

MONDAY. A LEG OFF.

An Itinerant Fortune Teller Run Over by the Cars.

Shasta Leo Daniel, an itinerant hypnotist, fortune teller and slight-of-hand performer, from Napa, Calif., and Chas. Berry, of this city, yesterday noon went to the depot to go to Eugene. It was their intention to ride on the freight train, and for the purpose while the south bound was switching started to board a lumber car while in motion.

Daniels is a man about thirty-five years of age, he is the son of A. H. Daniels, of Napa Calif., and has a sister Mrs. Jas. Young, who is a resident of Hillsboro, in this state. Daniels is an odd genius who travels over the country telling fortunes, hypnotizing people or almost anything that will bring in a few dimes.

Daniels was getting along this afternoon as well as could be expected. He declared that he was a very sick man, but it is thought he will pull through. His right leg as well as the left leg was mashed some but not seriously. His father in Napa has been notified of his son's condition.

Don't Miss Him.—Governor "Bob" Taylor is indorsed by all who have heard him as the most magnetic lecturer and entertainer on the platform today. He has scattered more sunshine and created more laughter among the music-loving people than any man who has ever graced the platform within the memory of this generation.

THE MAY FESTIVAL.—The Corvallis Choral Society has united with the Willamette Valley Choral Union for the musical jubilee, to be held in Salem May 9th, 10th and 11th.

POSTPONEMENT.—The social to have been given by The Ladies Industrial Society of the Congregational Church on April 27th is postponed until Monday evening April 30th.

"Bread on the Waters"—Mr. Butts, (Will Stone) the village constable, the noted thief taker, the terror of all evil doers—"The law must be respected." Catches a tartar—puts his foot in his own trap.

The street sprinkler began this morning somewhat earlier than usual. The indications are that it will be needed much more than last year.

A live demand for houses in the city continues. Idle capital might well be invested in residences suitable for renters, the demand for which promises to continue.

The Linn County Pioneer's reunion, one of the most popular annual gatherings held in the county, will be in Brownsville, June 20, 21 and 22. Gov. Geer is down as one of the speakers.

There will be a big pipe organ recital at the M. E. church in Eugene on April 30, with Edgar E. Conner of Portland as the performer. This recital will introduce Eugene's new and only pipe organ to the public.

The early closing agreement has been amended so that now the stores of W. S. Stevens and the Furniture companies will close at 6:30, the drug stores and barber shops at 8 o'clock and the other stores at 7:30 o'clock.

One of the most popular amateur plays for many years has been Bread on the Waters. The Man about Town did Butts, the constable, in it, over 20 years ago. It is full of fun from beginning to end. Next Friday it will be given at the A. O. U. W. hall by local talent and there should be a big house to witness it.

An Oregon City paper gives an account of the reconciliation of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Groves of this city. A divorce suit was in progress at that city when the attorneys Senator Kelley and R. A. Miller succeeded in securing a reconciliation and Mr. and Mrs. Groves are again residing together in this city.

Rev. Edward Davis, who was in Albany twice several years ago, has again come before the public on account of an action for divorce by his wife, who has decided to return to the stage. The cause given is failure to support her properly. The Examiner publishes several of his letters to her, as loveless affairs as one ever read even in a loveless novel.

The United Evangelical conference recently held in Hillsboro, will be held in Corvallis in April next year. Bishop Dubba was in attendance at Hillsboro, and will preach in Albany next Saturday evening. He is one of the best known and ablest men in the church.

ON THE RIVER.—The government snag boat Multnomah, which has been navigating the river between Corvallis and Harrisburg, removing the festive snag from its resting place in the bed of the river, where it is wont to cause the ambitious steamer much trouble in its attempt to go higher up the stream, arrived in Albany this afternoon, lighting in the neighborhood of the O. R. & N. wharf. The river is said to be in good condition above here now. In the meantime, though the steamer Eugene, has been fixed over and will be used as a stern wheel barge below Portland, and few of the other steamers care to attempt the trip except under very favorable circumstances.

