Senator Hawley received thirteen votes for four ballots in the Republican National Convention of 1884. He is not superstitious, but he would rather have twelve than thirteen votes this year at first.

Interviews with grain men in the various parts of the West and Northwest concerning the wheat crop indicate a deficiency of from 50,000,000 to 80,000,000 bushels as compared with last year.

The Prohibitionists are a plucky lot. They regard prohibition as so easy a job that they are willing to undertake to secure the suffrage for women at the same time. Later on they will find they have bitten off more than they can masticate.

It will now be in order for the clergy men to boom Bob Ingersoll's candidate, Gresham.

In looking over the political field don't overlook the fact that Fisk and Brooks are the Prohibition candidates. It is to be assumed that the Brooks are dry.

There is not much money in the milk business for Pennsylvania farmers, the Philadelphia milk dealers having fixed the price for the month of May at three cents per quart. The Burlington County dairymen say they will not ship at that price, and trouble is expected.

Garbage burning in the city of Chicago is quite successful save in point of economy. There are two furnaces so constructed that teams are driven directly on the flat roof, whence the garbage is dumped through chutes running to the floor below. These furnaces are burning about fifty tons per day.
