Standard Oil Politics.

Four years ago, when the Democratic candidate, Wm. J. Bryan, came to New York in the course of a campaign which ended in his receiving the votes of 6,522, 925 of his fellow citizens, the overzealous officials of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad hastened to show their sense of courtesy by hanging a McKinley banner over the doorway of the Hoboken station through which Mr. Bryan passed.

A similar exhibition of corporation hoodlumism, in this campaign has been given by the Ohio River Railroad—a Standard Oil corporation—in its refusal to attach Mr. Bryan's special car to its express train from Parkersburg to Wheeling, in West Virginia.

As Mr. Bryan was permitted to purchase his ticket and reach his destination by the regular train, no harm was done—except to the unmannerly corporation. The Americans are a polite people and expect courtesy to be shown even to the other side in politics in the heat of a campaign. Just how many votes to Mr. Bryan this Standard Oil discourtesy will be worth, in West Virginia and elsewhere it is not possible to know but it will be a good many.—World.

Mr. Bryan says:

You can stand one trust, you can stand a dozen trusts, but trusts may get to numerous that you cannot stand them. Put the leach on an able-bodied man and let it draw all the blood it wants and the man will still live; but you cover him with leeches from head to foot and let them all draw blood, and he will want to take something for the leach habit. (Laughter and applause.)

Now, the trust question must be discussed from the standpoint of the principle involved. Do not say that there are good trusts and bad trusts.

You might as well say there are good Kings and bad Kings, and thus defend a monarchy. I care not whether a King be good or bad, I hate a King. (Great applause and cheers.) I care not whether those who stand at the head of trusts are personally lovable or personally detestable, I hate the system of private monopoly, no matter where you find it (applause), and if you are going to strike at monopoly you have got to strike at the principle of monopoly.

You cannot simply try to keep the bad ones from being worse, but I say if you are going to stop monopoly you have got to strike at the root of it, and you have got to take the stand that any monopoly in private hands is indefensible and intolerable. There is where I draw the line between a legitimate association of capital and an illegitimate combination. Whenever men attempt to control the output and the price, then they enter upon dangerous ground.

You cannot tolerate a monopoly, for the tendency to monopoly is necessarily to gather the wealth of the country into fewer and fewer hands; the necessary tendency of monopoly is to amass great fortunes in the hands of few and to distribute increasing distress among the many.

Mr. Bryan urged particularly on the audience his belief that such monopoly meant the closing of the door of opportunity before the young men.

Mr. Bryan takes a liberal position on the subject of pensions. He says:

The party expresses its pride in the soldiers and sailors of all our wars, and declares its purpose to deal generously with them and their dependents. A liberal policy is natural and necessary in a government which depends upon a citizen soldiery, instead of a large standing Army. Self-interest as well as gratitude compels the Government to make bountiful provision for those who, in the hour of danger and at the great sacrifice of business, health and life, tender their services to their country.

The pension laws should be constructed according to the generous spirit which prompted their passage.

The democratic party makes no war upon honestly acquired wealth; neither does it seek to embarrass corporations engaged in legitimate business; but it does protest against corporations entering politics and attempting to assume control of the instrumentalities of government. A corporation is not organized for political purposes and should be compelled to confine itself to the business described in its charter. Honest corporations engaged in an honest business will find it to their advantage to aid in the enactment of such legislation as will protect them from the undeserved odium which will be brought upon them by those corporations which enter the political arena.—W. J. Bryan.

SILVER PLATING.—J. Senger, of this county, is at C. E. Brownell's store where he is prepared to do the celebrated Royal Silver Plating in a first class manner. Old spoons, knives and forks, and other ware made as good as new. For a reasonable price your ware can be placed in splendid condition.

The Democrat may have seen Mr. Senger's work and takes pleasure in recommending it to the public.

A FINE GUN.—The DEMOCRAT office has just received direct from the factory a take down repeating shot gun, model 1897, one of the finest guns ever made, sure death to Chinese pheasants in season. It is for sale to some one who appreciates a good thing.

Lebanon.

From the E. A.:

Z. H. Rudd, of Albany, visited in Lebanon over Sunday.

Miss Sue Brackenridge, of Albany, is visiting her sister in this city.