Miss Ida Maxwell, formerly of the Albany schools was in the city today. Dr. A. J. Hallinger, of Portland, formerly of Lebanon, has been in the city. Mr. Horace McKinley, the well known timber land cruiser, has been in the city. Mr. George Anderson and family left this morning for The Dalles to reside. Mrs. E. M. Lance, nee Miss Miller, of Portland, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Dabruille.

The Toledo Leader refers to a well-known mail clerk as Colonel J. H. Penn the young and handsome postual clerk. After his address last Saturday evening Rev. W. E. Copeland was given a reception at the church that was a very pleasant affair.

Invitations are out for a Dewey dance at the Maerabee hall on May 1. It will be under the supervision of H. J. Hopkins. Mrs. A. J. Shelton, of Arlington, formerly of this county, is in the city on a visit with her brother Mr. Hub Bryant and sister Mrs. A. T. McCully.

Mr. H. J. Moore, of Benton county who has been in Portland during the winter cooking, was in the city today, having been home on a visit. Jos Hutchinson, the barber, is at his chair again after a live contest with some poison oak, wasted into his face while walking through the cemetery.

Mr. W. B. Lawler, the well-known miner, left today for Nevada, where he will take charge of the mining properties which he purchased there several months ago. W. J. Carthy, the Lebanon banker was in the city Saturday evening. Mr. Carthy is an old friend of Ex-Governor Bob Taylor, who will deliver an address in this city next Saturday evening.

Frank Jack and wife of Ft. Canby, where Mr. Jack is a member of the regiment stationed there, arrived in Albany Saturday night on a visit and are the guests of County Treasurer Jack. Mrs. R. E. Rands, of this city, will leave this week for Sacramento, California, where she will attend the street fair, about to be opened in that city. She will be gone several weeks.—Statesman.

The Misses Henton left this morning for their future home in Portland accompanied by their aunt Mrs. Stacks, of Chicago, who will return to her home after a few days visit in Portland. A good many friends were at the boat to see them off.

Mrs. Frank Froman received a letter from Mr. Froman Sunday, dated March 25th. The letter stated that they arrived at Kodiak March 25th; there they left the steamer St. Paul and took a steam launch around the inlet for land, from there they will make the rest of their journey to Nome with dog sleds.

Different reports come from the county in reference to the amount of damage done by the frosts. The average report indicates that very little damage has been done to some of the prunes, a needed thinning out, while to others the damage is considerable. Altogether there will be a fair crop. The outlook is far better than last year.

Captain and Mrs. R. Kuhn, officers of the local station Army corps, have received orders to leave Salem on May 1st for San Francisco, where work will be assigned them. They will leave on that date. On next Saturday evening a farewell musical reception will be tendered the retiring officers at the Army hall. The best wishes of Salem's religious people will follow Captain and Mrs. Kuhn to their new sphere of action.—Statesman.

Wm F. Dugan, popularly known as "Billy," left for Portland yesterday morning, whence he started for his home in San Francisco last night. "Billy" spent the past week in this city visiting friends, and when the time came for his departure, he expressed his deep regret at being compelled to go, stating at the same time that he hoped to return to Salem ere long to locate here for the remainder of his life.—Statesman. Dugan will be remembered as one of the old time firemen who used to play a prominent part in all the tournaments. He has many friends in Albany who will hope to see him return to Oregon for good.

C. O. Lee will take charge of the Albany delivery business Tuesday, May 1. He has improved the plant and will give the business his personal supervision. Bob Winders, (Neil Murry) fat and awkward, thinks himself the unluckiest fellow in the world, in love with Lucy and afraid Fred will win her. "Just my luck."

Several young men who took up claims in the southern part of the county have proven up on them and given the customary mortgage to cover costs, thirteen mortgages having just been filed. N. H. Wheeler was doing business in Salem yesterday. Grandmaster J. K. Weatherford, I. O. O. F. will meet with the Eugene lodge tonight.

