LOCAL RECORD.

FROM THE OTHER SIDE.—This is way they are watching for, and anticipating, the Oregon Pacific railroad from the region around Prineville: "If favorable weather continues a few weeks longer, the road will doubtless be completed this fall to a point in the mountains sixty miles this side of Albany. There is no longer a doubt that the whistle of the locomotive will wake the settlers on the Squaw creek side next summer from their slumbers. The work will not be done early enough, however, for the company to carry away our wool crop of next spring. The Dalles will be our store house and supply depot for at least one more season. But after that, as a 7-year old remarked in our hearing the other day 'we'll get our big red apples cheap then from Webfoot.'"

BETTING.—About the silliest campaign argument is a bet. It proves nothing except a fool's willingness to part with his money.—Ex. This is about as true as any thing that ever graced the columns of a newspaper. Of all kinds of gambling betting on elections is not the most righteous, and the fact is nearly everybody bets something. Get mad and can't help it, you know.

INSANE AT SO.—George Bendjen, another old man of eighty years, who has been for some time confined in the Marion county infirmary, was this afternoon adjudged insane by a commission before Judge Shaw and committed to the asylum. He is a British subject. His hallucination causes him to wander about aimlessly.—Journal.

A NEW COUNTY.—We are informed that the citizens of Mitchell, Burnt Ranch, Fossil and other portions of the Bridge creek and John Day settlements intend to ask the legislature to set them apart into a newly organized county. The new county is to be composed of a portion of Grant, Gilliam and Crook. Natural boundaries, such as mountain ranges, streams, etc., will probably mark its line, and not straight line surveys.—News.

FROM JOURDAN.—A. J. Shelton, Jourdan Valley's merchant was in the city yesterday and laid in a stock of dry goods, groceries and hardware. He stated that he could do better by coming here than by going to Portland. Mr. Shelton does quite a business, and buys and sells for cash, setting a good example for merchants generally.

ARRESTS DURING OCT.—During October the following was the record of arrests in the Recorder's Court, in this city: Drunk and disorderly, 11; vagrancy, 17; profane language, 1; keeping laundry on First Street, 1. Total 30. Fines paid, 3; complaint dismissed, 3; discharged, ticket of leave, 7; convicted 17.

A COW.—In the case of Geo. W. Luper against the O & C R R Co., the plaintiff recovered a verdict of $35, the value of a cow killed. Judge Whalley, of Portland, appeared for the Company and Hon. J. K. Weatherford for the plaintiff. Railroads nearly always come out second best in such cases.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of the State against N. L. Blodgett for libel, was taken up this morning, the trial of which has been the only business before the Court. The case was submitted to the jury about 3:30, and a verdict of "guilty" was rendered. Punishment, $100 to $500 or three to six months imprisonment. Prisoner not yet sentenced.

CURIOUS SIGHT.—A DEMOCRAT man in passing Mr. M. Sternburg's residence a day or two ago saw one of Mr. S's children picking red raspberries for dinner, a curious sort of a sight for this season. The boy had his dish nearly full too.

TO-MORROW NIGHT.—Let everybody turn out to-morrow night to hear Hon. Fred V. Holman discuss tariff reform and other issues. Remember, at the Court House.

BORN.—To the wife of J. J. Graham, on Oct. 31st, 1888, a boy. Father hop-ping around joyously.

Fine line of Guns and good stock of Ammunition at Deyoe and Robson's, Special bargains.

Mrs. L. Flinn and son Stephen, arrived home this morning from California. We regret learning that Stephen is much worse.

Go to F. M. French's for your spectacles, and have your eyes tested by one of the finest optometrists manufactured. Each eye fitted separately.

Prof. Roork delivered an address on prohibition last night at the W. C. T. U. Hall to a fair audience. The Prof. hits the nail on the head on the tariff question occasionally.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell, R. R. Commissioner's Secretary, editor of the Roseburg Review, and C. H. Monroe take charge of the Chemeketa Hotel at Salem to-day. They will make things hum.

A new invoice of Premium Savon soap has just been received at F. L. Kenton's direct from the factory in San Francisco. This is a special brand put up for Mr. Kenton, and he warrants it to give satisfaction.

The Youth's Companion will be sent free the remainder of this year to all new subscribers for 1889. F. L. Kenton subscription agent for all the leading newspapers and magazines.

There are 238,156 final entries of land pending in the land office at Washington. As the office can dispose of only 75,000 per annum, it is not strange that it takes five years to secure a patent to land.

Julius Gradwohl is now making a specialty of crockery, fancy goods and silver ware, of which he carries a large and select stock. His silver ware is 1847 Roger Bros. his stock of crockery is the best in the market and his line of dolls and children's play things generally is complete. His prices are the lowest on the coast.

A BOY THIEF.—Marshal Ross returned from Junction City yesterday with Vernon Osborn, the 16 year old boy charged with stealing $70 from the North Salem milkman, G. F. Sherwood. When arrested the boy was engaged in running a skating rink at Junction, in which he had bought an interest with part of the stolen money. He had $10 in gold on his person, the balance of the money having been invested in the rink, a watch, revolver and a suit of clothes.—Statesman.

HARRISBURG.

Fred V. Holman was here to fill his engagement as announced previously and handled his subject (The Tariff) to the entire satisfaction of all present.

Next came M. V. Rork, of Michigan, and addressed the citizens upon the subject of prohibition, and who handled his subject well and also told us how inconsistent and fallacious the present protective tariff system was, and using facts and figures to illustrate with that made the most radical protectionists admit that the manufacturer was and is protected at the expense of the poor working man and woman.

Then came Hon. R. A. Miller, of Jackson Co., who is the last one that has spoken here, but not the least in the estimation of all who were there, and this includes a few republicans who smilingly admitted his position on tariff as correct, judging from the way they looked, and we can truthfully say that Mr. Miller is a man of ability, gentlemanly appearance and a natural orator, and we bespeak for him a great future.

J. H. White lectured here last night, subject, "Cure for Labor Strikes." His impersonations were very good and frequently brought the house down.

Perry Hyde has bought the Albertina Kreisell hardware stock.

County Recorder E. E. Davis was on our streets yesterday.

David Cheery and R. V. Peters, of Eugene City, are on our streets, and we learn that the latter gentleman bought all the barley in the warehouse of Upmeyer & Briggs.

Mr. McHeath and family, recently from Missouri, will soon move into the last vacant house in town.

Why is it that more people go up into the mountains hunting elk during court week than any other time? (Please answer.)

We learn that there will soon be another dry goods store in town.

Our postmaster, J. D. Bennett, made a flying trip to Portland for goods.

Hugh Sherrell will run the hardware store for Perry Hyde.

We hear that there are a number of our citizens that very frequently kill Chinese pheasants. Now boys be careful. Some have already expressed themselves that they would report the first one that killed another pheasant on their farm, and the law is very plain, indeed, and no discretion left with the justice, therefore we advise you to desist.
