No Ambition

"I feel so completely run down. I am so easily tired. My nerves are weak, and I am just about discouraged." Your doctor calls this "anemia," or poverty of the blood. A great many people have it every spring. And a great many physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla for it, too. And why not? We tell them all the ingredients, and this makes them confident that there is nothing its equal for making pure, rich blood.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Lynchers Killed.
PANTHER, W. Va., June 28.—The attempt of a mob to lynch a negro at Jager today resulted in the killing of two of the would-be lynchers. The negro, Peter Price, was accused of insulting a white woman. He was pursued by a crowd of men, and sought refuge in a small room in the rear of a saloon. The mob battered down the door and as they entered the room Price threw himself at them with the ferocity of a tiger, with a knife in each hand. In cutting his way out he killed George Hooks and F. M. McGran and seriously cut Charles Davis. As Price struck down these men, the others fell back, and the negro made his escape.

A New York Scorch.
New York, June 28.—New York experienced the hottest weather of the year today, the thermometer registering 92 degrees. In Great New York 8 deaths and 50 prostrations were reported up to midnight. In New Jersey city and near by towns in New Jersey, about 20 prostrations occurred, but no deaths. Tonight a gentle breeze cooled the atmosphere somewhat.

Oregon All Right
HOQUIAM, June 28.—Cashier Adams of the First National Bank, has just returned from a visit to the Pan-American Exposition and reports an excellent Oregon exhibit of mining and lumber industries, the latter causing much wonder and comment. He states that Washington practically has no exhibit whatever.

Tortured by Burglars.
WHEELING, W. Va., June 28.—Early Friday morning six masked men entered the summer residence of J. L. White, at Brothers Station, just over the Pennsylvania line, overpowered, bound and gagged the seven occupants of the house and ransacked it. They secured $3000 in money and as much more in jewelry. Mr. White and his aged wife and their daughter were tortured by having lighted matches applied to their bodies and their skin lacerated by needles. White is a millionaire oil operator.

A Mere Trifle.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—A curious discrepancy concerning the amount of the Chinese indemnity has developed, by which it appears that China has agreed to pay about $5,000,000 taels or $24,500,000 more than the united demands of all the powers. Just how this occurred is not clear to the officials but it appears to have been an error of calculation at Peking.

Hot Weather at Omaha.
OMAHA, June 28.—Today was the hottest June day on the records of the Weather Bureau, the thermometer reaching 100 degrees. The whole week has been a record-breaker. Wednesday the register was 98, and 96 was the minimum high point for the week.

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by. When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood. This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street New York

The Encampment.

CAMP DEER, June 28, 1901.
Company G arrived in Camp about three o'clock yesterday and the men worked all afternoon putting up tents and arranging camp. Camp Beebe is located in Bang's Park which contains 144 acres. The camping place is excellent, but most of the parade grounds is very rough; it is not nearly so good as we had at Salem last year. The parade ground is on and inside the track where the recent Oregon-California field meet was held. There are a great many trees around camp and it is very easy to "run the lines" but as Eugene is fully two miles from camp the incentive for line running is not very great. G Company is camped between Co D, of Woodburn, and Co F of Salem. The Hospital corps are at some distance from the infantry. The program of the day is as follows: Arise and fall in line for roll call, 5 a. m. Arrange tent, etc. Short rations of bread and coffee straight. Each company drills separately for an hour and a quarter. Breakfast. Guard mount. Battalion and regimental drill for two hours. Dinner. The men have the afternoon to use as they please unless on guard duty or special detail. After supper is the dress parade, the prettiest part of the day. Taps blows at 9:45 p. m. and all lights are out and men "supposed" to be in bed.

The first night of an encampment is always a memorable one especially for the "rookies." The officers were very lax in discipline last night as the guard was not perfectly formed and every body had a good time. All kinds of jokes and tricks were indulged in and the man who slept two hours at a time was lucky. This morning Company G had the hardest experience it has ever had. Major Leabo's battalion, consisting of companies C, D, G and F, was sent on a forced march of eight miles in the country. We left camp at 10:15 and got back at 12:20 without a single rest in the entire trip. It was very warm and the dust was deep and when we got back to camp we had had enough. I doubt if Albany people could have recognized their boys as they came into quarters covered with dirt and dust looking and feeling as if they had been campaigning in the Philippines.

Camp life is not all fun. There is plenty of work and drill but when the boys are off duty there is always some fun. The dress parade and excellent music as a give life to the encampment. After all there is a certain fascination in soldier life which makes every moment enjoyable and we are all having a good time. W. L. M.

Minister's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and found on the other side the matter is told or the reading.