Editor Ira A. Phelps, of the Scio News, was doing business in Albany today. An anxious subscriber wishes to know what ragtime means. Just simply ragged time, the kind you cake walk after. The union candidates and central committee are in the city today making arrangements for the coming campaign. The first baseball game of the season was played at Chems on Saturday. The game was between Mount Angel College and Chemawa Indian School, resulting in favor of the Chemawa Indian School by a score of 23 to 1. Graham struck out 13 men, while Hunt retired 8. The Dr. Myers & Co's staff of physicians and surgeons finished their work in Albany after several days spent here, in which they gave some very pointed lectures forcibly illustrated. They will be in the city once a month during the coming year.

TUESDAY.

College Notes.

The term reports were issued yesterday. The April number of the College Student has been issued. Several improvements are being made on the campus. Our Y. M. C. A. will probably send a delegate to the Pacific Coast Conference to be held at the Pacific Grove, Cal.

Several students went to Corvallis Sunday to hold a joint meeting with the Y. M. C. A. of the U. A. C. O. The editors of the Student announce that they will issue an exceptionally large commencement number this year. The Y. W. C. A. have selected the following delegates to the state convention at Eugene: Misses E. Van Derk, B. Merrill, L. Francis, G. Newell, J. Cook, J. McKee, M. Fosny, S. and W. Munkers and A. Will-on.

Our athletic association has received assurance that they will be permitted to enter the Intercollegiate Athletic Association whenever they apply. It is too late to organize a track team this year so they will not enter until next year.

Across the Willamette.

On Friday and Saturday of next week a union teachers institute will be held in the Grange hall just across the Willamette, which promises to be largely attended by Albany teachers and others. On Friday evening Prof. T. J. Risley will deliver the address of welcome and Superintendent Denman an address. There will be music by Mr. and Mrs. E. Small and recitations by Maud Hughes and Anna McKinney.

On Saturday forenoon educational subjects will be treated by Prof. H. C. Jordan, Mr. Arthur Leavens, Prof. Cordley and Miss Lottie Herbert, with music led by Prof. W. A. Gino. A lunch and social between sessions. In the afternoon there will be papers and addresses by Superintendent McDonald, Miss Nettie Whitney, Miss Retta Stuart, Mrs. W. B. Shannon and Prof. Martindale, a recitation by Miss Grace Stafford and music.

Gov. Bob Taylor.

"No effort at word-painting could possibly attain a sublimer height."—New Orleans Picayune. "The graduations of his lecture were beautifully illustrated with the most amusing anecdotes told in an inimitable fashion."—New Orleans Times-Democrat. "There is no other man who would attempt such daring departures from the conventional as Bob Taylor makes with such distinguished success."—Memphis Commercial. At the Armory next Saturday night.

CROP PROSPECTS.—Hon. J. H. Scott, of Lebanon, has made the following report to the weather bureau for this county: Fall grain is looking fine, although the acreage is small. Little spring grain has been sown up to this time, as cloudy and showery weather has prevented the ground from drying. Fruit prospects are excellent. Cherries and prunes are setting on the trees nicely, while apples and other late fruit are now in full bloom. Frosts did no perceptible damage.

CYCLONE DAVIS.—Hon. J. H. Davis, of Texas, one of the most eloquent speakers west of the Mississippi, will speak in Scio next Friday afternoon, and at the court house in Albany, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Hear him.

DIED AT BROWNSVILLE.—W. O. Baird, a pioneer of 1853, died at Brownsville, yesterday. Five daughters and one son survive him out of ten children born, one of the daughters being the wife of Sheriff Blakeley of Pendleton. He leaves an excellent record.

HOME FORUM.—The Home Forum meets tonight. All members are requested to be present. A social will be given after the lodge session consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, speeches and a general good time. Be sure and be there. H. J. Hopkins, President.

Leo Daniels, the victim of Sunday's accident at the depot continues to survive the accident. He is addicted to the use of morphine. When out of it he also gets out of his head somewhat, and tells his attendant that he will be a dead man when he returns. His remaining foot is causing him some trouble. His prospects for living are about even with the chances for drawing.

