

GRAFTS.

A great many men who pursue a professional career never catch up with it. It takes lots of powder for some women to kill time.

The fact that a woman has never been divorced is a good sign that she is an amateur actress.

If you want a horse for a day's drive don't get the 2:10 animal.

Will Albany prove itself the gem city of the valley this week?

This week in Albany the ax is mightier than the sword.

Hew to the line and let the chips fall where they will.

Chop the weeds off the three business streets.

An Escaped Lunatic.

Chief of Police Coates and Policeman McClain yesterday landed a strange and wild looking man in the calaboose. His shirt indicated that he was a lunatic, and upon inquiry at the state asylum it was learned that he escaped from there on Aug. 29th.

The public schools of Albany will open Monday Morning September 16, 1901, at 9 o'clock a. m. Pupils will be classified and the list of books required by the State course of study will be furnished at the opening session.

W. E. Gillett has gone to Lane county to reside.

Miss Helen Hogue left yesterday for Baker City, to teach.

C H Burggraf returned Saturday evening from a trip to Salem.

Mrs. S. S. Train and Miss Grace Bennett are among the Newport visitors.

R J Fleming, a prominent Salem lawyer, was in the city today accompanied by his family.

Prof E H Anderson and family returned yesterday from an extended stay in Albany.—Salem Statesman.

The Saturday Telegram contains a fine picture of Miss Vira Stuart, of this city, with an excellent notice of her accomplishments and popularity.

J E Cowan, of Dixon, Wyoming, is in the city, called here by the serious illness of his father, Mr Mike Cowan. Mr Cowan left Albany 22 years ago. He is married and has a family, his home being in the southern part of Wyoming.

Among those returning from the Bay today were F M French and family, Mrs Train and daughter, Miss Grace Bennett, of this city, C B Moores and family, of Oregon City, and Miss Lida Rumbaugh, of Portland.

Miss Zella Wood, who has been spending the summer with her parents in this city will leave tonight for Long Beach, Calif., to continue her work in the schools of that city, where she has been teaching several years.

Mrs Thomas Condon is lying critically ill at the Condon cottage at Nye Creek, and all her children have been sent for. Beloved by everybody there is a general expression of hope that she may recover.

J M McElRath, the Portland hat man, who has been in Albany the past week, went to Eugene this afternoon. He will not make any charge against the Capella in connection with the banger case not wishing to be kept in the city as a witness.

The entertainment given by the Ladies of the G A R was a very nice affair, attended by a large and pleased crowd of Albany people. A pleasing program was rendered and a delicious lunch was served. The crazy quilt was obtained by Mr Ulysses Hale, a single young man.

Rev. Levon A. Theobald preached his last sermon last night in the Presbyterian church previous to his returning east. He has supplied the pulpit for six or seven months to the satisfaction and pleasure of all, making many friends not only on account of the talent displayed, but as well on account of his sterling Christian manhood. His future plans are not entirely developed, but the probability is that he will return to Constantinople in the spring to do missionary work among his people, the persecuted Armenians. Rev. E L Reel, Pastor of the church, will return home next Saturday and preach on Sunday. He will receive a warm welcome after his long trip among the most interesting parts of the world.

These one horse towns up and down the valley will now have to show their badge game before they can claim to be in the same class with Albany.

H. C. Chamberlain, of the Albany Dressed Beef Co., has rented rooms opposite the Blumber block and will fit them up for his meat market, when he will move into his new quarters.

Big preparations are being made for the coming carnival. Stores are being properly decorated with Woodmen of America colors and the streets put in condition. That there will be a large crowd here there is little doubt, one of the best ever in the city, representative people of the valley.

An Assault Case.

