

THE POST OFFICE
Will Remain Where It Is for Ten Years.

Formal notice was received yesterday that the present location of the post office will be continued on a ten years lease. An addition of twenty feet will be erected of brick on the rear. The vault will be taken out entirely and a safe used, thus giving more space in the center. The boxes will be used as at present, but will run back on the west side at right angles with the front, thus giving more space on the west side for patrons. The front door will be placed at the west corner instead of the center. Thus rearranged there will be all the room desired under the earlier system.

The City Election.

The annual city election was in progress today, the only office being contested for being a councilman in each ward. In the first ward S. M. Pennington, dem., and O. P. Dannels, rep., were running; in the second ward only S. A. Dawson, Ohas. Pfeiffer, nominated by the democrats, declining the nomination; in the third ward A. W. Bowersox, rep., and M. L. Wilcox, nominated at a special meeting Saturday evening, W. H. Hogan, nominated by the democrats, declining the nomination. The indications were that a very light vote would be polled, there being little excitement over their contest.

At the Christian Church.

Special meetings will continue at the First Christian church all this week except Saturday evening. The people of the Christian church do not claim to be the only christians in Albany. They do believe it to be contrary to the plain teaching of the Bible for God's people to be divided into sects and parties organized and named by human authority. These names and human methods we believe to be hindrances to unity and of no specific value. They ought therefore to be discarded. To call a man a christian is to identify him with Christ. To call a church christian has the same effect. That is all the identification for which we care. Is not that sufficient? While many christian people do not agree with us as to the importance of this position we gladly co-operate with them in every possible way to advance the cause of Christ and wait for time to work the change. Subject tonight: "Common Sense in Bible Study." All are invited. Rev. CLARK BOWEN.

Albany and Linn County Illustrated.

Under this head F. K. Churchhill the printer has just issued a pretty brochure. It contains 57 illustrations representative of the interests of Albany and Linn County, well printed and neat in every detail. A fine thing to send away. T. S. Towhead, the creamery man, of Portland is in the city. O. S. Harnish was taking pictures in Seio Saturday. Frank Allen has gone to Seattle to spend the winter. Miss Lois Riegle, of Michigan, is here the guest of W. M. Parker and A. H. Martin.

Will Riley, of Mt. Angel College has returned to his school after a visit at his home in this city. M. M. Peery returned from Idaho the latter part of last week. He has not yet decided whether he will locate up there or not.—Santon News

The 14th birthday of Miss Oda Fisher was celebrated Saturday afternoon in a happy manner with a party of about twenty five bright and lively schoolmates. Mr. Knox Haight is home from Spokane, where he has been selling buggies for several months. He will leave for Arizona and New Mexico tomorrow night accompanied by his wife and daughter, who will spend the winter there.

Miss Louis F. Shield, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., arrived in Albany this noon to take charge of a daily prayer meeting by the young ladies of the college. Rev. White will have charge of the prayer meeting for the young men, both at 11 to 12 o'clock. This is the week of prayer in colleges. The total rainfall for November at this city was 11 inches, as kept by F. M. French.

Chief of Police McClain was sent for this afternoon to quell a riot in the third ward. The Albany ice works are being greatly enlarged. During the past summer they were not large enough to meet the big demand from this part of the valley.

Remember the entertainment at the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. Readings by Miss Starr, a solo by Mrs. Lanning and colored stereopticon views by Rev. Read, of Palestine and Syria. Admission 15 and 25 cents. The Democrat acknowledges a call from Mr. George O. Husmann, expert in viticulture in the U. S. Agricultural department. He not here and speaks encouragingly of the possibilities in the cultivation of this splendid fruit. Corvallis failed to answer and the foot ball game is off. The O. A. C. after making arrangements for a big excursion which would net them 50 or 60 cents on each excursionist, demanded a free game or a game free to Corvallis people. Albany needed an admission fee for expenses for fixing the grounds and other things and insisted on an admission fee, very properly. The O. A. C. have been unreasonable from the start. The Democrat does not propose to be mixed up in any after agony over the affair. With the feeling prevailing it will be better for both teams that no game be played.

