

Daily Democrat.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President—GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York
For Vice President—ALGER A. THURMAN, of Ohio
For Presidential Electors—
W. R. HILLYER, of Linn county.
W. H. ELLIOTT, of Multnomah county.
E. B. SKIFFORD, of Umatilla county.

AN IMPORTANT DUTY.

The voters of the country were never called upon to perform a more important duty than that of voting for president next Tuesday. Cleveland's administration has been pure, economical and honest. This alone entitles him to reelection. Besides this he favors a reduction of the unnecessary burdens now resting on the people. This is the issue: The democrats favor reducing the tax on the necessities of life, the republicans would make whisky and tobacco cheap. Take your choice.

The high taxers are administering home market talk to the farmers in big doses. One dose of it they administer in their platform, wherein they say they "would effect all needed reduction of the national revenue by such a revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check imports of such articles as are produced by our people." They seem to mean to have the farmer understand by this that they would give him the home market to himself by keeping out foreign products. Now let the farmer consider a few facts before he swallows this. With the exception of tea, coffee, sugar, and some articles which our farmers do not produce at all, or only in small quantities, our imports are not farm products to any considerable extent. The farmer, therefore, has the home market pretty much to himself now. But he furnishes more than 70 per cent. of all our exports. In the census year the total value of our farm products was $2,213,403,564. Of this total $546,476,704, or nearly 25 per cent., was exported. This surplus above the home demand was nearly 25 per cent. of his total product. Now, if he had been confined to the home market, what would he have got for this extra 25 per cent. that the home market didn't want? And how would the value of his total product have been affected if he had glutted the home market with a surplus of 25 per cent. above the demand? And as he himself consumes about one-half of his product, he may judge for himself about how much his home market would have to be enlarged in order to absorb his 25 per cent. surplus at remunerative prices. He would do well to ponder such facts as these before swallowing the "magnetic" talk he hears about the home market.

If you have a horse that is in the habit of kicking, put him in a narrow stall that has both sides thickly padded. Suspend a sack filled with hay or straw so that it will strike his heels, and let horse and sack fight it out. Be sure to have things arranged so that the horse cannot hurt himself. The sack will be victorious every time, and in the end the horse will absolutely refuse to kick the sack or anything else.—Rural World.

Republicans are building on the hope that the differences between the city and country democracy in the city of New York may lessen the democratic majority there. Those differences will only bring out the full strength of the party, and add to the determination that the national and state tickets shall be kept in front. There is a rivalry for this purpose that assures doom for the grandson and his "boss," the subaltern, of many and deserved titles.

It really requires a democratic administration to put the Monroe doctrine in force. How quickly the foolish intermeddling in our affairs of Minister West is followed by a request that he be recalled. The tail of the great British lion never gets a good healthy twisting at any other hands than those of a patriotic, old-fashioned, truly American democratic president.

One hundred and twenty-five Negroes registered from one house in New York is one of the straws which shows how the wind is blowing. It is blowing a great host of "colonizers" from Pennsylvania to New York to purify the ballot box in that dreadful democratic city, and to vote for the protection of American laborers—at $5 a head.

Let all bear in mind that Fred V. Holman will speak to-morrow night at the court house in the interest of Cleveland and Thurman. All come out.

3000 POUNDS.—Wallace & Thompson have just received a fine lot of hams, and lard, the best in the market. Buy them, quick.

Look in our corner show window at the vases we give with one of the best baking powders in the market. No lottery scheme; you simply take your choice.
