WALLACE & THOMPSON'S FAT MAN.

I'm jolly and fat, though I needn't say that; for a glance at my size and a look in my eyes, and you plainly can see there's no flies upon me. I'm a little bit short both of breath and of hair, but from shoulders to knees you can see I'm all there. I smile and I laugh, I joke and I chaff. I refuse to be sad and I never get mad. But you'd never surmise where my happiness lies, so I'll up and confess what you never could guess. A good thing to eat is always a treat, which will make you as sweet as our sugar cured meat, makes you feel so content with the money spent that you're bound to feel glad; and you couldn't get mad though a man just as thin as a rail or a pin was to pull at your nose or tread on your toes. If you're fat or your'e lean, if you're pleasant or mean, just give W. & T. a show to sell you right low, you will feel such a thrill of contentment until you'll wish you were fat to enjoy more of that. For the feeling's show your good sense by buying groceries, provisions and crockery of W & T.

CINDER IN THE EYE.

Nine persons out of ten with a cinder or any foreign substance in the eye will instantly begin to rub the eye with one hand while hunting for their handkerchief with the other. They may, and sometimes do, remove the offending member, but more frequently they rub until the eye becomes inflamed, bind a handkerchief around the head and go to bed. This is all wrong. The better way is not to rub the eye with the cinder in at all, but rub the other eye as vigorously as you like. A few years since I was riding on an engine. The engineer threw open the front window, and I caught a cinder that gave me the most excruciating pain. I began to rub the eye with both hands. "Let your eye alone and rub the other eye," (this from the engineer.) "I know you doctors think you know it all, but if you will let that eye alone and rub the other one the cinder will be out in two minutes," persisted the engineer. I began to rub the eye, and soon I felt the cinder down near the inner canthus, and made ready to take it out. "Let it alone and keep at the well eye," shouted the doctor pro tem. I did so for a minute longer, and looking in a small glass he gave me I found the offender on my cheek. Since then I have tried it many times, and have advised many others, and I have never known it to fail in one instance, unless it was as sharp as a piece of steel or something that cut into the ball and required an operation to remove it.

The shape and placing of the teeth are not without significance in the character given by the mouth. When the upper gum shows above the teeth directly the lips are opened it is a sign of a cold and phlegmatic nature. Short, small teeth are held by the physiognomists to denote weakness and short life, while rather long teeth, if evenly set in the head, denote long life. The more the teeth in point, size, shape and arrangement, approach to those of carnivorous animals, the more violent are the animal instincts in the person; while the more human teeth in shape and position approach to those of the gaminivorous animals, the more placid is the character. White, medium sized and evenly set teeth, which are seen as soon as the mouth is open, but which are entirely exposed—that is, which do not at any time show the gums—are a sign of good and honest natures. Projecting teeth show rapacity; small retreating teeth which are rarely seen unless in laughter, show weakness and want of physical and moral courage. The lower teeth projecting and closing over the upper range are indicative of a harsh nature.

A lady who was afflicted with salt rheum on the face and other parts of the body for many years and who was treated by the best physicians on the Pacific coast without any but temporary relief says, "Datard's Specific has entirely cured me of my troublesome complaint and although I have not used the medicine for many months, I have had no return of the disease. I shall always feel grateful to you." Sold by Foshy & Mason.

Military Change.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—A formal order was issued by the secretary of war to-day, relieving Gen. Schofield, at his own request of the command of the army of the Atlantic, owing to inability to perform the necessary work, in addition to the general command of the army. Gen. Howard is transferred from the division of the Pacific to the division of the Atlantic, Gen. Miles from the department of Arizona to the division of the Pacific, and Col. Grierson, Tenth cavalry, to the department of Arizona.

Held.
SALEM, Or., Nov. 15.—Willard McCune deputy marshal of Sheridan, Yamhill county, who killed James Bewley during the smallpox quarantine last October, and who was rearrested a day or two ago, was given a hearing before Justice Harding of South McMinnville precinct yesterday, and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, upon waiving examination. The community is divided upon the question of his guilt or innocence. At Sheridan and other small towns that enforced the quarantine against McMinnville during the smallpox scare, his action in killing Bewley is considered justifiable, while the contrary opinion is held at McMinnville, where Bewley lived.

Dead Letter's.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The superintendent of the dead letter office, in his annual report, says he received during the year, 6,213,876 pieces of original dead mail matter, an increase of 882,543 piece over last year. Of the number of pieces, located during the year, 749,513 were restored to the owners without opening. In those opened were found money, postal notes and negotiable paper aggregating in value, $1,484,157.50.

Not War.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—It is denied in government circles that the new changes in the organization of the troops in western Russia have a warlike intent. The object of the movement is to develop a defense necessary to preserve the military balance, compared with forces maintained by neighboring powers.

Recognized Leader.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Press says: News comes to this city, in a semi-official way, that Gen. Harrison has determined to invite Blaine to a seat in his cabinet and that that statesman will accept. Of course the state department will be offered him. The reason that has prompted the president-elect to this action, aside from his high regard for Blaine's abilities and experience, is that all his predecessors have invariably tendered the state portfolio to the recognized leader in the party.

W. V.
WHEELING, Nov. 15.—Dispatches this evening by the republican committee lead Chairman Cowden to revise his figures and increase Goff's majority for governor from 76 to 302. The democratic state committee still claim that Fleming is elected as governor by 200 or 300 majority, but furnish no figures.

Five Witnesses Lynched.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—A special to the Post Dispatch this morning from Christian county, the home of the famous Bald Anobber king, Dave Walker, is to the effect that five of the witnesses who testified against him in his trial for murder have been lynched by ex-Bald Knobbers.

INDEPENDENCE, Oregon, Dec. 13.
Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About three months ago we were induced to try a package of the Oregon Kidney Tea which has apparently entirely cured both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it.
