

THURSDAY.

SAW THE PRESIDENT.

Uncle Sam's Head Man Passes Through Albany.

An immense crowd of people from Albany and surrounding country were at the depot this morning when the train of the President passed through the city exactly on schedule time, 8 o'clock. The train slowed up, just moving as it passed through the crowd.

There were fifteen cars on the train going at 7 o'clock this morning, including eight from Corvallis loaded with O. A. C. students and others and G. Com-pany from Albany.

Hello S. P. Again.

Riley Waller, this forenoon, upon authority of a message from Portland re-installed the telephone at the depot, making all the necessary connections, and the hello will again be in force, at the expense of the S. P., as it should be.

Big Stock Shipment.

Mr. Jack Pelton, of Ashland, has rounded up one thousand head of yearlings and two year olds at this city, now in Goltra Park and tomorrow will ship them to Ashland.

Arm Dislocated.

Mr. James Adkins, of near this city this morning was unloading some wood in the eastern part of the city, when a stick caught and threw him off the load, dislocating his right arm at the elbow. Dr. Hill attended him.

Nobility Coming.

Twenty of the leading German agriculturalists, including several of the nobility, will be in Albany on June 2 from 8 to 8:30 a. m., their only stop in the state this side of Medford.

Mr. Peacock First.

Mr. Wm. Peacock, of Benton again comes to the front with the first home straw hats of the season, a fine box being ordered the Democrat man this morning getting ahead of all others.

Have you bought a ticket to the Sunshine lecture of Dr. Willits at the U. P. church next Monday evening? It will be a treat no one should miss.

The Elk's excursion announced to take place from Albany to Toledo Saturday and Sunday has been postponed to some future day to be announced later.

On June 3 there will be a public school rally in Albany. The principal speaker will be State Superintendent Ackerman, President Campbell, of the U. of O. and perhaps President Bessler, of Monmouth.

The good people of Albany should stand by everything that is good. The Sunshine lecture of Dr. Willits at the U. P. church next Monday evening, is not only good, but better, in fact best in its line.

W. W. Francis, of this county, is the new grand treasurer of the grand encampment of Odd Fellows, which has been in session in Portland this week. T. F. Howard, of Pendleton is the grand high patriarch.

Mr. J. C. Christie has rented the rooms in the Young-Goodwin block, recently occupied by G. A. Westgate and will open a law office there. His law books, forming a fine library, packed in twenty three cases, weighing nearly a ton and a half arrived from San Bernardino, Calif., and are being unpacked.

The commencement of Albany College will occur this year on June 17. The class graduating will consist of George D. Byers, James Thompson, and Misses D. Byers, James Thompson, and Misses Georgia Payne, Ora Simpson, and Edith Van Dyke in the regular college course, besides several from the commercial and normal departments.

It cost $3 to secure a marriage license. $2.25 was more than some of them were worth.

Mr. Jas. F. Nixon has returned to Harrisburg from Silver Star, Mon., where he has been the past year or two.

Beginning tomorrow the price of Oregon school land will be doubled. The new price is $2.50. The sale at $1.25 have been large recently.

The appendicitis is no respecter of person. E. H. Harriman, at the head of the biggest railroad trust in the world had to be operated upon for appendicitis.

MRS. MAXFIELD.

Takes Five Shots at Otho Hall.

Mrs. C. M. Maxfield last evening at about 7:30 o'clock on the street corner near the residence of Mrs. Saltmarsh, shot at Otho Hall five times only one shot hitting him and that one only slightly, striking two buttons and glancing off after taking off a little of the cuticle of the stomach, but not drawing blood.

Tuesday evening, May 5, Hall, the father of eleven children, aged 55, and Charlotte Maxfield, the daughter of Mrs. Maxfield, aged 17, eloped from Albany by way of Jefferson, and went to Vancouver, where Hall says they were married on the 9th. One Henry Mattson, is reported to have been the witness to swear that the girl was over eighteen years of age.

At the time of the shooting George Hall, a brother, and another man, were with Otho, and grabbed Mrs. Maxfield and took the revolver from her after the firing, turning it over to Chief of Police McClain.

Hello S. P. Again.