Daily Lillian Crawford's adopted daughter of Dr. Harlow anxious to find her relatives but surprised when she succeeded. "But I don't want any grandpa." The spirit of the play, the torment of Mr. Butts and the old doctors support in trouble.

Capt. Heath, of McMinnville returned to his mines up the Mohawk today, coming from McMinnville here on his bicycle.

Example of Fidelity.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: The most beautiful example of party fidelity that has ever been presented to the public hereabouts, is that which appeared in the Herald this morning when the editor in the most open and candid way says that Tongue has done the state excellent service and being on the river and harbor committee will be able to continue that service. Let us see. As a river and harbor man he utterly failed to secure an appropriation for Yacquina harbor last session and it is a foregone conclusion that he has failed this year. Now Hermann always succeeded in securing these appropriations whether he was on the river and harbor committee or not, and notwithstanding this Tongue's friends came before the Albany convention four years ago and said Hermann's services to the state had not been as valuable as they should be, and hence, they said, there should be a change. Well the change was made and since then no appropriation can be secured for the Yacquina harbor, though it is quite easy to secure appropriations for the mouth of the Columbia river and for a hundred thousand dollar post office at Salem. And yet the Herald is satisfied with this service. Could party fealty be greater? Could party zeal be more intense? Could blind devotion be more subservient? But all the republicans in Linn, Lane, Benton and Lincoln counties are not so filled with blind party zeal as the Herald man is as will be shown when the votes are counted in June. Hon. B. Daly will be the recipient of many republicans who are thoroughly disgusted with Tongue. AMERICAN.

The steamer Albany has been engaged to deliver ties for the C. N. & O. Co. up the Columbia. Yesterday afternoon at Salem Judge Boile rendered another decision setting aside a tax deed to J. H. Marley. Joseph McMullin, the ossified man, who was in Albany about a year ago, died yesterday at Champaign, Ill. A lady has been in the city showing the virtues of Shredded Biscuits, something new and palatable. The yard in front of the S. P. depot is being filled in with gravel, which will be covered with granite sand, making it one of the best railroading yards in the state.

Remember the drama at the A. O. U. W. hall Friday evening. Good music by the orchestra and a live play full of amusing situations. Admission 25 cts. Mrs. Dr. Winnard received a despatch this afternoon from Whitewater, Wis., announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Goodman. She was about fifty-five years of age and had been an invalid for a number of years. These are a report of a party near Cosburg who are using Denny pheasant eggs on their table. This is liable to prove expensive luxuries if the parties are detected. This party is well known and he had better "heavilate."—Guard.

New patents: G. W. Cleland, Little Rock, Wash., nut-lock; F. S. Gunning, Dalles, Oreg., weeding machine; W. B. Tacoma, Wash., tobacco pipe; A. J. King, Oreg., Wash., fire escape; W. MacFarlane, Seattle, Wash., pipe boiler. The Herald in writing up Lawyer Whitney this morning says that he was elected county judge and the next year he was defeated in the election. As he served the county four years this is about as good figuring as the prediction that he will be defeated this year because the alternate year.

The democratic central committee finished their work yesterday afternoon by the nomination of Judge J. J. Whitney for representative in place of Mr. Mark Peery, of Scio, who resigned. Judge Whitney made a splendid record in the last legislature which the people of the county will endorse by re-electing him. The most popular books in New York city the past month, as indicated by the number sold and called for at the libraries, were I Love and to Hold, first, Red Potage, The Light of Scathary, Richard Carvel, Janice Meredith, A Gentleman from Indiana, When Knighthood Was in Flower, The Market Place, etc.

There are three nominees for state offices who failed to comply with the law entitling them to places on the official ballot. F. C. Young, middle-of-the-road populist, candidate for congress from the second district, W. H. Ramsey, democratic-populist, and H. E. Courtney, middle-of-the-road populist, both nominees for supreme judge. Saturday was the last day on which acceptances could be filed. The names of these three men appear upon the official ballot they must be placed there by petition.

