IN AND AROUND ALBANY.

Benton county boys are doing a large business in the sale of mistle-toe.

According to a custom since the beginning no Democrat will be issued tomorrow.

G. W. Taylor has opened a shooting gallery opposite the Russ House, where he is doing a good business.

A very readable letter from A. W. Moses, now at the Chillicothe Indian school in Oklahoma, will be found on the editorial page.

A Mr. Wood, of Springfield, was taken through the city today on a stretcher, to Portland for treatment for pneumonia and erysipelas at the hospital.

The C. & E. train was delayed an hour or two today by the engine getting off the track at Corvallis while switching in the yard.

G. Co. last evening organized a basketball team with Chas. Stewart as manager and A. E. Alexander as captain. They have the material for a splendid team.

D. D. Hackleman, of this city is a candidate for state game warden and Gov. Chamberlain will be petitioned to appoint him to the position. Linn is the proper county for the game warden on account of its central location.

Wilbur Francis, the crack end of the All-Oregon foot ball team about had his hands full carrying mail between the depot and post office. The delayed eastern mail arrived this noon, and it required two cart loads heaped up to do the business, necessitating an extra trip.

MARRIED.

WHITNEY-WOOD.—In Los Angeles, Calif., at the residence of the bride's brother, Arthur Wood, on Dec. 22, by Rev. Dr. McIntyre, in the presence of a few intimate friends, Mr. Jos. R. Whitney, editor of the Albany Herald, and state printer of Oregon, and Miss Zella E. Wood, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wood, of this city, who has been teaching at Long Beach, Calif., for several years.

After a trip through California they will return to Oregon and make their home in Salem during Mr. Whitney's term of office. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney have the best wishes of a host of Oregon friends.

PALMER-BOND.—At the St. Charles Hotel, Albany, Oregon, Wednesday, Dec. 24, 1922, Mr. J. L. Palmer and Miss Mary Gladys Bond, both of Linn County, Dr. M. O. Wire, officiating.

These happy young people are from the vicinity of Halsey and expect to live on a farm about four miles from Halsey. They begin married life under favorable circumstances and their many friends wish them happiness and prosperity.

CRABTREE-BILYEU.—At the residence of and by Rev. Clark Bower, Mr. Roy Crabtree and Miss Mary Bilyeu, both of Linn county. They will reside at Berry, in this county. They have the best wishes of many.

ELITE CANDY FACTORY.

WHERE IS F. M. RUMBAUGH.

Prominent Linn County Man Leaves Without Warning.

Mrs. Frank Rumbaugh, of Sweet Home, left this morning for Portland to look for her husband, who left several days ago without saying goodbye or telling his destination.—Lebanon E. A.

Inquiry at this city verifies the above. Mr. Rumbaugh came to Albany, where he made a deed to his Sweet Home property in favor of his wife, and had his will made out and then left the city without making his whereabouts known. The deed was filed and appeared in the records as published in the Democrat. No cause is known for the act. He had about $1,000 in cash with him as nearly as can be learned. Mr. Rumbaugh is a brother of D. W. Rumbaugh, of this city, who is greatly surprised at the course of affairs.

To-Night the Stanford Students.

The Stanford Glee and Mandolin Clubs will present one of their splendid programs at the opera house to-night, and deserve the biggest house that can be given them. The Glee Club is better than ever and the Mandolin club is deserving all the praise given it. Some of its selections are:

"King Dodo" and "Carmen," while "Amoreuse," "Coxy Corner," "Rip Van Winkle," "Naval Militia," "Hall to the Spirit of Liberty," "German Patrol," and "One, Two, Three, Four," are prominent in the repertoire.

A Close Call.

The demand for a change in the arrangement of the yard at the depot continues. The depot should be moved to this side of the tracks or the road will someday have a big damage suit on hand. This forenoon there was a close call for Miss Winifred Beal. A freight train had been cut in two. Miss Beal in crossing the track was nearly struck by the ends of the train coming together, just being missed, a close call.

Silvertonian: J. A. Finch, city editor of the Albany Herald, came up from Portland Friday evening for a short visit with friends. He made our office a pleasant call and exchanged a few lines and we confess he carried away the honors. He departed on the 1:20 train Saturday.
