For Vice President—ALLEN O. THURMAN, of Ohio.

TEACH THEM

Mr. Blaine is of the opinion that the present generation should be taught the advantages and benefits of high protection. Yes, verily, the suggestion is a good one. Let us teach the young voter that when he buys a $1 hat he gets 40 cents worth of hat and 60 cents worth of protection.

That when a farmer buys $100 worth of jute sacks he gets $60 worth of sacks and $40 worth of protection.

That when a man buys a $12 suit of clothes he gets $7 worth of clothes and $5 worth of protection.

If a young couple just beginning house-keeping buy a yard of Brussels carpet for $1 they receive 45 cents in carpet and 55 cents in protection—or say for a whole room $12 worth of carpet and $18 worth of protection.

If the young woman pays $9 for a shawl she gets $6 worth of a shawl only; the other $3 she presents to the manufacturer to "protect" him.

If she buys a dress for $18 she gets $12 worth of dress and $6 worth of protection.

If, however, she wants a pair of shoes, which formerly cost $4.50 to $5.50, she has only to pay $2.50 to $3.50, according to quality, because some of the "protection" has been taken off hides, from which the leather in the shoes are made.

If she pays 50 cents for an iron pot or pan she gets 30 cents in goods and 20 cents' worth of protection.

If she buys a clock for $3 she receives $2 worth of clock and $1 worth of protection.

If she wants a sewing machine and pays $20 for it, she gets $11 worth of sewing machine and $9 worth of protection.

If she pays $16 for a watch, and $12 represents the timepiece; the other $4 go to "protect" somebody.

If she buys a lamp for $1.55 cents in lamp and 45 cents to "keep the pot boiling" for some "protected" individual.

If she has to buy a range or stove for $25, she gets $17 worth of goods and $8 worth of protection.

If she buys a dozen steel knives and forks for $3.50, she gets about $2 in knives and $1.50 in protection.

If she buys a dozen glass tumblers for $1 she receives in glass 55 cents and 45 cents in tariff.

If a young farmer buys $100 worth of implements to start out in farming he gets $55 in machines and $45 in tariff wind pudding. With the Mills bill passed he could get a horse and harness, as well as his implements for his $100.

If the farmer purchases a barrel of salt for $1 he gets 64 cents in salt and pays 36 cents in protection to companies in Syracuse, Warsaw and Saginaw.

Mr. Blaine and Field Marshal Matt Quay are at liberty to use these facts in their new political catechism for the present and coming generations.

Look where you will, follow the whole tariff list now in force, down article by article, and you will find the hand of the public robber reaching for your pocket, to steal from every man, woman and child in the country. Since each must consume something so each must be robbed.

IN THE LEAD.

On the question of the fishery dispute between England and the United States, out of which the republican Senate has labored so zealously and persistently to make political capital for Harrison, the president now holds the whip in hand—the trump card so to speak. The president some months ago entered into a treaty with England, whereby all the disputes growing out of the fishery question were to be settled. The republican Senate has rejected the treaty on the alleged ground that too much was conceded to Canada, but really for the purpose of prejudicing American voters against Cleveland. Thursday the president sent in a message to Congress, calling upon that body to pass a law giving him authority to retaliate on England and Canada so effectually as to compel them to come to terms. The president seems to be in an attitude ready to take the English lion boldly by the tail, and it now remains to be seen whether the Senate will give such authority as is necessary to protect our fishermen, for whom that body has been professing such profound interest.

This evening the democrats of California open up their campaign by public meetings in all the principal cities and towns in the state.

ATTENTION.—We are now receiving daily from Southern Oregon fine yellow Crawford peaches. Parties desiring to can or preserve fruit will do well to call and leave orders, as they are now in their prime and very fine.

WALLACE & THOMPSON.

The East Oregonian calls attention to the sale of 48,000 bushels of wheat in one lot in that city at 60 cents per bushel and congratulates the farmers on receiving so good a price, but reminds them that were it not for the duty on the sacks used to handle the grain they would have received $576 more for it. This is one of the benefits of high protection which Mr. Blaine thinks should be taught to the present generation, and a burden which the Herald thinks farmers ought to bear, regarding it as a blessing to be thus taxed.

The providence Journal (Rep.) says: "It was not England's free-trade policy, but England's protective policy that ruined the industries of Ireland, and every student of Irish history knows it. The Irish woolen industry was absolutely prohibited at the demand of the English manufacturers, and the linen industry, which was tolerated, is flourishing to-day."

THE "BANNER SHOW."

Sells Brothers' Royal Roman Hippodrome, Circus and Menagerie.

The patrons of tented display will find ample field for the gratification of their tastes by a visit to this justly celebrated show which is to be here Monday, Aug. 27th. There is much to be seen in this exhibition that can not be witnessed elsewhere, and from beginning to end the program is a succession of attractive and strictly novel features. The hippodromatic displays finds precedents only in those of ancient Roman days and are characteristic portrayals of the turf and gladiatorial sports of that period. The recently added attractions of the wizard marksman of the west and champion wing shot of the world, Capt. A. H. Bogardus, and his four equally remarkable sons will find a host of admirers.
