Start in fresh but don't be fresh. Put a spike in your new resolutions, Love your fellow man; don't split hairs on technicalities. Don't wait until tomorrow to make a good resolution. Any way, whatever else you do, drop the nasty little coffin nails. Now is a good time to see the beam in your own eye. Make 1900 a year of rustle. Forgive and forget. Don't be a clam. Don't be a stagnant stream. Keep moving. Life is a bowling game. There are ups and downs, strikes, spares and goose-eggs.

The New York World.

The presidential campaign is over but the world goes on just the same and it is full of news. To learn this news, just as it is—promptly and impartially—all that you have to do is to look in the columns of The Price-a-Week Edition of The New York World which comes to the subscriber 158 times a year.

A DEER JOKE.—Hon. Wallis Nash, of Nashville, recently sent a pet deer by express to some eastern park or zoo. At Philomath some was informed an ardent hunter who owns an ardent deer-hound that a deer had been seen near the depot and also pointed out the direction taken by the animal. The hunter started out with his dog, but couldn't get him to take the trail. This so "fried" the hunter that only the soothing language of a friend saved the dog's life.

Mrs. A. M. Talt, Agent for Magdeburg Fire Insurance Company has paid to Albany Brewing Company, full amount claimed for fire of Dec. 19th. This loss being settled in ten days from date of fire.

The Portland Telegram devotes a whole page to bowling. It is a great game in the club there, being confined mostly to them now. Out of a large number of bowlers there were only a few with an average of 40 in a sixteen game contest. Craft lead with the remarkable average of 49.

A New Time Table.

Beginning at 8 o'clock tonight a new time table will go into effect on the Southern Pacific, one though not affecting traffic materially. The north bound afternoon train which leaves San Francisco rather too early to secure its share of passengers will leave there an hour later in the forenoon, which will bring the train to Albany at 3:40 p. m., leaving at 4 o'clock. This is the only change on the main line. On the Lebanon branch the afternoon train will wait for the overland and leave Albany at 3:45. A train will begin running on the Wendling branch not yet ballasted and make slow time, leaving Springfield at 9 a. m., reaching Wendling at 10:45. Leave Wendling at 4 p. m., and arrive at Springfield at 5:45. This is practically an Albany train, freight over it coming to this city for transfer to the main line.

C and G Companies.

C Company, of Eugene, and G Company, of Albany, were in a desperate struggle at press time on the hard ground of Albany College campus this cold afternoon making their second fight for touchdowns and goals. The Eugene boys were met on the train by the Albany Band and G Co., and being already for the game were taken immediately to the field, where the lively gridiron contest began.

The Albany line-up consisted of C. Stewart, Klum, Dickinson, Powell, Dunn, Steinhacher, and Hartsock in the line, Coates at quarterback, Saltmarsh and Alexander at half, and Ed Stewart at full.

At press time neither side had scored and the half was nearly over.

A Wonderful Meeting.

There were 19 additions last night in the meeting at the Christian church. 51 in the last three nights, 138 to date. Services tonight. The annual meeting of the church is being held today at the church.

A FINE EDITION.—The New Years Oregonian out today covers the state of Oregon in an able and complete manner, displaying the resources of the state rich and varied in a manner that must impress the reader with the advantages of the state. While Portland naturally is given the most prominence the state receives its share of notice. The Albany creamery is given particular prominence in this industry.

At a recent reception given by Mrs. H. B. Miller, of Eugene, the parlors were decorated with draperies, earthenware, etc., which had just been received from Mr. Miller who is in China.

DR H LEVINSON

The Renowned Refractionist of San Francisco

Is now in town, stopping at the St. Charles, and will remain for one week or more. It costs nothing for consultation and advice, and may be the means of restoring and prolonging your sight.

Lesses Specially Ground to Suit Difficult Cases. If you have tried in vain to get glasses that give you satisfaction, do not despair. BY HIS METHOD FAILURE IS IMPOSSIBLE.

A WORD TO THE WISE—Remember everybody who sells glasses is not competent to fit your eyes. Many thousands of people suffer with nervous affections, indigestion, headache, and many other afflictions, caused directly by imperfect sight, and do not know the cause of their suffering. Remove the cause and you cure the difficulty.

DR. LEVINSON HAS GRADUATED FROM the best colleges of Europe and the United States, and is highly recommended as an expert in optica. Work absolutely guaranteed. Don't Delay in Seeing Him, at the St. Charles Hotel, Room 8.

At Bed Time

I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. It is made from herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's Medicine. All druggists sell it at 25c and 50 cts. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. If you cannot get it, send for a free sample. Address, Orator J. Woodward, Le Moy, N. Y.

Amster's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Late Eugene's Balsam, the best cough cure." This was hardly what he had expected, and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and read on the other side the matter intended for the reading.