Rev. C. G. Harmon and family will move from Dallas, Or., to Watsburg, Wash., this week.

Miss Minnie and Ebert Thompson have concluded to attend the state university instead of McMinville college. They left this morning for Eugene. Mr. Thompson went up with them to spend a day or two.

A petition is being circulated asking the city council to release the bondsmen of City Treasurer Rice. The city treasurer had about $500 of city funds deposited with the Lebanon Banking company, which failed a few months ago. The bondsmen are J. G. Reed and J. Nichols.

The S. A. War.

LOURENCO MARQUES, Sept. 18.—Fighting is proceeding at Komatiport. All the available men have been sent to the frontier. It is expected that the Komatiport bridge will be destroyed. There is great uneasiness here.

FOUR HORSES.—Bob Huston steps high. He owns a two-year-old colt, and at the State Fair Monday the animal knocked out all comers in the pacing race. The contest was two best in three, mile heats. The first two heats were taken easily by Mr. Huston's colt, named by the way, Robert H. Four prizes were offered, and but two other colts were entered, so that the winner took both first and fourth money. The aggregate was something over $200. One of the contestants was Seattle Chief, a two-year old with an ancient lineage, but not enough wind or stride to lay out Robert H. The latter is out of Mr. Huston's well known mare, and the sire is Coeur d'Alene.—Corvallis Times.

ADJOURNED.—The meeting of the Prohibitionists of the city to nominate a city ticket was adjourned on account of the lecture at the College to meet next Monday evening, Sept. 24th, at 8 o'clock at the W. C. T. U. hall. The friends of the cause of Prohibition are earnestly invited and urged to attend. By order of the Albany Prohibition Club.

He Loves Me—?

The dainty flower oracle may tell her true or false, but some day the prince will come and she'll dream the dear dream of home life and motherhood. In that dream she will see herself always happy, always with a smile for the husband and a kiss for the baby. What a pity to wake from such a dream,—to almost loathe her husband and hate her child, because cruel pain has blighted her body and warped her mind. How many a woman has had this sad awakening from her dreams of home and love! There's help and healing for every woman who suffers from womanly diseases, caused by girlish ignorance, wisely neglect or the strain of maternity. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It heals diseases of the delicate organs, practically does away with the pains of maternity and gives the nursing mother vigor and vitality.

"Two years ago," writes Mrs. Kattie Auliker, of 24 1/2 First Street, Alliance, Ohio, "I used two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and in April a nice baby was born, before the doctor came. I was not very sick. Baby is now fourteen months old and weighs 30 pounds. Before commencing Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I had to vomit every day but after I got the medicine, from the first moment that I took, I stopped vomiting. It is a God-send for women."

When a laxative is needed, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with "Favorite Prescription."

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure—manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pill's are the best.

OSTEOPATHY.

Definition.

Osteopathy is the science of treating disease manually by the adjustment of all parts and organs to their natural relation with each other, thus removing the irritations resulting from their abnormal relation, and removing obstruction to the vital forces and fluids of the body; and by stimulating mechanically all organs to their proper function or inhibiting abnormally active processes or movements of portions of the bodily organism. It, therefore, must have for its foundations a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of human anatomy and physiology, and of the normal and abnormal action and metabolism of all parts of the bodily mechanism.

Illustrations.

Osteopathy recognizes in man a most perfect and intricate, and to a certain extent, self-recuperating machine, which with every part or organ in its proper position and relation with every other part will run smoothly and perfectly; and that after replacement of parts displaced by accident, or any of the various forces incident to its surrounding and movements, a restoration of function and health will supervene. All recognize these conditions in the infinitely less complex time piece, driven by a spring of human make; why do we see them also in the mechanical body, different only in that it has driven by the God-given spring of force, called life?

Diseases.

Treated successfully by Osteopathy, Nervous, resulting in headache, Insomnia, Loss of Appetite, Loss of Flesh, Constipation in its worst forms, stomach and liver troubles, many kidney disorders, consumption in its first stages, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Female diseases, painful suppressed, and increased Meneses. The results in these troubles alone are sufficient to recommend the treatment to all suffering women. Rheumatism in all its forms, eye troubles, give excellent results, lumbago, curvature of spine, etc.
