CITY TREASURERS NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that funds are on hand to pay city warrants Nos. 269-304 inclusive of the issue of 1900. Interest on said warrants will cease, with the date of this notice.
Albany, Or., Aug. 25, 1902.
H. B. OSICK, City Treasurer.

As soon as the eastern elections are over the trusts will again come to the front with their widest faces, and it will be found that after all there is no serious opposition to them by the party in power.

The DEMOCRAT man remembers with pleasure Elizabeth Cady Stanton, whose death has just been chronicled. A woman of splendid personal appearance, more of the motherly nature, than of the public woman, she caused confidence in all who came in contact with her, even as one of her audience.

The coal strike commission this week will begin active investigation of the strike. The result will be watched with intense interest. It is believed that the commission is one of absolute integrity and that its finding will be accepted by the public as the best solution of the difficulty. It is to be hoped it ends it to the satisfaction of those concerned.

Bird Color is making a gamey fight for the governorship of New York. With a large majority against him to start with there is every indication that this will be reduced to a very small margin, and while the chances are in favor of the reelection of Gov. Odell the result is not certain. Color is very popular in New York and will go out from that city with nearly 100,000.

The papers recently have been busy giving discoveries of men living double lives. Supposed to be one thing they have learned that they are also another in a very emphatic manner, both gentleman and thief. The awakening is often a startling one to those knowing the man. The manly, open life is the best one. The secretly bad life is sure to terminate disastrously.

A special effort should be made to secure an appropriation by the next congress for a public building at Albany. Instead of placing the amount too high a reasonable figure should be quoted. $50,000 would be sufficient for a building entirely suitable for this city, and might be granted where a much higher figure would be rejected. Our representatives should act in unison in the matter instead of at sword's points as was done last winter. As soon as Senator Simon had introduced the Albany bill Senator Mitchell jumped in with a La Grande bill, which of course killed the whole business.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

NOT A RELIEF BUT A CURE
Helen, Mont., Oct. 4, 1902.
Dr. C. A. FRANKS, Helena, Mont.
I wish to thank you for my relief. I was suffering agonies from piles and was taking morphine to relieve me, when, on the advice of a friend, I procured a bottle of your Perrin's Pile Specific and took a tablespoonful at night and another in the morning. At half past twelve my wife gave me another tablespoonful, when my pain all stopped. In two days I was able to attend my regular business entirely relieved. It was simply wonderful.
Truly yours,
JAMES MERRILL, Farmer,
Helena, Mont.

RICKETY CHILDREN.
As likely to think of children when we use that word rickety.
Children with loose joints, bow-legs, and soft bones, are rickets. It is a disease due to improper feeding—and a local disease for the working class. Scott's Emulsion.

For the weak growth of the bones Scott's Emulsion supplies those powerful tonics, the hypophosphites.
For the loss of flesh Scott's Emulsion provides the nourishing cod-liver oil in an easily digestible form.

It is these things that account for the rapidity with which Scott's Emulsion cures rickets.
Rickety children improve in every way under its influence.

From the World.
Daddy Wentworth they call him now, and the most remarkable thing is that a contortionist, a man who has made his living by twisting himself into all kinds of inconceivable knots, should live long enough to become known as "Daddy" among show people all over the country. His name is Walter Wentworth, and he has done more than seventy-seven years—he has outlived two physicians, each of whom paid him $100 for the privilege of having his body after death. One of those strange contracts was made thirty years or more before the other.

Mr. Wentworth sat beside the death-bed of the man with whom he made the first contract, and within a few weeks, after much inquiry, he has secured proof of the death of the second physician who had expected to dissect the body of this remarkable man.

Mr. Wentworth no longer appears before the public, although it is not more than a year since he retired, after having for a long period appeared as the oldest contortionist ever known. He has settled down in a house on a spacious lot purchased by himself and son, about three months ago, in one of the best sections of Medford, Mass.

Minneapolis Times.
A special dispatch to the Times from the state of Washington, states that a gentleman of that commonwealth has established the first factory equipped with modern machinery ever established for the making of Manila rope in the city of that name.
The marvelous thing is that this factory was not established three years ago, and a still greater marvel is that arrangements have not been made for the exploitation of American enterprise in the Philippines in other directions than in the making of rope or the preparation of jute.

How to Get Pheasants.
From the Telegram.
A young business man on the road for a big supply house in Portland, expended in the neighborhood of $15 for a shot hunt for pheasants when the season opened. He was in a country where the best he could do was to get rumors of pheasants that had been there a long time ago. He came home with a couple of quail and grouse, and he enjoyed one of the most expensive game dinners that any man has had this year. But it wasn't "the bird."

"I have just been put onto a capital scheme," he confided to a friend in a corner of the smoking-room at the Commercial Club. "A fellow who lives up the valley was telling me how to get birds. I believe I will do it next year. He says to go out only in a buggy behind a horse that is used to shooting. You take a piece of rubber sole, boot, old hose or any rubber that is stiff, and you are to fasten it on the end of a stick. The stick, in turn, is fastened on the running gear or bed of the buggy so that the rubber dufficker will slip-flap between the spokes of the wheel, making a noise not dissimilar to the whirring of the idubobdavey."

The man, who was growing very excited as he related this comprehensive bit of information, asked his friend if he saw the point.
The friend acknowledged he did.
"Now," he continued, the rubber-dub and slip flap of the rubber piece on the spokes will, when you enter a field, create a sensation. The birds will all raise their heads and rubber to see what the very erratic noise is, and where it proceeds from. Then while their heads are all elevated you are to bring the gun into action and pot them where they stand, or, if you can, take them on the rise. The man who told me got plenty birds last season by going after them in a buggy. He said he could get within something like reasonable distance of them in a buggy, whereas on foot a bird will flush a quarter of a mile away and fly a mile before settling. I figure that the expense of a buggy in the field would not be greater than I paid for two quail and one lonely grouse."

Forty Years Torture.
To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Hauer, Geneva O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.—Foshay & Mason, Burkhardt & Lee.