Mrs. Maxfield was taken in charge and placed in the county jail. Mrs. Maxfield was taken before Justice Mielely this forenoon and held under $200 bonds to appear for preliminary examination tomorrow at 9 a. m., bonds being furnished at once.

A New Addition.

H. O. Watson, Esq. and Geo. W. Wright, Esq. Lawyers of this city, have platted a new addition to Albany to be known as Mountain View Addition to Albany.

The new addition consists of thirty lots and lies immediately West of Wright's addition to Albany, on the highest part of the Monteth property. A splendid view of the Valley and Mountains eastward is presented. Lots can be bought at present at the low price of $100.00 per lot.

Lebanon.

From the Oriteron: Dr. J. C. Booth, has purchased the interest of the Westfall estate in the two livery barns. He has also purchased the Westfall residence.

Roy Irvine, has given up his position in the Hotel Josephine, at Grants Pass, and will travel for an eastern publishing house. He will make his headquarters at Independence.

Rev. Harman, of Minnesota, father of Mrs. Jerome Smith, of this city, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in this city. He will arrive here about the first of August.

A Good Book.

It is A Century of American Literature, a book of 600 pages, splendidly illustrated, being well classified and arranged, covering the lives of one hundred of our authors, with a special department devoted to the ten best of the world's books, another department specially for students and teachers, the whole a work of unusual merit. Albany will be canvassed for it.

Weather prediction.

Weather prediction: Fair tonight and Friday, light frost tonight.

Stanley Stewart reached home this morning from Los Angeles.

Jack Hammill has completed his contract at Eugene and is home again.

Mrs. Kate Burkhardt, of Portland, will leave San Francisco tomorrow on her way home from Arizona, where she has been for her health, which many will regret learning is worse.

Ex Governor W. P. Lord has reached Salem on his return from South Africa.

Wood is wood this year. The city of Salem secured 75 cords of big fir at $3.25, but the next highest bid was $3.95, indicating that the prevailing price in Salem is $1.

Under the new section of school teachers at Salem two former Albany teachers who have been in the schools of that city for several years will retire, Prof. W. J. Crawford and Miss Ada Hart.

Douglas Cowley has a district attorney with a stiff backbone. He has caused arrests, resulting in $900 fines for gambling, and is on the watch for more. The Plaindealer says it has knocked gambling in that part of the state.

Following is the present condition of the Lane County assessment: Amount of original rolls, $195,328.76. Taxes collected, $168,165.97. Retaxes, $4,372.55. Amount yet on rolls, most of which will be paid under the "second half" payment provision in October, $22,789.24.

MARRIED.

VUNK-PARRISH. On Wednesday evening, May 20, 1903, in the rooms of the groom in the Crawford Block, by Rev. W. P. White, Mr. Claud Vunk of Albany, and Miss Dell Parrish, of Lebanon, two well known young people of the two cities. The wedding was private. Mr. and Mrs. Vunk have the best wishes of many friends.

FRIDAY.

Capt. Stellmacher Honored.

From the Telegram: Salem, Or., May 21.—As the Presidential party was leaving Marion Square, President Roosevelt shook hands with Captain Stellmacher, of Albany, and thanked him for his presence and that of his company's. Then, as he was driven to the street, he espied a child, daughter of Rev. W. C. Kantner, who is a victim of spinal trouble, and who is constantly strapped on her back in a couch on wheels. The President stopped his carriage, alighted and went to the child, shook her hand and kissed her. She is a child of sweet, uncompromising temper, and she is now the joyous recipient of congratulations by her numerous friends.

Benjamin Wilson, a socialist orator, will lecture at the court house tonight.

Forty or fifty Albany people went to Corvallis this afternoon to attend the Corvallis oratorical contest at that city tonight.

It is to be hoped the government's weather prediction of fair, warmer for tonight and Saturday will be verified.

Mr. George Hoonstetter has displayed artistic skill in the arrangement of a neat hardware window at F. K. Allen & Co's.

The Railroaders against the Blues at the Albany grounds tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Both clubs propose to win.

The new plate glass front in at Ohling & Hulbert's is one of the neatest in the city. There will be one with a corner window in at Beam & Hogan's in a few days.

