LOCAL RECORD.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The State Teacher's Association will be held at Salem, July 5th, 6th and 7th, 1888. It will convene in the legislative hall, capitol building, at 10 a. m., on Tuesday, July 5th. All teachers and friends of education are cordially invited. The Collegiate Association will meet in the senate chamber, capitol building, at 2 p. m., Thursday, July 5; also at the same time and place, Friday, July 6th. The presence of all members of Colleges and Universities in the State is earnestly desired. The department of Superintendence will be organized by the several county and city superintendents, and will meet in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, at 4 o'clock, p. m., on Thursday, July 5th, and the department of music will convene in the legislative hall at the same day and hour. The hotels of Salem will enterain those attending, during the days of the Association, at reduced rates. Arrangements have been made by which all attending the Association from all points in Eastern Oregon and travelling over the O R & N R R, will pay full fare to Portland and will be entitled to return tickets at one-fifth of regular fare. Parties traveling over this line will pay local fare to Portland, taking receipt from the station agent for the same. This receipt must be attached to the certificate of attendance issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to all members attending, and must be presented, on return, to the agent of the company at the Ash street dock, Portland. Arrangements have been made with the O & C R R, the O P R R, the W V R y (narrow gauge) companies for reduced rates to all attending, and the usual reduction will be granted. Several State Superintendents of Public Instruction, and other leading educators from the Eastern States and several of the Territories, have been invited and are expected to be present.

AN ALBANY GIRL.—"Two little girls, one named Maud, from Albany, and the other Vina, from Forest Grove, came here last week, as they express it, to "see life," and poor little things they did see life, and with a vengeance. They fell into the hands of some hackmen and were soon "staked out" in the notorious Baldwin Lodging House. Since then the Jehus have been supplanted by a barber and a waiter,—both, of course, gentlemen of education and high social standing,—who have lived on the earnings of these wayward girls ever since. The result is, these mere children, who seemed proud when called "chippies," will have to return to their homes next week, as their health as well as their virtue is gone forever."—Welcome.

CAUGHT BY A CHINAMAN.—Saturday evening a boy named Lampman threw a stone through a window in Joe's laundry, near the Revere house, doing damage to the amount of four or five dollars. Joe was there, and pursuing the bad boy, caught him near the DEMOCRAT office, where he took his measure, and let him go on his promise to settle the same, otherwise to suffer arrest. We believe the former was done. This was the boy's second offense at the same place, and Joe doesn't propose to stand any more foolishness. There are lots of white people too tired of this kind of glass breaking foolishness.

ONLY FOURTEEN.—Saturday night fourteen tramps were at the depot when the southbound train passed out, seven of whom took sleepers, while the others waited for the morning train, preferring to rusticate on the Sound, where gentle breezes blow and the nights are refreshing, to spending their vacation in Southern California with their brothers. A good natured tramp by standing in with the "or kmen and throwing wood on for them is said to be able to ride about as far as he pleases, particularly during the night.

A MORTAR ITEM.—Saturday evening an Albany lady was passing in front of the new Strahan block when a large quantity of mortar left the mortar bed, through the agency of a hoe in the hands of the mixer, and landed on her dress, nearly ruining it. The husband, of course, was mad, and served a notice on the contractors to call and settle, which also of course, they did not do. It was reported that the mortar manipulator was discharged.

NOT FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS.—"It has never rained so much in June in Oregon for eighteen years," said an old settler this morning, "and all the old settlers say so." Familiar words by the way, sounds we have been hearing for years. Too much or not too much it is a fact that things are growing so fast that one can almost hear the soil squeak as wheat, potatoes, etc., rush up through the atmosphere. We only fear too much of an upward strife.

ALBANY.—The "Resources of the State of Oregon," just issued by the State agricultural society, says the following nice things about this city: "Albany is the county seat, and has a population of about 3000. It is on the bank of the Willamette on the western edge of the county, and is surrounded by a beautiful stretch of prairie country in a high state of cultivation. Here the Oregon Pacific crosses the Oregon & California railroad, and the Lebanon branch of the Oregon & California railroad switches off. Steamers ply between here and Portland all the year, except perhaps a couple of months—August and September. It is a thriving place. There are large milling establishments, foundries, etc. The water power used for propelling milling machinery, and for other purposes in Albany, is brought in a commodious canal fourteen miles from the South Santiam, at Lebanon. The town is supplied with a good system of graded schools, in operation ten months of the year. It is also the site of the Albany Collegiate Institute, an institution under the management of the Presbyterian church. The public buildings, both county and city, are elegant, commodious structures.

GOOD BYE, O. & C.—The letters O. & C. R. R. have been as familiar to us for years as the family Bible; but now we must say good bye to them, they must be laid away in our scrap books for future reference. It will be seen by our time table that the proper name of the road is the Mt. Shasta route of the Southern Pacific Lines. The company has just ordered us to make the change and we make it reluctantly. Not much Southern to us up here in Oregon and we are more Mt. Hood than Mt. Shasta by a hundred per cent. But "let her go, Gallagher," the new company is an enterprising one and has barrels of money to spend, and further it is a big advantage to be the end of a long road, for the proprietors are always working to get everybody to buy as long a ticket as possible. The great Southern Pacific empties right here in the Willamette Valley, and that means with us. Any name soon becomes familiar if there is a clink to it.

ALBANY OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT.—The Jekyl and Hyde Company, who have just recently concluded their successful engagement at San Francisco, will appear as above to night only on their way to Portland and the Sound. Our readers may depend upon seeing an admirable play founded on the most popular novel of the day well represented by a carefully organized New York Company, headed by Mr. George M. Wood, the eminent English Actor, and My. Mayne St. John. The San Francisco, Chicago and Eastern press have been most enthusiastic about the excellent acting of the combination and the thrilling interest of this remarkable play which holds the audience spellbound till the fall of the curtain. Seats can be reserved at Blackman's. Drug store, the prices are 75 and 50 cents.

