There is a good deal of complaint of cut worms. Ed Davidson, an expert, says they are eating everything, not sparing even the beets. If they would cut out a few dead beats in the valley they would be somewhat of a blessing. O. H. Markham, of the S. P., continues to have a level head. He has issued an offer, in order to encourage the exhibits at the state fair this fall, to convey on the S. P. all articles for exhibition free. This should prove an incentive to a larger display so much needed.
