

CANDID MAN.

Chauncey M. Depew, who was one of the prominent candidates before the National republican convention for the presidency, took a trip to Europe just after the adjournment of the convention, and has just returned and has been talking out in school with both head and heart, and in doing so he is throwing the republican managers into a state of confusion. For instance he says:

"There does not seem to be an Englishman who can understand the difference between free trade and revenue reform. They regard the democrats as free traders because they want to revise the tariff schedules."

Strange that the far-seeing "bauncey" has not ere this discovered the equally patent truth that nine-tenths of his own party are equally unable to distinguish the difference between free trade and revenue reform, or at least they pretend to see no difference. Mr. Depew should bear in mind that Englishmen simply believe what the leaders of his party have been vehemently asserting for the last ten months. This gentleman who is the most candid and fair of all the republican leaders made a speech at the Union Club in New York City the other night, in which he stated in the most concise manner that the man who charged the democrats with laboring to promote the interests of England in their efforts to secure tariff reform was a knave and a fool. And Chauncey's statement is literally true, for no honest, sensible man would ever think of charging a majority of the people of the United States with deserting their own interests for the interests of a foreign people. If Chauncey keeps on at this rate before the election comes off he will land himself in the bosom of the democratic party.

INTELLIGENT LABORER'S VIEW.

Ignorant workmen may be imposed upon by the assertion that taxes create prosperity and that high tariffs make high wages. But intelligent workers are not caught by such ridiculous assumptions.

The resolution adopted by a Local Assembly of Knights of Labor in Philadelphia, composed of textile workers, show a clear comprehension of the truth. They declare that "the present tariff laws impose a heavier tax upon the raw materials and partly finished products than upon the finished commodities, thus being directly in the interest of the foreign manufacturer." And because the Mills bill reverses this obvious discrimination against American labor the Assembly, "discarding all partisan considerations," demanded its passage "as a measure calculated to bring prosperity, steady work and better wages for every textile worker in our country."

Intelligent labor knows that "there is nothing to fear from foreign cheap labor so long as it remains foreign," and that what the American wage worker needs is lighter taxes on his necessities, untaxed tools, machinery and raw materials, a steadier market at home and a wider market abroad. With these assured he can "protect" himself.

A FATAL LACK OF LOGIC.

The monopoly taxers tell us that a high tariff makes prices low, wages high, at one and the same time, thus compelling the manufacturers to pay out more money, take in less money than they would without the high tariff, and they also tell us that the manufacturers will all be ruined unless this same high tariff which reduces their revenue and increases their expenses is maintained. This is what James G. Blaine and Ben. Harrison and all the rest of the monopoly taxers ask the people to believe. Read the above over four times and study it two hours and you will vote right.

A dispatch from Roanoke Va., says: At a Democratic massmeeting at Salem Monday John T. Harris, Elector-at-large, and W. B. Berry, Elector for this district, spoke to at least one hundred colored voters. They were loudly cheered, and at the close of the meeting the colored men announced their intention to act independently of their old leaders and support Cleveland and Thurman. This declaration fell in the Republican ranks like a bombshell, and a tremendous effort was made last night to stem the tide, but in vain."

Mr. Charles Becker, a large cattle owner of Malheur county, a life-long Republican, says he will vote for Cleveland. "Malheur county," says Mr. Becker, "will give a rousing majority for the Democratic ticket in November. I know of many Republicans in my neighborhood who are with Democratic party this year. They are down on protection to monopolists and the robbing of the laboring man to foster trusts and combines, and believe the Democratic party to be the party of the masses."

The Baker City Democrat publishes the names of several prominent Republicans of that county who will vote this fall for Cleveland and Thurman.

HALSEY, Sept. 25th, 1888.

Editors Democrat:

A republican friend of mine says the prohibition vote in Maine at the election the other day was less than it was in the September election of 1884. Give us the official figures.

STUDENT.

(The official vote for the prohibitionists in September, 1884, was 1157, and in the election the other day it was 2971, or a gain of 1784.—EDS. DEMOCRAT.)

If anything were needed to show the mercenary apostasy and utter lack of loyalty to right principles as discovered through the reason and conscience of the editor of the Oregonian, that need will be found fully supplied in the supplement, which we furnish with the DEMOCRAT today as a supplement. Although the Oregonian is to-day the servile organ of the protection party, it is utterly unable to answer its own arguments so fully set forth in the supplement. Let every democrat read it and ask his republican neighbor to do so too.

WHERE TO GO.

An Important Question.

Some will say to the grand old ocean at Newport; some to breezy Ilwaco; some to the health giving Springs at Sodaville and Waterloo, and some to where the deer grazes in the mountains; but the general verdict will be, when you are after dry goods, boots, shoes, clothing, furnishing goods, etc., to go to A. B. McIlwain's, Albany, Or. After the most bountiful harvest in the history of Oregon the question is a very important one. Big crops with low prices and good goods will make things flourish. If you would realize this combination call on Mr. McIlwain and you will be taken through his large double store and by shown goods and prices that will impress this fact on your mind. His stock of dry goods is complete and selected to meet the demands of this growing community. In dress goods of all kinds he has a stock that speaks for itself. New designs, styles and patterns. His line of woolen goods is remarkably fine, and as fall is now here, deserves your consideration. Superior goods at low prices is the program. His stock of flannels is a good one and now is the time to buy. In ladies' shoes he can surprise you at their cheapness considering the quality of the article. You will not lose anything by examining his boot and shoe stock generally. Mr. McIlwain's clothing and furnishing goods department is well stocked with a good assortment of goods which he is selling at very low prices.

Mr. McIlwain's goods generally have been bought under the market, and hence can be sold at prices that defy competition. Farmers, laboring men, mechanics, men, women and children should inspect his large assortment of goods, as it will be business for them to do so. A dollar saved is a dollar earned as much now as ever, and Mr. McIlwain proposes to help you do the saving by giving you the prices and goods.

Large crops and high prices for wheat in order to make prosperous times should be followed by close buying in the best market, hence it will be to your advantage to call on A. B. McIlwain who has the goods and prices to give you bargains such as cannot be obtained elsewhere.

CLOTHING.—A large and complete line of gents' clothing and furnishing goods at A. B. McIlwain's. In the clothing department he has a large line of pants, regular value, $5, which he will sell during the coming week for $2.50.

I am now receiving my spring and summer dress goods. Call early and secure bargains at W. F. READ.
