LOCAL RECORD.

ONE SENSIBLE CHINAMAN.—Charles Cum Sin, the highly educated and thoroughly Americanized Chinese lawyer, who has been in Salem all week in attendance at Circuit Court was approached regarding his opinion of the new Chinese exclusion act says the Journal. He thinks the act is just and that his fellowmen should be excluded. He admits they are a detriment rather than a benefit to the country. He thinks, however, that the same rigid laws should be enacted against the Italians and Swedes and other classes of emigrants that are swarming to our land. He says the latter are no more desirable than the former. Desirable emigration he wishes to see encouraged, but would favor the stoppage of the ceaseless swarm of pauper emigration of degraded foreigners of all nationalities.

THE ROCK CREEK SALOON.—Deputy Sheriff Smith arrived home Saturday night from Rock Creek with James Ritchford, whom he had arrested for selling liquor without a license and to a minor. Ritchford took possession of Ad Harmon's saloon on the arrest of George Mealey. The deputy sheriff had quite an experience in arresting Ritchford and closing the saloon, several roughs interfering, but he came out on top, as has always been his custom. The case of the Rock Creek saloon will be thoroughly investigated by the grand jury.

THEATRICAL.—About one hundred fifty people, two-thirds of whom were in the gallery, attended the "Widow O'Brien" entertainment at the Opera House Saturday night. It was one of the most laughable pieces of stage work ever presented in Albany. While there is somewhat of a romance running through it it is mostly variety business. Most of the parts are well sustained particularly those of "Widow O'Brien," Capt. Cranberry and Jenny Thompson. People who want to be amused should always go to "Widow O'Brien."

BUCKEYES.—An exchange boasts of being presented with some genuine buckeye, or horse chestnut, which it declared to be the first it had ever seen in Oregon. These nuts it says are sovereign specifics for rheumatism. A man with a buckeye in his pocket can snap his fingers at that foe to nerve and muscle. The local editor of the DEMOCRAT has two buckeye trees, and now carries one of the buckeyes just taken from under one of them in a pocket, not for rheumatism; but to draw delinquent subscribers this way.

ANOTHER BONANZA.—Charles Cook, who has been engineer for the Willamette Valley fruit evaporator, about a week ago went up into the Santiam mining region and took up two placer claims on the Little North Fork of the Santiam. The result of his prospecting was so rich that he is satisfied he has a bonanza, and the other day he shipped up hydraulic machinery to develop the claims. He is an experienced miner and will work as long as possible.

RIB BROKEN.—Yesterday Mr. John Schmeer was coming from Corvallis to this city with a drummer when his team became frightened just west of the city and ran away. One of the horses being young and frisky they were ready to run at almost anything. Both men were thrown out and the horses came to the city alone. The drummer was not injured; but Mr. Schmeer unfortunately had a rib broken. Dr. Maston fixed him up and he is doing well.

REACHING OUT.—An agent of the Oregon Pacific railroad was in the city yesterday and offered to deliver freight in this city from San Francisco via Yaquina Bay for about one half what the O R & N Co. charges. It is his intention to ship by rail from Yaquina to Albany, thence by steamer to Portland and from Portland to this city by the steamer "Telephone."—Astoria Pioneer.

SENT IT TO ASTORIA.—The latest addition to the adornments of the Astorian office is a handsome Chinese phoasant, finely stuffed and mounted, the gift of Hon. Thos Monteith, of Albany, Linn county. These birds are very handsome and present fine opportunities for the taxidermist's art.—Astorian.

BAD FOR THOMAS.—Yesterday says the Jefferson correspondent of the Salem Journal, there was a bet made on the result of the coming election. E N Thomas put up $100 for Harrison's election and F P DeVaney and J J Davis together put up $100 that Grover Cleveland would be the next President.

A BIG SUIT.—The Portland News says that on Wednesday the trial of the case of the Oregon Pacific Railway Company vs. G. W. Hunt will begin at Albany. This is the action wherein the Oregon Pacific seeks to recover $80,000 damage from Contractor Hunt for throwing up his contract on the road. Hunt first sued the railroad company for $80,000 alleged to be due for work performed on the contract in question. Hon J T Leasure attorney for the Oregon Pacific.

