At the Post Offfce.

Some more of the fixtures and apparatus for the post office under the carrier system arrived this morning and are being placed in position. Everything seems to be for the convenience of the inside regardless of the public. There are three openings about seven feet high for letters, so high that children will have to take step ladders to reach them, and one big opening lower down for packages. The letters drop into boxes over the stamping table and down upon the tables merely by letting the bottoms down. The packages go to the floor. A large wicker partition will seperate the money order and register departments from the main part of the interior. There is more to come. being placed in position. Everything

Former Albany Man Dead.

A telegram was received by Mrs. G. W. Simpson of Portland this week informing her of the death of her father, forming her of the death of her father, Mr. M. N. Assessed Too Low.

Timber land in Linn county is assessed at $2 and less an acre, perhaps some slightly more. It is the same elsewhere in the state.

where in the state. The DEMOCRAT calls the attention of the county officials to the fact that this is too low compared with the assessment of other property. Good timber land is worth at least $15 an acre. As consid-erable of this land is owned by outsiders it is only right that the assessment should be in keeping with that of other property. property.

received the second prize, of inventing history in her oration on "The Spirit of John Marshall." The professor criti-cises her on three points. First her state-ment that Mar hull was the first supreme judge," whereas Jay was the first chief justice, and the spirit of her state-ment is probably misconstrued. Second, her statement that "France learnee is from his lipe that America would pay millions for defense but not one cent or tribute," words of Pinckney, but as a matter of fact in connection with as mission in which Pinckney. Marshall and Madison, were the partici, ante. Third, the credit given to Marshall (f as large portion of the constitution by the Virgina ratilying convention, belongin to Madison. On Feb. 4, 1901, Judge Geo. H. Williams delivered an addrese an John Marshall before the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon, in which, on this subject, he said: "Patrick Mad son and Edmund Kando ph were the leaders of those who favored its rat-corstitution; and lohn Marshall, Jame Matter all the U. of O, professor seems
