A TIDE.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries." This truth is just as patent, pertinent and potential in the affairs of bodies of men, such as corporations, partnerships, municipalities, cities, towns, etc., as in the case of individuals. How many a man has lamented over and regretted lost opportunities. How many a man has bitterly upbraided himself for neglecting to take the tide at its flood in the affairs of his life, to find that all the remainder of his voyage of life was "bound in shallows and in miseries." These bitter disappointments on account of neglected opportunities come to cities and towns, as well as to individuals. These opportunities may come to Albany and we believe they are now before us, ay, even within our reach. We believe we are on the tide that leads on to prosperity. The question of the hour is will we be, or are we ready to take this tide at its flood. Now is the time for those whose hope is to see Albany grow and prosper permanently to take hold and build up its natural and general manufacturing interests. Shall it be done?

In the window of a store in Washington is displayed a handkerchief emblazoned with stars at top and bottom for the states and territories, with a small flag stamped upon it and the inscription:

"Protection
to American Labor

Appendix is this card: "Republican Handkerchiefs, endorsed by the Chairman of the Chicago Convention. The only authorized Campaign Handkerchief. Imported Chinese silk."

A New York dispatch says that the First Ward Republican Association in Brooklyn to-night received such another shock as it experienced when General Isaac S. Catlin, the republican war horse, had his name expunged from the roll book and enlisted in the ranks of the democracy. Six leading members of the association, headed by Seth Low, who twice led the republicans to victory in Mayoralty contests, sent in their resignations, giving as reasons that they could not support the platform of the Chicago Convention. They are regarded as active and valuable allies of Cleveland in the present contest. The ex-Mayor wrote a letter to the association, in which he says that he believes in a revision of the tariff, and for this and other reasons he must withdraw.

The money now lying idle in the Federal Treasury resulting from superfluous taxation amounts to more than $125,000,000 and the surplus collected reaches the sum of more than $60,000,000 annually. Debauched by this immense temptation, the remedy of the republican party is to meet and exhaust by extravagant appropriation and expenditure, whether constitutional or not, the accumulation of extravagant taxation. The democratic remedy is to enforce frugality in public expense and to abolish unnecessary taxation—National Democratic Platform.

Enormous exports of wheat from Southern Russia threaten to keep down the price of breadstuffs in the European market that fixes the price here. American farmers will thus continue to receive low foreign prices for their products, while paying an average tax of 47 percent upon their imported necessities for the sake of "protecting" somebody else. No wonder they are firing of it.

The Tiffin (Ohio) News says: "Harrison wants the American manufacturers and monopolists protected and says that a dollar a day and two meals is enough for any workingman. At another time he is reported to have said that if he were Governor he would force the striking laborers back to work or he would shoot them or the spot."

It is boasted that Levi P. Morton sent a ship load of provisions to Ireland eight years ago costing $50,000. The New York Herald, which supports Cleveland, sent $100,000 to relieve the same Irish famine, and Mr. Tilden gave $25,000 upon condition that the fact was not to be made public during his life time. If Mr. Morton gave to Ireland as an investment upon which he now expects a dividend in votes, his motive deserves only contempt.

Chauncey M. Depew says he was going abroad to see how Cleveland was running in England. While he is at it we hope he will find out how Harrison is running in China.

UPON THE TARIFF ISSUE.

Mr. L. B. Peaslee is one of the prominent attorneys of Defiance, Ohio, a gentleman whose republican pugnacity has been felt in many campaigns, to the sorrow of democrats. This man of brains and influence has declared for Cleveland and Thurman upon the tariff issue. It is a change effected by convictions, not merely one of political policy. It is a stalwart change, or rather the change of a stalwart. It is indicative of the progress of the reform movement. It is the deduction of reason, the conclusion of good business sense. There are hundreds and thousands of Peaslees all over this country. They will help along the issue and the man who had the courage to bring the issue to the front.—Tulalo Bee.

The Republicans are getting ready to back square down from their free whisky platform. Some say that it does not mean that the party is in favor of removing the tax from whisky, but that rather than give up all protection they would make whisky free. Verily, many decent republicans are very much ashamed of their platform. The brethren, though, must stick to their free whisky platform and every democrat should hold them to it. That part of the platform reads as follows:

"We favor the entire repeal of the internal taxes rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system."

This means the maintenance forever of a 47 percent war tariff. It can't be dodged nor wriggled away from. That party offers the people free whisky and dear clothing and food, while democrats propose cheaper clothing and food and taxed whisky. This is the issue in a nut shell.

Seven weeks now since Oregon went republican, and the price of wool with a spirit of utter disregard of the tender feelings of republican leaders, refuses stubbornly to advance. Again we ask: What's the matter?
