In Drugs or Chemicals

is ever made in such a reliable and all drug store as that of Burkhardt & Lee. A substitution of a drug not called for in a prescription is often used for one which the druggist hasn't got is a common sin among druggists not of the A1 class. Every prescription prepared at our store is done to the very letter of the doctor's prescription, and all drugs sold at this house are right up to the standard, pure and fresh.

INDIGESTION

is the cause of more discomfort than any other ailment. If you eat the things that you want, and that are good for you, you are distressed. Asker's Dyspepsia Tablets will make your digestion perfect and prevent dyspepsia and its attendant disagreeable symptoms. You can safely eat anything, at any time, if you take one of these Tablets afterward. Sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee. 25c. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. Send to us for a free sample. W. W. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

IN AND AROUND ALBANY.

Weather prediction: Tonight and Thursday, occasional rain. The river is 9 feet above low water.

Dr. E. M. Hard, of Salem, has brought suit for divorce against his wife. The grounds are desertion.

W. J. Sherwood, the great pianist, will be here Jan. 30th under the auspices of the Thursday Musical Club.

The Sanderson bridge is said to be in a very bad shape again. It has been an elephant on the hands of Linn county.

A game of basket ball is to be played between the high school team and a team of girls at the college, at a date to be agreed upon hereafter.

While practicing at basket ball last evening Willard Marks, the manager, was knocked against a sharp corner and rendered unconscious for awhile.

The R. M. Robertson house at the corner of Baker and Eighth street, was sold yesterday to W. B. Gilson, the barber. Consideration, $1,700. Mr. Gilson has purchased it as an investment having another residence in which he resides.

Women of Woodcraft and Woodmen of World take notice. There will be a joint installation program and banquet at Woodman hall on Friday, Jan. 9, at 8 p. m. Husbands of Women of Woodcraft and wives of Woodmen are cordially invited. By order of Committee.

Mr. W. B. Thompson, supervisor of district 22, at Sweet Home, was in the city today among others, to render his report to the county court. Mr. Thompson has 44 miles of road in a rocky, as well as wet district. There are 111 bridges and culverts in the district and the appropriation only permits of about 5 1/2 days work to the mile, and yet the best was done possible and the showing made is a good one.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. H. Townsend, of Dallas, grand matron of the Eastern Star, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Weatherford, past grand matron, and will meet with the Albany lodge.

Lebanon E. A.: Katherine Watson, of Albany, visited Isabella Garland in this city last week. Mrs. W. F. Moist returned yesterday from a short visit in Albany. Mrs. E. E. Davis came home with her for a short visit.

Miss Gertrude O'Brien was given a very enjoyable reception yesterday afternoon by Miss Frances French previous to going to San Francisco for the winter. Several young ladies spent a delightful time. The refreshments were choice.

Died at Ashland.

From the Tidings: Austin Howell, aged 56 years, died at his own home on Granite street, Thursday, January 1st, at 7:07 p. m., of a severe attack of la grippe. Deceased had not been in rugged health for several years, but his illness was of short duration. Mr. Howell, came to Ashland about three years ago from Linn county seeking relief for asthma and was respected here as an honorable and upright citizen. While here he has followed only such light occupation as his health would permit. Deceased was born in northern Iowa, but moved with his parents to Oregon when quite young, and has lived in the state ever since. Four children, three sons and a daughter, all of whom live in Linn county, survive to mourn their much revered and honored father. Walter, the eldest son, came to Ashland, and took charge of the remains, which were shipped Saturday, to Shedd, Linn county, where the interment will take place.

Special School Meeting.

A remonstrance to the anti-toll petition is being circulated and signed by a good many who appreciate the fact that the two counties cannot be induced to take charge of the bridge and that Albany is unable to do so without a toll as much as it is desirable from a popular standpoint.

You Are Invited
To call early and look over our new arrivals in table China ware we have now on display at our store on Second street, a much larger and more varied assortment than ever before. (Bargains on hand.) O. E. BROWNE.

The question of the hour when suffering with a cough or cold is what to take. Why not take our White Pine Cough Syrup, the right remedy and if it fails to cure come back and get your money — our store is not far away—25c and 50c. BUNNHART & LEE.