Patents have been granted: O Giltner, Portland, Ore., boot or spike puller; J N Stacy, Portland, Ore., letter sealing and stamping machine.

I. F. Hadley has the contract for putting down the steel letter boxes at twenty two of the street corners. They are imbedded with cement and placed for permanent location.

W. S. Risley has opened a law office in the Flinn block in the rooms formerly occupied by Judge Blackburn, where he has his justice office also, prepared for all kinds of trouble.

A fine picture of the late W. F. Alexander, received by C. H. Stewart today from Mrs. Wilbur Westlake of San Jose, is a reminder of early Albany days when Dr. Alexander was Albany's leading physician.

An able bodied young man struck an Albany barber a few minutes ago for assistance. "I'm a man with twelve children to support," said the barber "and do you suppose I'm going to give money to a lazy fellow like you. Go to work."

A recent S. P. order was that the conductors on trains with train agents should ride on the engine. None of them has yet done it, having so notified the head offices. It is a little the worst fool order ever issued by a railroad company.

Dr. E. R. Barker will leave tomorrow morning for his Santiam timber claim near the mines, with a large outfit of establishments on hand prepared for encampment.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

An interested and curious crowd appeared at 9 o'clock this morning at the office of Justice Risley when the case of the State agt. Mrs. C. M. Maxfield, charged with intent to kill Otho Hall, was called. District Attorney Kelley and J. J. Whitney appeared for the state and Hon. J. K. Weatherford for the defendant. The defendant was present in person, though she has been ill for several days. In fact got up from her bed to meet Hall and her daughter on the evening of the shooting. Examination was waived and the defendant was held under $200 bonds to await the action of the circuit court, bonds being furnished. The case has caused a great deal of comment, with a universal expression in favor of the defendant.

A New Law.

A new law going into effect yesterday, is the inheritance tax law: The tax applies only to estates with an appraised value of more than $10,000 and the tax is to be collected only upon the excess of $5000 that may go to any one person. In the case of an inheritance by an uncle, aunt, nephew or niece the tax will apply to the excess of $2000 passing to any one person. On bequests to relatives farther removed or to strangers the tax will apply to the excess of $500 passing to any one person. It applies to all property coming within the jurisdiction of the Probate Courts in this state which shall pass by will or statutes of inheritance, or by deed or gift in contemplation of death or intended to take effect after the death of the grantor, gifts to charitable institutions excepted.

Stereopticon Lecture.

At the First Presbyterian Church Friday night of this week, at 8 o'clock will be given a fine exhibition of 90 slides, made from the negatives taken by Rev. Mr. Reed, on his Palestine trip. All 90 are colored, and have not been seen in color by an Albany audience, and nearly half of them have never been shown at all in Albany. A racy description of the pictures has been prepared by Mr. Reed, and will be read by President Lee. The pictures are divided nearly in the proportion of 30 to Egypt, 30 to Palestine and 30 to Paul's cities and Europe. Let the house be filled. The entertainment will have to begin promptly at 8. Admission at 25c and 15c.

Heard Dr. Willits Twice.

Supt. Adams says of Mr. Willits, who is to lecture here Monday night. "I have heard Mr. Willits 'Sunshine' lecture twice and I want to hear it again. It just glitens with the sunshine of good cheer. One goes away with a more elastic step saying this old world of ours is worth the battle after all. This lecture is the cheeriest, breeziest lecture on the platform today. Albany misses a treat if it does not turn out to see it, hear it and feel it."

The Southern Carnival Co.

The Stockton Independent says of the Southern Carnival Company to be in Albany July 6-11:

The Southern Carnival Company, which furnishes all of the attractions and acts, has always particularly called attention to the high moral status of all of the shows and it certainly demonstrated last evening that it keeps its word as there is not one single act presented but what any lady can witness and enjoy. No tough or suggestive turns are presented and everyone who saw the various attractions expressed themselves well pleased with them. Naturally some of the shows are better than others, while still others are of the freak order, yet all of them were enjoyed by the crowd.