Mr. Henry Jordan, agent for the Mason Play, was registered at the Revere House today. Mrs. Frank Churchill of Roseburg is in the city the guest of her parents Rev. and Mrs. Smick. George Drake, a former Albany boot black has returned to the city, and is employed at the Combination barber shop and has hold of the brushes. A stated communication of Barzillai Chapter No. 16 O. E. S. will be held in the Masonic Hall Tuesday evening April 24, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be work in the degrees.

Mr. Edwin D. Walden arrived in Albany last night from Vevay, Ind., on a visit with his brother Mr. H. L. Walden of the C. & E. He may decide to locate here. Word was received from Portland Monday to the effect that Thomas Kay's condition had changed for the worse. Mrs. Kay goes down on this afternoon's train. All will hope that present fears for Mr. Kay will prove groundless.—Express Journal.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Register now. Don't wait until the 15th of May. When it will be too late. The executive committee of the board of regents of the O. A. U. was to meet at Corvallis this afternoon to elect a successor to Prof. Shaw who will retire at the end of the school year. The report from Portland is that Thos. Kay, upon whom an operation was performed several days ago, can live only a short time. His family are at his bedside. Capt. M. D. Phillips has sold the Call route in this city to Fred Hargreaves, a student of the college, and the post of the second regiment, who has also been appointed transfer messenger for Wells & Fargo at the depot. Albany needs a hospital bld. A move is on foot to establish one. It should be helped along, and it is to be hoped there is no cessation until one is secured for the city. Albany's location is first class for a good sized hospital. Linn County is not paying many bounties these days, but it will pay Mr. George M. Clark, of Laconia, one willingly for a cougar scalp which he has. He succeeded in shooting a six foot animal which had been the terror of the school children and farmers of the community. The early closing movement is giving the merchants and their clerks time for recreation they so much need and it is to be hoped becomes a permanent affair. Those having the interests of men in business should support it. It is not affecting business at all. Practically all the trading is done before 7:30 o'clock. The Socialist Club has rented the Universalist church and will meet in it every Wednesday evening. Tonight the subject will be "Socialism and the Criminal Classes," led by A. D. Hale. The club is not political, but simply aims to discuss social, political and economic questions in a non-political way. Messrs. Froman, Warner, Goddard, Hackleman, Wait and Miller spent all of last night on Deal River, about four miles up the Willamette in Benton county, angling for catfish. They caught about two hundred altogether, Miller leading with a record of eighty-seven. They had fun enough for one night. It is probable that there will be no one placed on the union ticket for supreme judge. This is a compliment to Judge Weyerston, whose judicial record is an excellent one. He is by far the best man on the bench, but a change should be made in two years, when it would be only just to elect a democrat, that the bench might be non-partisan.

Worse than War. His Irish are killed by war, but hundred of thousands are killed by consumption. There would be no deaths at all caused by this terrible disease, if people could be made to understand that Shihoh's Cough and Consumption Cure is a sure remedy if taken in the early stages. 25 cts, 50 cts, and $1.00 a bottle. Druggists will refund the money if a cure is not effected. For sale by Fred Dawson. Giant Mush 3 lbs. for 10c., is very fine C. E. BROWNELL

From the E. A.: Rev. G. W. Grannis, of Salem, addressed a large audience in the Band hall last evening in the interest of the United Artisans. Mrs. D. M. Davenport and Mrs. O. E. Pugh were given a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Pugh last Friday evening in honor of their birthdays, which are in the same date. M. D. Wheeler and R. W. Fisher left this morning for Coos and Curry counties, where they go for the purpose of buying a lot of sheep. They will be gone a month or more. Dr. H. J. Young died at 11:30 p. m. last night at the home of his son, U. H. Young, in this city, after a protracted illness. Deceased was born in Rochester, Vt., in 1830. The Florence (Oolo.) Tribune of April 19th contains an extended write-up of a murder trial in that city. The defendant's counsel, McLain & Wilkes, receive a very favorable mention for their able defense, "scoring a most brilliant victory." Wilkes is a former well-known young man of this county.