A POULTRY SHOW.

The Linn County Hen Men Organize. Several of the leading poultrymen of the county met at the court house Saturday and late in the afternoon completed an organization for the holding of a county poultry show the last of this month, probably the 22nd, 23rd and 24th, just before Christmas. This will be settled at another meeting to be held next Saturday afternoon, when the opinions of more poultrymen and business men are secured as to the most satisfactory time for it. Mr. Ed Schoel was elected superintendent and Mr. C. S. Shedd secretary and treasurer. Linn county has some of the finest birds in the state, and can make a showing that almost equals that of a state show.

Some Changes.

Mr. R. B. Montague, the new owner of the east 23 feet of the Strahan block, today began the work of reconstructing the building first and second floor, for Collins & McAlpin's saloon; to be moved into it the first of this year. The Postal Telegraph office has been moved temporarily into Curran & Montalito's from which place it is said it will be located in Mr. Westgate's building at the foot of Broadalbin street in an office to be arranged for it. Mr. C. G. Burkhardt, who has been in his present office for about fifteen years, has several pieces in view.

Captured a Crowd.

This is what Opie Read, the humorist did Saturday evening at the opera house with his striking personality and very funny stories splendidly told. He was recalled as many as four or five times in succession. Mr. Ambary, the eloquist, is good and was warmly applauded and Mr. Banks the poet, though not an eloquist, presented his own poems in a distinct manner and with considerable feeling. He is an author of a good deal of merit with an excellent reputation in Chicago. Messrs Read, Ambary and Banks left on the overland for San Francisco, where they appear to-night. They only appear in the larger cities.

There was an unceasing downpour of rain Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night and some today, accompanied by a very brisk wind at times. The gambling houses of Seattle have all been closed. Perhaps. Riley Moore died at Grants Pass from hiccoughs.

The Salem city campaign has been a red hot one, with all manner of red hot campaign sensations. Rev. Frank Abram Powell, for many years a minister in the Christian church, is now pastor of the Unitarian church at Salem.

Allan Bates has been elected manager and Clark Pilkington captain of the O. A. C. team for next year. The State Y. M. C. A. will meet in Newberg Friday. Several will attend from Albany College.

The receipts of the Yale foot ball team for the season were $60,000, leaving a net profit of $40,000. A. F. Shultz, the Jefferson capitalist, was in the city Friday, returning home Saturday. Mr. Shultz, who we are told, has purchased an interest in a hardware store at Grants Pass.—Brownville Times.

In writing to a friend in Eugene, M. L. Dorris states that they would return soon and Mr. Dorris would resume his position at the Chambers Hardware Store. He is greatly improved in health.—Eugene Register. The Corvallis high school foot ball team defeated the Salem team Saturday 5 to 0. This is accounted for by the statement of one of the Salem boys that a Corvallis player is so tall that he could almost reach the goal over the heads of the other players. State Superintendent Ackerman has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the students of the Knox Butte school, F. M. Mitchell teacher, on Dec. 23. There will also be other exercises and it will be made a red letter day occasion for the people of the vicinity. Wayne McCoy, the nine year old son of Mr. Will McCoy of Spokane, last week in that city was run over by the cars and killed. The cars passed his home and he was in the habit of jumping on and riding to school, when he fell under the wheels. He was a nephew of A. R. McCoy and Mrs. F. M. French of this city.

A count was recently made in New York of those attending church on Sunday. The number was 451,731, in 366 places of worship. Of the number 134,277 were protestants and 317,454 Roman Catholics. 31 per cent were men. The attendance was 65 per cent of the membership. The lowest attendance of men is in the Catholic church, 22 per cent, and the highest, Congregational, 51 per cent.

Natural Anxiety. Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquid removes the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. S. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga. "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before a practical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal.—Foshy & Mason, Burkhart & Lee. TUESDAY.

Tangent.