G. F. Capell was arrested last Saturday night on complaint of J. M. McElRath on the charge of assault. Capell was tried before Recorder Van Winkle this morning. The testimony of the prosecution was that the complaining witness was in the hall of the Russ House about 8 o'clock Saturday evening when the wife of the defendant asked him for a match, that he had none on his person but might have in his room and went after one followed by Mrs. Capell. That they had been inside only a short time when the husband of the woman, the defendant, rushed inside, and without warning began striking him, that they went into the hall, where the defendant again struck him. There was no testimony on the subject of the woman demanding some money from McElRath. The assault was corroborated by Mr and Mrs Rowell and Frank DeVine, and Mr. DeVine swore the three came out of McElRath's room. Mrs. Capell swore that McElRath followed her up stairs and into her room, locking the door, and offered her some money, when her husband came to the door, and upon her husband entering struck him, when her husband struck McElRath, and Capell testified in the same line. The court rendered judgment against the defendant fining him $40 and costs or twenty days in the county jail. McElRath is a hatter who came to the city a few days ago and is somewhat deaf. The defendant and wife registered as from San Francisco, and like the prosecuting witness are strangers here.

The evidence and other circumstances indicate that it was a genuine badger case. Mc. McElRath claimed privately that Mrs. Capell demanded $100 of him to settle the matter. Mr. and Mrs. Capell together had only 15 cents. Capell is in the city jail, but says he has a brother in Salem who will help him out, and Mrs. Capell went to that city this afternoon.

A Fiery Accident.

From the Guard: What came very near being a fatal burning occurred at the farm of Emery Herron, west of Junction, Friday forenoon. Little four year old Florence, their only child, went upstairs, and going to the room occupied by the hired men and finding some matches on the stand table lit the lamp, putting it on the floor. By some means her clothes caught fire behind, when she screamed for her mother.

Mrs. Herron ran upstairs and met the child in the hall, her dress aflame all over. The mother acted quickly and with rare presence of mind. She threw the folds of the loose wrapper she wore about the child and smothered the flames, though not before her back and legs were severely burnt, and the hair burnt off the back of her head. She then threw the blazing lamp out at the window into the back yard. The grass being dry it caught fire and spread about the house, which it undoubtedly would have burned but for the opportune arrival of Mr Herron and his men.

A messenger was at once sent to Junction for Dr Lee and he attended to the little girl. From last accounts it is not expected, that the case will result fatally.

A Pioneer of 1852.

Saturday the DEMOCRAT mentioned the death of Mr. Fisher in this city. Particulars are as follows; as given by the Register:

William Paleg Fisher was aged 52 years, 11 months and 12 days. Deceased was an Oregon pioneer, coming to the state in 1852, locating with his parents near Pleasant Hill. In 1880 he came to Eugene and engaged in the grocery business, and later, in 1897, moved to Brownsville. He leaves a wife and two children. The children are Henry Fisher of Condon, Gilliam county and Luther Fisher of Albany. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and also of the Christian church.

When you see a man starting out with his gun you may know that he is after ducks, the open season having begun yesterday. He would not shoot a Chinese pheasant if it roosted on the end of his gun.

A couple of buggy wheels belonging to W H Moxham, across the Willamette were taken last Friday by an Albany boy and anchored to the bottom of the Willamette, just what for it is difficult to tell. Mr Moxham has secured his wheels and the matter probably ends there.

A bicycle bought by A Schmidt, the bicycle man of this city, has been identified as one sold to Schmidt by Frank Bodwell, in jail for robbing the S. P. express room, and which had disappeared from Bogart's bicycle shop at Lebanon.

There are two prisoners in the county jail, R B Moore, who was held by Justice Lovelee for the circuit court, and Frank Bodwell, the baggage thief. Moore will undoubtedly plead guilty and receive the lowest sentence of the court. The chances are that Bodwell will make a defense.

J B Tillotson, who has the contract for repairing the wagon bridge at this city, will grow the work as fast as possible, but it will, of course, be a great inconvenience to the traveling public. Work will begin next Monday, and for two weeks the bridge will open for travel a part of each day. It will then be closed to travel for two weeks. Mr Tillotson will do all in his power to accommodate the public and his efforts in that line will be fully appreciated.—Jefferson Review.

The Seattle P. I. contains a fine picture of the Degree team of Washington Camp No. 205 Woodmen of the World, of Portland. Harry Day is captain of the team, and Will Davidson is one of the best looking members of the team. A I Morrison, of Jordan, one of the "Fork" best carpenters, was in the city today on business. Mr Morrison's former home was the town recently visited by Sheriff McFargue after young Moore. That was also the home of Ex-Congressman Warren B. Hooker, at one time chairman of the river and harbor committee, now judge of the supreme court of his district, who was an old schoolmate of Mr Morrison. Judge Hooker, at one time a common country youth as poor as a mouse, working at anything for a living, has a millionaire wife and is probably the leading man of his part of the great state of New York.