The stadium is undoubtedly the largest and best show of the entire lot and probably never in the history of vaudiville have so many high-priced acts been presented for so little money. There are several turns that are entirely new and nothing of the kind has ever been seen in Stockton. The cycle whirl alone is worth the price of admission, not to say anything of the Japanese acrobats. Dreamland is also quite a novelty and a great feature, which Lorita, the armless wonder, and the electric theater are most entertaining and unique.

Mrs. E. L. Power and daughter Edith, of Lebanon, are in the city on a short visit.

The Guards of the L. O. T. M. will meet to night at 7:30, and all members should be in hand.

Mr. Ben Holmes, the victim of the bridge accident, across the river, is gradually improving and is considered out of danger.

Hon. Binger Hermann, No 13 in the June election, passed through the city this noon for Toledo, where he will speak tonight and no doubt fill them up on that $1,025,000 story of his. Tomorrow night he will speak at Corvallis.

Rev. R. Pierce returned this noon from Boise where he has been several months. He has organized a Nazarine Church, an organization with features of the Methodist and Congregationalists, and will move with his family to this city next week to reside. Boise now has a population of about fifteen thousand and is growing very rapidly, a live, prosperous business and home city.

The callen party by the Degree of Honor given last evening was enjoyed by a large number. In the carpet rag sawing Mr. Sprenger of Lebanon showed the best bringing up and carried off the prize. A pleasing program was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Gale Here, one of Lura Egan's immit, piano recitation, "In the Usual Way," a solo duet by Mrs. Ketchum and Miss Eays Hoque, a song by Barbara Dorgan, "Down Where the Cotton Blossoms Go," and a piano solo by Conrad Bieser, all enthusiastically received. There was a cake walk in which A. D. Barker and Mrs. Farley carried off the honors so matters where the prize went. Several distinguished themselves socially and a fine time was had by all.

DR. WALLACE HOWE LEE.

A High Honor Conferred on the President of Albany College.

President W. H. Lee, of Albany College, this noon was formally notified by the Nashville College of Laws that the title of LL. D. had been conferred upon him, an honor his many friends will appreciate, one deserved by his splendid work in the cause of education. The responsibility for the honor is not stated, but there are some pretty good guesses being made.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

Table with 2 columns: Deeds recorded, Amount. Includes entries for Theo Cowitz, Geo Attig, W C Stearns, J D Bennett, etc.

A Harrisburg Accident.

From the Bulletin: Mr. Ballard, owner of the ferry across the Willamette river, while crossing with a farmer's family and a two-horse wagon when midway of the river, ran his boat onto a snag, which caused a strain on the guy ropes sufficient to break one of them, leaving all the strain on the other one, thus starting the pilot wheel at a fearful whirl, wrenching it from the hands of Mr. Ballard and striking him in the sides with the spokes, tearing one of his ribs loose and breaking another rib. Farmer Woodley, who lives near by, hearing the cries for help, came to the rescue and with his small boat landed them safely ashore. Dr. T. C. Mackey was summoned, did all possible to be done for the relief of Mr. Ballard, and thinks he will recover without permanent injury.

A Rebeccan lodge has been organized at Halsey with 23 new members.

The President-to-day is in the midst of the cities of contention on the Sound. Arnold's street fair, carnival and Orestes shows will open the season at Dallas June 3.

Judge Boise wants $5,100 from the city of Dallas on account of some proposed waterworks interfering with his property there. It will be tried before Judge Burnett next Monday.

The Democrat acknowledges an invitation to the graduating exercises of the Roseburg high school, to take place tonight. The class consists of Edna Parley, Kathryn Fullerton, Ella Black, Fred Adams, Gertrude East, Lillian Stanton, Bessie May Kidder, Floyd Cleveland Ramp and Thomas Townsend. A fine picture of the members of the class is seen through a hole in the cover. The oration of Mr. Ramp, a former Albany boy is: "I am a Roman Citizen."

Harrisburg Ballet: Mrs. C. B. Sacre and son, of Astoria, arrived in Harrisburg last night on an extended visit to Mrs. Dr. Mackey. Mrs. Sacre is the wife of a brother of Mrs. Mackey, a responsible official of the Astoria & Portland railroad. Miss Lois Sanders left for Portland Tuesday, where she will visit for a month at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. May. Before returning to Harrisburg she will make special arrangements whereby to keep posted on the fluctuations of the poultry market.