Tangent is a quiet little town at this time of the year, as the wet weather has put a stop to all kinds of outdoor work, and most of the citizens spend their time in bummering. There has been an unlimited amount of wet weather during the last month, which stopped all kinds of farm work before many farmers were done seeding. There will be a shooting match here next Saturday conducted Olin and Jones. Mr. Sidney Trank has been quite ill for the last week, but is slowly recovering. J. F. Scott and Robt. Archibald spent Thanksgiving in Corvallis, taking in the foot ball game and visiting with their schoolmates. Geo Moss, of Stella, Wash., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Obtr, near Tangent. W. W. Powell and family are making arrangements to move to Colorado in a short time. Mr. Goodhue, of Salem, was in Tangent a short time ago trying to sell liquid cream separators, but met with little encouragement as mostly the farmers who are in the dairy business prefer to patronize the skimming station. The Maccabees will give an entertainment at their hall next Friday evening, everybody is expected to be there and a good time is promised. W. B. Obermyer expects to take a trip to Seattle soon, where he intends to work in a flouring mill. Carter Sharp is going to Saginaw, Lane county, to run a donkey engine for the Booth-Kelley Logging Co. The Farmers Warehouse Co. has been compelled to ship wood by the railroad for use this winter, as they have had an unusual amount of work the past season in the way of chopping, as many farmers think it preferable to have their feed chopped rather than feed it whole. The rural free delivery of mail from Tangent is giving good satisfaction, and now leaves the office at 8 o'clock, instead of one, as heretofore. The slaughter of pheasants is now over for a while, a large number have been killed and only a few are left. Hunters will have to be more careful or they will soon exterminate them. CUMTUX.

THE CITY ELECTION.

The annual city election occurred yesterday. Only 473 votes, three or four hundred less than usual were cast, showing the lack of interest in the contest, though as a matter of fact hacks were kept running during the day according to custom. The vote was as follows: First ward—O. P. Dannels, rep., 107; S. M. Pennington, dem., 51. Dannels' majority 56. Second ward—S. A. Dawson, rep., 92; Bowersox, 1. Third ward—A. W. Bowersox, rep., 144; M. L. Wilcox, indep., 68. Bowersox majority 76. The Council remains the same as for the past year except Mr. Bowersox.

Elected Captain.

The Albany College Foot Ball team yesterday evening elected Alton Coates captain for next year. Coates is not only one of the best players on the coast, but the manner in which he handled the team while acting as captain displayed his splendid generalship and capacity for the position. A manager has not been elected, but Russell Wallace is being prominently mentioned as a first-class man for the position. The team was run during the past year in a business way by Mr. Thompson, as manager, and Mr. Templeton as captain, while Coach Edwards is considered all right and has a big place in the hearts of not only the foot ball men but all the students of the college. Last evening the members of the team were given a banquet by the Herald.

The City Election.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: The vote at yesterday's city election was very light. There seems to have been no organized opposition to the successful candidates, while their supporters showed considerable activity and evidently spent considerable sums in getting out the vote. In the second ward there was but one candidate, with hardly half the normal vote polled. The suggestion of the Morning Herald that the issue was license or no license, saloon or no saloon, is not borne out by the vote. It may be true that the councilmen chosen yesterday are in favor of the saloon, but they would not have dared to openly announce their candidacy upon such a platform. As a city, we are not proud of our saloons. We do not boast of them when we advertise the advantages of our fair city, but pass them by without comment. In fact, we tolerate them because of the revenue they bring into the city treasury, although every principle of fair taxation is violated thereby. It is generally agreed that taxes shall be levied according to property, that the rich shall pay in proportion to their riches, the poor in proportion to their poverty. But the license tax levied upon the saloon is ultimately borne by its patrons, who are chiefly numbered among the latter class, and the tax is thus wrung from those who can least afford to pay it, from homes already poverty-stricken and destitute. When this issue is presented fairly and squarely to the people of Albany, the result of an election will be quite different from that of yesterday. A VOWS.

Commencing Tonight.