A GREAT SCHEME.—A man with a patent thills is scaring the people half to death in Grand Rapids, Mich. The thills are calculated to be used in driving runaway horses, as they are made to become detached from the carriage when the runaway is in its giddiest period, allowing the vehicle to stop and the horse to run along alone if he wants to. The wretched exhibitor is accompanied by a woman and a horse, and whenever she strikes a town she drives the animal upon the principal street and lets him run away. And how he does run! The woman meanwhile waves her hands and screams, and acts like she was about to go into a fit, while the spectators crowd the street and stand frozen with horror, when—presto, change. The horse becomes detached, gallops another block and stops, and the buggy quietly slows up, and the woman jumps out and laughs, and the advertisement is complete.

SURVEYORS IN.—Saturday evening, Mr. John Maxwell returned from fifteen miles beyond Fox Valley with three of the surveying party that has been at work on the extension of the Oregon Pacific. Another team went six or seven miles beyond and will be in with the rest of the party probably to-night. This will include all of the surveyors this side of the Cascades. A sufficient has been surveyed for a seasons grading this is no indication of any railroad work.

New ribbon all shades and styles at Read's.
Fine peaches and apricots at F L Kenton's.

J. P. Wallace, Physician and Surgeon, Albany, Or.

Miss Goins, the bright little S S girl of Scio, is in the city.

A clean towel for every customer at L. Viereck's barber shop.

The House has passed the army appropriation bill. It appropriates $23,714,793.

A sign over some black raspberries in front of an Albany grocery store, reads, "5 cents a bunch."

There are ninety-five newspapers published in Oregon. Fourteen of these run daily editions.

All eyes now are watching Chicago for the names of the men to be snowed under in November.

City election takes place in Portland today, and there is being displayed much feeling over it.

Mt Hood is to be illuminated July 4 at an expense of $250. W G Steel will have charge of the expedition.

First Lieutenant Geo E Chamberlain has been ordered to inspect and muster F Co, of this city on, or before June 30.

Miss M J Morris, of the public schools, has just returned from a trip to Pineville, returning by way of The Dalles.

Mr Henry Backensto, who is located at Seattle, writes to a friend here that he is teaching music and has forty pupils.

Mr Robert Johns, Halsey's enterprising and popular millionaire, returned home this noon, after a several days sojourn here.

Mr Doty, the proprietor of Lash's Kidney and Liver Bitters troupe, now in the city, was in Albany three years ago with the Vigor of Life company.

Dr Woodward, homeopathic physician, has opened an office in this city over J Gradwohl's store, and intends to make this his future home.

Notwithstanding the frequent elections in Oregon S. L. Creek, in Polk county, does not seem to grow to any appreciable extent. Will some one explain the paradox.

J R Abbey, train dispatcher for the Oregon Pacific, has been transferred from Corvallis to this city where his duties as such can be performed to better advantage than at the former place.

The negatives taken by J G Crawford of the graduating class of '88 and the interior of the chapel are fine specimens of photography. The pictures can be had by applying to Mr Crawford, either here or at Albany.—Polk Co. Observer.

The Portland hose team exercises every evening on Seventeenth street, between D and E, and if they can't beat any other Northwest coast gang running then somebody can win a barrel of money from dwellers in the metropolis.—Welcome.

Rev J W Harris has resigned his pastorate at Salem, and, we understand, intends to go to a different climate for his health, having disposed of his property in Albany last week for $1200. Did his health permit the church in this city would be fortunate could it secure his services as successor of Rev Rominger.

To-day's Oregonian, contrary to the law in such cases made and provided, publishes an adv. for the Louisiana Lottery, a grand humbug. It is headed a "Lucky Darkey." That paper would not publish the company's regular display adv., but it will a local adv. under the guise of a news item.

A dispatch from Princeton, New Jersey, where several of our Albany boys have attended school, says: "A thunder storm accompanied by hail passed over this town today. The house of Harrison Voorhees was struck by lightning and both he and his wife were instantly killed."

School Teachers.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of District No. 5, was held in the office of Burkhardt & Keeney Saturday evening, when the following teachers were elected for the ensuing year: G A Walker, Principal; Lilly M Robertson, Jane Morris Kate Price, Mrs E Thrall, Miss Wheeler and Miss Minnie McFarland, assistants. Misses Irvine, Kirkpatrick, Brink and Bodine retiring. The following self-explanatory preamble and resolution were passed and the public is notified to take warning: "Whereas, Numerous boys have from time to time during vacation congregated upon the school yard and used the same for play-grounds, and through carelessness or on purpose broken out window lights and done other damage to the property, and that the best interest of the district is that the same should not be used as a play-ground during vacation, therefore, be it resolved, that notice be given through the papers to all persons not to trespass on the school premises, and that the gateway be closed up."

WILL GO TO EUGENE.—Prof. J. M. Williams, of Halsey, recently a candidate for school superintendent in this county, has been elected to teach the public schools of Eugene City the coming year, a position he will no doubt fill with ability.

WILL BE REPAIRED.—Money is being raised to repair the interior of the college building. About $500 is needed. The improvements are a necessity. Our college is now in good hands and our citizens should stand by it, as they always have in a liberal manner, during its existence.

STREET CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The Lash's Bitters Concert Company will give a free concert on the streets to-night at 7:30, which every body should hear, as they are the best ever in the city.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held to-morrow evening, in the G. A. R. Hall. A full attendance of members is requested.