SUICIDAL PURPOSE.—Yesterday a man by the name of V. Packenpugh living on Second Street in the eastern part of the city attempted to commit suicide by taking a dose of laudanum. Dr. Maston was called in and by a vigorous use of emetics, shingles and walking, the man was restored. The Dr. was not informed of the cause though other parties intimate that financial troubles may have been the cause of the foolish act.

BEN ENDOSED.—The Albany Collegiate Institute has been endorsed by the Synod of Columbia and hereafter will receive its special care and support. It will be known as the Presbyterian College of this Synod and has been empowered and directed to provide college courses of study and give honors and degrees of students completing their courses. Additional endowments will be secured and the future of this institution is full of promise. Rev E J Thompson, D. D., of this city, has been appointed by the Synod chairman of the supervisory committee. The number of students at present is far from one hundred.—Corvallis Gazette.

LOTS OF SALMON.—The total salmon pack in Alaska this year amounts to 326,000 cases. The total for the Pacific Coast is estimated at 1,057,000 cases, valued at $5,813,500. The consumption will be about as follows: United States, 450,000 cases; United Kingdom, 200,000; Australia, 150,000; Canada, 75,000 and 125,000 cases for various other localities.

ABSENT MINDED.—Recently an Albany clerk wrote to his girl, who resides in a neighboring city. The next day having forgotten the fact, he wrote again, his second letter being a duplicate of the first. The young lady, who is in the city, vouches for the truth of it, and the young man's friends think it is a bad case.

SEVEN OF THEM.—Seven gentlemen of leisure, sort of semi-tramps, were arrested Saturday evening and towed into the city's unsafe calaboose. To-day five of them, who claimed to be heading for work at Yaquina Bay and on the O. P. extension, were given till 1 o'clock to leave the city. The other two received 3 days and street work.

A RATTLESNAKE.—A genuine rattlesnake was killed Saturday in the alley running between the residences of W. C. Tweedale and F. M. French. It possessed two rattles, and was about two feet long. We do not remember of ever having heard of one being killed in the city before.

NOTICE.—After investigating the cause that led me to suspect J. D. Lewis of taking my wife's watch and jewelry I find it was false and release him from any further blame in the matter. J. B. THOMPSON.

Among those attending Court to-day from other parts of the N W are G W Hunt, of Walla Walla, H P McGuire and A P Shapstein, of Portland and Judge Benne t, of Corvallis.

Three tramps in the calaboose refused to work on the street this noon and they were about to be bailed and chained when two of them, J Carnes and J Wilson were arrested for breaking into WC Tweedale's.

NURSERY.—J. F. Backensto is the accredited agent of Vancouver Nursery. Apply to him for fruit or ornamental trees at Albany, Oregon.

L. Viereck's baths.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Senator Dolph is on his way home. The Siftings case will be considered by the grand jury now. East Portland has lost a sewer. The funder will be liberally rewarded. Mr Peterson, Postmaster at Philomath, has been in the city to-day. Two weeks from to-morrow the great Presidential struggle will take place. An Ex. says we like to see our friends rise except when in the shape of a barrel of flour. Mr J J Dorris arrived home from Eastern Oregon Saturday evening after an absence of several months. At a foot race in St Louis yesterday for the championship of America, Harry Bethune won the most points and was declared champion. Rev F P Flower, of Salem, preached in the M E Church yesterday and Rev Thos Small, of Waldo Hills, in the Congregational church.

There were ten tramps in the calaboose Sabbath night. That was enough to do some heavy street work; but the trait is when put to work the fellows "do not do enough to hurt."

A San Francisco woman sued her dressmaker for damages for furnishing her with a bustle which burst with a muffled report when sat upon, and the court awarded a judgment of $11 50.

On Thursday an enthusiastic Portland Democrat bet $500 to $250 with Paul Schulze on the result of the Presidential election in New York, and the same day with A J Knott put up a $40 forfeit against a like sum advanced by John Angell, for a $500 bet on the general result.—Welcome.

The foot race between Langdon and Messenger was not run yesterday, though the parties went out to the track. Albany is getting more than its share of foreign foot racers. These men are probably among the fastest in the United States. Langdon though is not Hatcher, as some have asserted.

A Salem paper in speaking of the Circuit Court there says: "This was District Attorney Hewitt's first term in Marion county, and law-breakers found him a very hard nut to crack." The same paper in speaking of Mr Hewitt's predecessor says: "Geo W Belt, who left here last month for Spokane Falls, has his office with a prominent real estate firm, and is said to be doing a great deal of business already."