The Libby Glass Blowers enroute to Calif will stop in our city for five days only, giving a high class entertainment of blowing and spinning glass, the same as at the world fair. They make deer, dogs, ships, roses and many curious ornaments. Don't fail to see them and their work of art. Open afterwards from 2 to 4:30, evenings, 7 to 9 p. m. In Tuesday store, 15 cents admission and a souvenir to every one, also an opportunity to get a case of work valued at $15.00 given away Saturday night. Ladies and children don't miss seeing them while in your city. Mr. Viereck Burned.

Mr. L. Viereck last evening at the Sugar Bowl, was at work with a gasoline lamp when an explosion occurred and his hair was badly burned and his face scorched some. He has been in bed today, but will be out in a few days.

Judge Hewitt returned last evening from Vancouver B. C. on a light trip.

Mrs. Dr. Neuth, of Philomath, returned home this noon after a visit at the home of L. E. Moo.

J. R. Whitney and F. N. Allen, of Albany, were registered at the Willamette, Salem, yesterday.

S. H. Goin, the potato buyer, of Jefferson, was in the city last evening hunting spuds at 32 1/2 to 35 cents.

Mr. Fred Edwards, the popular coach left today for his home at Mayville, Gilliam county, where he has a fine farm.

Mrs. Oland Mansfield is at the Good Samaritan hospital where she will soon be operated upon, her third or fourth operation.

Mr. J. Christie and family, of Beaver, Neb., are the guests of Mr. John Winkley and family, of Millers, and may locate in the state. Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Winkley are sisters.

Miss Vera Stewart went to Eugene this afternoon for the purpose of attending the wedding of her friend Miss Wailer and Mr. Brasenetter at that city tomorrow. Upon their marriage they will go to Portland to reside.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed executor of the estate of E. W. Udell, deceased, by the County Court of Linn County, Oregon. All persons having claims against said estate should present them duly verified to the undersigned at his office in Albany, Oregon, within six months from this date. Dated, Albany, Oregon, Oct. 18, 1902. D. P. MASON, Executor.

Notice of Error.

The DEMOCRAT of yesterday made no mention in speaking of the members of the Christian church, "They do NOT believe it to be contrary to the plain teaching of the Bible for God's people to be divided into sects and parties organized and named by human authority." The "devil" must have inserted that "not." Nothing is plainer than that the Bible does oppose this condition John 17th chapter and 1 Cor. 1st and 3rd chapters are especially explicit. The sermon tonight will be "Conversion According to the Bible." Baptismal services will follow the regular preaching service. Every one welcomed. CLARK BOWEN.

A Tough Hobo.

A passenger on the noon train had an overcoat stolen on the train at this city, and made quite a disturbance about it. A hobo was seen going down the track with a bundle, and Chief of Police McClain followed and captured him, putting him in the city jail after a hard resistance in which the hobo did good service. The coat could not be found, and was evidently hidden, if he was the thief as suspected.

Open Tonight.

The Libby Glass Blowers are here for five days only, in Tweeddale store. Pay them a visit, high class entertainment. A present to every one, admission 15 cents

New A. O. U. W. OFFICERS.—The A. O. U. W. last evening elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: H. F. Merrill, Master; Werkman; G. M. Turner, Foreman; W. B. Gisson, Overseer; A. H. Martin, Recorder; W. M. Parker, Financier; A. Saylor Receiver; W. H. Warner, Guide; W. E. Kelley, Inside Watchman; O. P. Dannels, Outside Watchman; A. D. Barker, Trustee. Examining Physiclaus. Drs. Davis, Winward and Trimble, Safety Lodge No. 13.

Frank Ingram, now of Salem, is in the city.

Judge Neil, of Jacksonville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Guy Powers, of Salem, is at his fathers, Mr. W. M. Power, on a visit.

Mrs. Dr. Watts, of Lafayette, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Shaw.

Weather prediction: fair tonight probably showers tomorrow. River 12 feet.

S. V. Smith will soon take a party of about fifteen from Albany and Seio to near Redding, Calif., to locate some timber claims.

