how we do it; yet if the world only knew of the energy, grit and enterprise we have displayed in collecting such a magnificent display of staple and fancy groceries it would not be surprised. We have the largest, finest and most complete stock of you will be convinced that we have not over-estimated ourselves. Remember we are buying our goods largely direct from first hands, thereby saving all profits of the middle men; and our command of ready cash has enabled us to buy our goods remarkably cheap, getting the benefit of all discounts and rebates, placing us in a position where we can dictate to them and not they to us, hereby always getting the