TUESDAY.

Death of Mrs. Condon.

Mrs. Thos. Condon, wife of the pioneer professor of the state university, died at Newport yesterday noon.

She was a pioneer of 1852, coming to that year wit her husband and four children. They located at the Dalles, and both taught at Warm Springs. They moved from there to Forest Grove and thence to Albany, where Prof. Condon preached in the Congregational church for some time, moving from here to Eugene in 1876. She was a noble woman, beloved by all knowing her. All of her children but her son, who is Judge Bean, were at her bedside, and Mrs. Bean, is hastening here from the east. The other children are Mrs. H. F. McCornick of Eugene, S. W. Condon, of Oakland, formerly district attorney of the second district, Herbert T. Condon, of Moscow and Mrs. Nell, of Pendleton. The aged husband, now 82 years of age, and children have the sympathy of many all over Oregon.

Carnival at Portland.

The business men of Portland have subscribed $15,000 to guarantee the expenses of a Carnival to be held in the Exposition building from Sept. 18 to Oct. 19. A notable exhibit of all the industries of the Pacific Northwest will be made in the big exposition building, and athletic exercises, a horse show, and a military tournament will be held on Multnomah Field adjoining. Two full military bands have been engaged, and there will be many fine features in the amusement line.

The Carnival is in charge of a committee comprising 28 representative business men, of which Gen. Owen Summers is president, I. N. Fleischner vice-president, A. B. Steinbach treasurer, and J. D. Mann secretary.

With such men at the head of the affair, the Carnival is sure to be well worth visiting.

Oakville.

We made a visit to the Oak Ridge creamery last Saturday. The creamery and separator are on the stock farm of Mark Hulbert and are owned and operated by Archie Miller. Mr Miller has 26 cows of his own but does separating for all his neighbors. The house and engine and two large water tanks cost Mr M about $450. He takes his cream to the Albany Produce Company's creamery twice a week. After separating he places his cans in a tank of cold water which is pumped by the same engine that runs the separator. Mr Miller separates the milk of 60 cows beside his own and charges ten cents per hundred for separating. Besides running the separator the engine pumps water enough for all the live stock on the large farm and what is used in cleaning the floors and vessels that are used about the creamery. Everything is kept clean and neat. Mr and Mrs Miller do all the work about the separator and Mr Miller has put up a 100 ton silo which he will not be able to fill this year. However he has plenty of dry feed for his cows. Mr Miller is an expert dairyman which accounts for his success.

Mr H M Stone's new dryer is almost ready for use and will be large enough to dry 800 bushels of prunes at one filling. The dryer is built on a plan to economize heat and fuel. Mr S. furnishes his own wood but the amount that is generally used is quite an item of expense. Mr S will employ expert workmen to operate his dryer and we expect the product will be as good if not the best in the state.

Mr H H Smith, of Tacoma, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Shearer, of the Ackerman cook wagon, invited us to take supper with the harvest crew last Saturday evening and we went.

COUNTY INSTITUTE.

The annual institute of the teachers of Linn County was organized in this city this forenoon at 9:30 o'clock, with a good attendance of teachers from different parts of the county.

The institute is of a normal character, and a fine field for instruction.

The first subject taken up was first lessons in grammar, by Prof D A Groat, principal of the Park school, of Portland in which some excellent ideas were brought out.

In the absence of Prof Martindale, Prof Torbet led the subject in geography.

Superintendent Robinson, of Multnomah county gave a splendid talk on the subject of "The Psychology of Reading" and under the subject of history Prof Groat presented "The Constitution's Growth."

The program this afternoon consisted of "Addenda", in arithmetic, by Prof Robinson. Assigning tomorrow's lesson, by Prof Torbet, school organization, by Prof Groat, and under the head of government, "The Executive Department," by Prof Robinson, all fruitful of much interest and instruction.

The institute is in the hands of some able educators and the Linn County teachers are reaping the benefit.

The institute will be continued over Friday, the sessions being held in the college chapel, tomorrow's session closing with an address in the evening by Prof Robinson, on "The Point of View."