The Order of Pendo meets tomorrow night for the election of officers. Members should be present.

C. G. Burkhardt has moved his real estate office to the corner of First and Lyon streets, opposite the Russ House.

All the singers of Albany are expected to meet at the College tomorrow Wednesday, 8 p. m. Der. 3. Come and bring Elijah. Don't forget the time and place.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a social tomorrow afternoon and evening at the residence of G. W. Hochstedler, to which every one is invited. Articles of needlework will be on sale and refreshments may be secured after-noon and evening. No admission fee.

Yesterday in a statement by Rev. Bowen, of the Christian church he was made to say "they do not believe." where it should have been "they DO believe it to be contrary to the plain teaching of the Bible for God's people to be divided into sects and parties organized and named by human authority."

Rev. J. B. Holmes and Mr. Webb closed a very successful meeting in Medford Sunday night and tomorrow night will begin a series of meetings at Ashland.

The U. O. C. yesterday challenged the O. A. C. team for a game next Saturday upon learning that the Albany game was off, but the O. A. C. refused to play. After all Thanksgiving is a good time for foot ball to end. Fred Herbold has been reengaged as coach for the O. A. C. team for next year. He is a first class man and did splendid work for the farmers this year making them one of the three best college teams of Oregon. Herbold has gone to Butte, Mont., where he has a position.

Christmas Is Coming.

Do not buy anything in the jewelry line until you have visited the store of E. G. Will. He has an elegant stock of silver ware, novelties of all kinds, rings, watches, cases, cut glasses, vases, etc., to select from, carefully selected for the local trade.

A FINE FAMILY.

There was a reunion at the Jenks home in Tangent on Thanksgiving day. And it happened on this wise. The daughters-in-law, five in number, prepared their dinners, and, after church, repaired to the home of Mrs. Mary Jenks, the mother, and in due time a bountiful dinner was spread. It was intended for the reunion of the entire family, though all were not present. Mr. and Mrs. John Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenks were absent, due to distance and sickness. The resident minister and family took their places in the count. This is the most remarkable family in some respects in the state. The father, James B. Jenks, of Tangent, died several years ago. The mother is the sister of M. G. Calloway of this county and of the late Richard Calloway, of Benton. The family consists of nine sons and one daughter, all grown and living in sight of the old home, except the daughter. All are thrifty, good and successful farmers, handle much money, and not one has ever been addicted to a vicious habit. Not a black sheep among them. All are members of the church; all are democrats, and are liberal with their means along the lines of a better life. The reason for these things is this. The parents believed that character was worth more than money and so lived and taught their children. They made home more enjoyable than elsewhere, so the children preferred home. The father made this proposition to his sons: If they would remain with him until they were twenty-two, he would give them a thousand dollars each, and then give them wages as long as they remained with him. Five of the sons are married. They were happy in their selections. Thirty-two sat at this bountiful table. The point which I wish to make by this writting is this: If any family can be so raised, might not many more be so raised? If this is due to the lives and teachings of their parents, are not fearful responsibilities resting on all parents. And are not hundreds of parents in our land responsible for the life-failure of their children? Do we not have just such children as we raise? P. A. MOKS.

Frank Craw's Escape.

From the Journal. A heavy locomotive of the Southern Pacific Company ran through an open switch at the Jefferson street depot and went plunging into the river among the piling. The engineer, Frank Craw, made the flying leap in the darkness with his engine, but by some miraculous good fortune he was not seriously injured and escaped with a bad shaking up.

Craw was making a flying switch and supposed the switch was closed. Instead it had been left partially open. The big engine took the wrong track and headed for the Willamette River. Before the hapless engineer could realize where he was scaling the engine crashed through the planking of the wharf and plunged into the water. In the rain and darkness it was a difficult matter to ascertain if Craw was not buried beneath the debris, but he was finally discovered sitting cheerfully on the boiler, and his fellow trainmen rapidly hauled him up to a position of safety. The locomotive sank deep in the mud.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for G. Haney, Geneva O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.—Foshy & Mason, Burkhart Lee.
