

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President - GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York
For Vice President - ALLEN G. THURMAN, of Ohio
For Presidential Electors -
W. R. HILYER, of Linn county.
W. H. E. PLYMER, of Multnomah county.
C. R. CLEVOLE, of Umatilla county.

HOIST BY HIS OWN PETARD.

Blaine has been caught again in his own trap. In his "swing around the circle" he has been peddling out the stale falsehood that while the house committee on ways and means were preparing the tariff bill, Havemeyer, the great sugar refiner of New York, appeared before the committee and secured such an adjustment of sugar duties as would enable him to profit largely by it.

"The statement of Mr. Blaine is devoid of truth. Mr. Havemeyer never appeared before the ways and means committee at all. He never obtained any arrangement by which $6,000,000 was put into the pockets of the sugar trust. The sugar trust was formed under the existing tariff made by the republican party of 1853, and when the bill recently passed by the house was laid before the ways and means committee for its action every one of the five republican members of that committee voted to strike out the reduction we proposed and continue the tariff rates under which the trust was formed."

This was a clincher and brings fully to light Blaine's hypocritical pretense that he favors legislation against trusts.

A Protectionist organ which denies that duties increase prices, on being cornered with the question. "What then is the object of the tariff?" answers: "To reduce the price of protected articles by promoting their manufacture where the consumer lives." But if the tariff does not permit the manufacturer to charge the consumer more than he would be able to get but for the tariff, of course it does not protect him.

And now comes the word that Hermann will enter the field as a candidate to succeed Dolph in the United States senate. But Mr. Hermann will learn in due time that he lives too far from Portland to be called to such an office. It is also said that "Great Scott" the whilom free trader is a candidate, and that the necessity of keeping himself in good standing with his party is the reason for his eccentric summer-sault on the tariff question.

Mr. Blaine implied in his speech at Grand Rapids that the increase in population, the industries, homes, business houses and nearly all other things that make life worth living in that prosperous city were due to the beneficent effects of a protective tariff. If Mr. Blaine can only prove now that war taxation preserves the earth, air and water for Americans he may induce some simple Westerners to vote to keep it up.

The republican national committee has printed millions of envelopes with such sentences "Free trade will ruin the country," "Lower wages if Cleveland is elected," and other intimidating devices. These are furnished free to all manufacturers who will use them in paying off their employees. The weekly pay is put in the envelope and given to each employe. This species of intimidation is as reprehensible as to drive the men from the polls with clubs.

Tammany democrats of New York have nominated A. P. Fitch of the 13th district for congress. Fitch is the present member having been elected two years ago as a republican. He voted for the Mills bill and resigned his membership in a republican club. He feels happy in being a democrat.

Will Speak.

MONEY TALKS.

The Examiner says: Mose Gunst has in his safe some money which he and other friends are willing to wager on the following propositions: $10,000, or any part of it that Cleveland will be re-elected. $5000 to $4,500 that Cleveland will carry New York. $2,500 that he will carry New Jersey. A combination bet of $1000 each on Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey and the general result. There are now $29,000 deposited at the Grand Hotel to wager on Cleveland's election.

Republicans say that the Chinese question is settled and therefore Harrison's Chinese record ought not to be taken into account in the coming election. This is only partly true. The Scott Exclusion bill expires by limitation May 6 1892. How important then to have a president who will be sure to sign another bill.

Congress will adjourn to-morrow. The session has been a very long one.
