

Daily Democrat.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President—GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York
For Vice President—ALLEN D. THURMAN, of Ohio
For Presidential Electors—
W. R. BILYEU, of Linn county.
W. H. E. FENNER, of Multnomah county.
E. R. SKIPPWORTH, of Clatsop county.

A New York dispatch to the Philadelphia Times, Oct. 1, says:

"The betting for the last two days has increased amazingly. On Saturday evening over a game of poker at Hooton's up-town saloon, when the champagne was flowing freely, a young man from Connecticut by the name of Tiltonson of unlimited means bantered Colonel William Brown, of the Evening News, of New York, to bet on New York state. Brown wanted to bet $20,000 on Cleveland to $15,000 on Harrison, and it was finally agreed that Tiltonson should put up $12,000 on Harrison against Colonel Brown's $20,000 that New York would go for Cleveland.

Early in the morning Colonel Brown went to the Gilsey house and roused Mr. Rickey, the recognized authority on betting. Mr. Rickey told Colonel Brown that he had done just right and gave $500 for half of the bet. To-day Rickey came down to the Hoffman house and vainly sought to get another bet of $20,000 to $12,000.

Captain Conner, of the St. James, offers $500 to $1000 on a majority for Cleveland in Indiana, but as yet his bet has not been taken.

That distinguished republican, James A. Garfield, declared, in the earlier and better days of his party, "I am for a protection which leads to ultimate free trade." The leaders of his party, including Mr. Blaine, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Edmunds, even Senator Hoar, all heard it. Not one of them expressed dissent. On the contrary, they nominated the man who took this position as candidate for president. And now those same leaders are endeavoring to persuade the people that a candidate for the presidency is dangerous to elect because his policy may lead to such an end! It will be remembered that Cleveland, unlike Garfield, has never avowed such to be his purpose.

The Roseburg Review puts the whole issue in a nut shell, thus:

"In order to protect the bondholders and the trusts, Harrison and Blaine oppose any reduction of the tariff.

In order to protect the people, Mr. Cleveland insists that taxation shall be reduced. A vote for Harrison is a vote for the bondholder.

A vote for Cleveland is a vote for the people."

Senator McMillan, of Tennessee, who has been stumping New York for Cleveland, returned to democratic headquarters the other day. He reports everything very encouraging in both New York and New Jersey. After his speech at Ithaca, a call was read for the organization of a Cleveland Tariff Reform Club among the professors and students of the university, which was signed by six democratic and fourteen republican professors.

If there was a city councilman in Albany who would persistently advocate a continuance of taxation when the town treasury was overflowing he would have hard work in preventing his friends from carrying him off to the nearest lunatic asylum. Yet the retention of an unnecessary Federal tax from which the majority of people receive a double injury is being trumpeted as "the great American idea."

Talk about protecting labor. The Scott Exclusion bill which shuts out General Harrison's pets, the Chinese who can live on ten cents a day, will do more for the wage-earners than all the tariff schedules in the world.

Carl Schurz has written a letter from Germany in which he announces that he will support Cleveland.

The Tammany democracy of New York have nominated Hugh J. Grant for Mayor and the County democracy have nominated Mayor Hewitt.

Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

Martin Kellogg, a well-known pioneer of Hudson County, and who is now 102 years of age, has come out for President Cleveland. Mr. Kellogg voted for Harrison in 1840, and has voted with the Republican party ever since the Republican party has been in existence. He says that every male member of his family has been converted to tariff and reform.
