall also reports selling another Columbia to Charlie Parks, of this city.

"CLEM."—You all remember "Clem," Clement, Mr. Clement. Along in 1880, before and after he sang bass, in Albany, and was a good fellow generally, and as poor as a dead mouse. He went to Tacoma, embarked in the real estate business, and invested some himself, a short time ago he sold out for the neat sum of $200,000, and hence is now a rich man, which serves him just right. There are many in Albany who will rejoice at "Clem's" deservedly good fortune.

ELECTION CIGARS.—Probably as useless an institution as there is in the world is the box of election cigars. Yesterday a box went off in a few minutes, mostly to Benton county voters, and in one case one man alone in a few minutes succeeded in capturing fourteen. This is simply a sample of the way the thing goes.

RESIGNED.—Rev. Rominger, the able pastor of the Congregational Church, last Sabbath handed in his resignation, to take effect by the 1st of September, or sooner in case the pulpit shall be supplied. Rev. Rominger making this move on account of having been offered the pastorate of the Congregational Church of East Portland under very favorable circumstances.

AN EFFORT.—There seems to be a combined effort among the transcontinental lines to prevent the completion of the Oregon Pacific through to Boise City. The late act of the Southern Pacific providing that all freight delivered to that road must be paid before being turned over to the O. P. is one of the pieces in the program to injure the road.

PAYMASTER.—Monday morning Paymaster Hogue of the Oregon Pacific, was in the city and made the attaches of the road happy by paying for two months labor, leaving only a small amount due. The road is just about as prompt as any of the Oregon R. R's.

WHILE PICKING CHERRIES.—Yesterday while picking cherries, this side of Millers, the 18 year old son of E. T. T. Fisher, fell out of a tree to the ground, breaking his right arm. Dr. Wallace was sent for and attended him.

SUDDEN DEATH.—This morning, Mr. L. Fanning, a pioneer and old and respected citizen of Linn county, had sat down to breakfast, and had just taken a drink of coffee when he fell over, dying instantly.

LIGHTNING.—The lightning last week struck a fence post in the yard of Mr. Ryan, at Tangent, completely shattering it. It is a very rare occurrence for lightning to strike in Oregon.

TOURNAMENTS.—It is fully decided that the regular State tournament will be held at Seattle. Portland, though will hold a special tournament.
