There if only one way to bust the Vote for Bryan.

Teddy Roosevelt is proving a veritable white elephant. It is to be hoped that be be kept in the field until election. He is a vote maker—for Bryan.

From Dowb Animals.

War is always hell, and in nine cases out of ten is also murder. No punishment in this world can be too great for those who cause unnecessary war.

As tending to show which way the po ities) winds are blowing the attention of ne resilers of the DEMOCRAT is called to te tollowing .

A canyass of the compositors to the New York Herald office Tuesday night recolted; Bryan, 106; McKinley, 16; Wool tey, 1; undecided, S. Four years lago about this time a similar canvass practically among the same men resulted McKinby, 64; Brynn, .

U.S. Land Commissioner Hermann Corvallis referred to Bryan's remark hat the republican tuity puts dollar before the man by declaring that he republican administration in the last our years has put more dollars before the man than he ever saw before, dollars that are worth, 100 cents. The men th dollars have been before, are mostly J. D. Rockefeller and his brother Standard Oil stockholders, before whom in the last four years considerably more than $100,000,000 has been put by the republican trust system ; Andrew Carnegie before whom the republican administra tion has put through their trust rule over $75,000,000 and others, as Mr. Herman says, more than they ever saw beore, and in the same 16 to I dollars the zepublican administration is now coining and has been coining for several generations. Mr. Hermann who used to make gome remarkably good free silver speeches, having made his speech according to the instructions of Mark Hanna can now go back to Washington to face the man who gave him his fat office and who also used to make some excellent free silver

It looks to the DEMOCRAT very much as at President McKiptey left more out of his message than he put in, as much as he included in reference to imperialism and money. The former he tries to evade, the latter he settles directly in favor of the single gold stanard, and does not even promise international bimetallism if possible as he did four years ago, He leaves out the trust and monopoly questions so vital to the interests of the masses. In reference to the Filipines he presents only two possibilities, to either hold the Philippines or turn them back hold the Philippines or turn them back to the Spaniards, not mentioning the Huckstep was a bright and industrious proper and right solution of the problem boy and quite large for his age. proper and right solution of the problem that of turning them over to the Fillipinos themselves, under the protection of the United States. He neglects the Sultan of Sulu, with his polygamy and slavery. His explanations of the Philippine war are purely partizan and not told with the intention of giving the truthful situation but simply to make politics, and he fails to sufficiently excuse the rating of the Islands outside of the constitution. In fact he makes an awful mesof the Philippine war presenting an unchristian argument in excuse of his position. The President has a good many things undone to answer for.

A Big Blow.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:

The Herald on Sunday morning published the statement that there were fifty or sixty republicans went to Corvallis Saturday night from this city to hear Hermann speak. Now the truth is there were just eight persons outside the band. The only hope for a sinking be misrepresentation. The truth is that a majority of republicans are very lukewarm towards Mc-FIDES.

Mr. DeRock, the diver who blew the rock out of Yaquina went to Portland this afternoon.

Mrs. A. B. Slauson and daughter Ruth left this afternoon for their home in Washington, D. C.

Prof. Helen Crawford returned to Cor-vallis vesterday to resume her work in the O. A. U.

Senator Fairchild of Indiana passed through Albany today and will speak in Portland tonight.

Mr. Robert Wiley, of Crook county, mas been in the city with some cattle for the valley markets.

Mrs. I C. Fowlie, of Arlington, Or., is in the county on a visit the guest of her father Mr. P. F. Altermatt and sieter, Mrs. L. B. Payne.

Miss Dora Kirk, who has been work-ing in the Revere House for the past year or two, left today on a visit with her parents at Brownsvile, and thence to Portland on a visit with her sister

Tue State Fain opened with poor weather and of course a slim attendance, weather and of course a slim attendance, as people will not go on a wet day. Then also there is rarely pruch of a crowd the first day. The exhibit is better than most years. In stock particularly the showing is a magnificent one. Several races were had in the afternoon. The 2:25 trot was won by Johnson's Sunnes, best time 2:28. Robert H. owned by Robert Huston of Corvallis, won the pare, best time 2:43\(\frac{1}{2}\). Moser's Katilieeu won the 2 year old trot, best time 2:33.

Market Notes.

From the Oregon Agriculturalist:

Strictly fresh ranch eggs are worth 23 to 25 cents per dozen at Seattle.

In Morrow county, Oregon, lambs are selling at $2 per, head and ewes at $3 per least.

The quotation for butter at Scattle is 26 cents per pound for state creamery, and 24 and 25 cents for eastern.

and 74 and 25 cents for easiern.

A car of Idano prunes sold at Pitts burg, August 31, at 75 to 95 cents er crate for Italians; 75 to 85 cents for Hungarians. Cattle are selling in Klamath county, Oregon, at $35 per head as they run, and 5 to 6% cents per pound of estimated dressed weight.

The Ayers Cattle Company, of Grant county, Oregon, recently sold 135 head of two and three-year-old liters to C. P. Bowman at 3½ cents.

A number of Clackamss county farmers have sold their hay at $11 per ton delivered at the nearest railroad station. This was first class timothy.

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter of September 6 reported little life in the wool market. Oregon wools were quiet and featureless with nothing to report.

The Ashland Tidings reports the purchase of 400 head of cattle from Emigrant Creek stockmen at 3½ cents per pound, to be delivered at Ashland September 20.

Choice and select fresh eggs are higher at San Francisco and are expected to rule still higher soon. The quotation for fresh range from 23 to 28 cents per dozen. The San Francisco market for potatoes have improved a little and it appears probable that Oregon Burbanks will bring satisfactory prices there again this season.

Eight hundred head of cattle were recently sold in Grant county, Oregon, to the Pacific Meat Company, of Facoma. The price for steers was 8½ cents and for dry cows 3 cents. The stock was deliv-ared at Pacific Company. lry cows 3 cents. ered at Peadleton.

The Journal says of the state fair:
The county exhibits are developing handsomely, and Marion county will not have a walk over. In fact Linn county has laid herself out to capture the prize out of the half dozen counties exhibiting. The Agricultural College, as usual, has a grand display of grains, fruits, plants and vegetables.

JUNCTION CITY, Or ., Sept. 17 .- Yesterday afternoon, at the Spaugh hop yard near Lancaster, four miles north of here, near Lancaster, four miles north of here, Joe Huckstep, a boy 16 years of age, was accidentally shot in the left side with a shot gun and died at 2 o'clock this morning. At the time of the accident he was sitting in the buggy with his father and mother and a little boy. They had been picking hops and had started for Harrisburg. The boys parents have no idea of how the gun hap pened to be discharged. They say the muzzle of the gun could not have been over 12 inches from the boy when it went off, making a great hole in his over 12 inches from the boy when it went off, making a great hole in his Joe