SATURDAY.

IN AND AROUND ALBANY.

Our immense line of fireworks and 4th of July novelties are now on display at "The Sugar Bowl."

Three second hand organs, practically as good as new, for half price of a new one, at WILL'S MUSIC STORE.

A new circuit court case is Jennie Ralston agt. M. J. Ralston. To quiet title. J. J. Whitney attorney for the plaintiff.

A base ball game this forenoon between the Central and the Madisons resulted in a signal victory for the Central by the score of 24 to 12.

Rev. Clark Bowers, of the Christian Church, has heard Dr. Willits Sunshine lecture and pronounces it a fine one, worthy of being heard by all. At the U. P. church next Monday night.

The U. of O. team came to Albany yesterday and went to Corvallis this afternoon to meet the team of the A. C. The Democrat expects to see many the U. of O. points in the majority.

All subscribers to the Evening Telegram, who have not secured one, may secure a picture of President Theodore Roosevelt by calling immediately at the Sugar Bowl, 2nd street.

Nine wagon loads of immigrants on their way from California to Idaho, passed through Albany this forenoon attracting some attention. There were three families and a host of children in the midst of the confused aggregation. They crossed the big steel bridge and went down the west side.

Mr. Chas. Reuter, of R. D. 5, in the city today reports receiving $20 from Woodmen Accident Association, of which he is a member, on account of an accident awhile ago. He was using a meal when the finger of one of his hands was smashed. He appreciates the benefit.

PERHAPS SUICIDE.

From the Cottage Grove Leader: More or less excitement was occasioned at the Central Hotel in this city Monday morning by the finding of the following note in a room where Lon Beck has been sleeping: "To all whom it may concern. My trouble is more than I can bear, the way my wife done. Goodby, friends. LEONARD O. BECK."

The note was written on a hotel letter head, enclosed in an envelope and left where it could be easily found. Beck came here a few months ago with his wife from Albany and started a shooting gallery. They stopped at the Central hotel and no one seemed to know that there was any trouble or difference between the couple. Mrs. Beck was a woman of very attractive personality, modest, refined and readily made friends with all the boarders and Mr. Korinek's family. One day it was announced that she was going to Albany to visit friends and even Mr. Beck did not know that she was going, never to return. A few days later Beck received a letter telling him that she had left him for good, and he took a train for Albany, but returned without his spouse. He told his friends that his wife had quit him and he tried to get on with the affair. He drank heavily about this time and several times dropped a hint that he intended to take his own life, and while under the influence of whiskey did take a dose of some kind of poison, but the whiskey in his system counteracted the effect of the poison and Joe Korinek took the bottle of poison away from him and destroyed it. He sold his shooting gallery one day last week and stayed around here until Sunday, giving an evasive answer to inquiries as to what he intended to do. He was last seen at the ball game Sunday afternoon, but it was not thought strange that he did not appear at the hotel, until the above note was found. Some of those who knew him best while here express the belief that the man has gone to some secluded spot and committed suicide, but there is no positive evidence of this. He had some money and did not owe any one a cent, and had no reason to skip out.

While here Beck worked in J. B. Tillotson's piling camp, he and his wife making their home at the boarding houses of Mr. Ramey and Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Beck became acquainted with Ed Strawser, who ran a shooting gallery, and it is claimed that she left her husband on his account and went to Woodburn, where Strawser was running a gallery, which caused Beck to take the course he has. Mr. Beck's father resides at Monmouth and he has two sisters living at this city.

Otho Hall, recently shot by Mrs. Maxfield continues in bed, considerably worse than was at first thought. At the wound there is a big swelling, with signs of a rupture, and should inflammation set in it might prove serious.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

To the heirs, legatees and other persons interested in the estate of Martin Payne, deceased: You and each of you are hereby notified that the undersigned executor of said estate has filed his final account therein in the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, and that said court has set Saturday the 6th day of June, 1903, at the hour of One o'clock p. m. of said day as the time for hearing and settling all the objections to said final account, wherefore, all persons having any objections to said final account are hereby notified and required to appear and file the same in said court on or before One o'clock p. m. on the 6th day of June, 1903.
