

A Toledo Man's Dream.

From the Leader.
M. W. Simpson is somewhat worried over a dream that he had recently. He dreamed that he died and was escorted to the gate presided over by St. Peter. "M. W. Simpson, from Elk City, Oregon," announced the guide. St. Peter took down a long column of names. "Where did you say he was from," asked the guardian of the gate. "From Elk City," responded the guide. "Ah yes, here it is," said St. Peter as his finger paused at a name with numerous marginal references. "Take him to the aquarium." The guide took him by the arm and hustled him to a tank so vast that he could not see across it. This tank was filled with all sorts of fishes and sea monsters. Without any further ceremony the guide threw him into the tank. The water was uncomfortably warm and the sea monsters were more than friendly. A big trout that looked familiar to Simpson came and looked at him and then went away. Pretty soon he returned accompanied by a shark and a sword fish. "That is the man," said the trout. "He is the man," said the sword fish, as he snipped off one ear. The unpleasantness of the situation woke Simpson at this point. He has not been fishing since.

Call For Extra Session.

Executive Department, State of Oregon: Salem, Or., November 21, 1903.
I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, by virtue of his authority in me vested as governor of the State of Oregon, do hereby direct the convening of the two houses of the legislative assembly of the State of Oregon in special session at the state capital, in Salem, on Monday, the 21st day of December, A. D., 1903, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, for the purpose of meeting the objections made by the supreme court to, and curing defects in an act entitled "An act to provide a more efficient method for the assessment and collection of taxes, and to amend sections 5057, 3090, 3082, 3084, 3085, 3090, 3093, 3109, 3107, 3112, 3116 and 3120, of BeHinger & Otton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon," passed by the legislative assembly of the State of Oregon, at its twenty-second regular session in 1903.
All who shall at the time hereinafter named be entitled to act as members of said legislative assembly must hereby be required to take notice.
Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Oregon, at the capital, in Salem, this 21st day of November, A. D., 1903.
GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN, GOVERNOR.

By the Governor:
F. L. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.
There are many indications that the republicans intend to keep the race question prominent as a political issue and members of Congress will have plenty of opportunity to express their opinions on the principles involved in permitting the negro to exercise political power. For the third time President Roosevelt has sent the nomination of W. D. Orum to the Senate, although that body twice refrained from taking action on the appointment of a negro collector of the port of Charleston, as such action was strongly condemned by the two Senators from South Carolina and the white people of the city. The President named Orum as a recess appointment and he has been serving several months. It is believed that the Committee on Commerce to which the appointment has been referred will report favorably on it.

From Collier's Weekly.
A rancher came up to Washington from the Southwest last session to see Congress at work. He at last today, of New Mexico, took him to one of the galleries in the lower house.
They sat together for an hour. Rodey pointed out the leaders on the floor and explained what was going on.
"There don't seem to be any great big men there," said the rancher.
"Perhaps not," Rodey replied, "but it is a mighty good, fair, average lot of big fighters."
"I see," said the rancher, "plenty of table-land, but no peaks."

What would happen if Teddy got hold of a lot of that food discovered by a Chicago professor which doubles the size of its eaters? No pent up isthmus would then be big enough to contain him.
Republican Congressmen from sugar beet districts made special arrangements to keep their records on straight without endangering the Cuban bill.
Great fortunes will be made by the holders of Panama bonds who are held by the rate of seven and a half.

In Memory

Of Fred Ellsworth, Killed Recently in a Railroad Accident.
Oh, dear old Freddie he has gone,
Crossed the river all alone,
He left behind all earthly ties,
And broken hearts and streaming eyes.
Tis hard to think his race is run,
E'er his life work had begun,
His life crushed out alas so soon,
His brightest sun gone down at noon.
What aspirations none can say,
Filled his manly breast that day,
Of pleasures great and sorrows few,
Of brightest paths where flowers grew.
But alas, the cruel hand of death
Strode in and robbed him of his breath,
Twas hard, how hard, no tongue can tell,
For friends to 'axe the last farewell.
They laid him down beneath the clay,
To wait the call of judgment day,
When friends shall meet to part no more,
On that eternal happy shore.
But God is good though sad we feel,
Earth has no sorrow He cannot heal,
He gives the wounded mourners rest,
And bids them lean upon His breast.
And now dear parents do not weep
For your dear Freddie's gone to Sleep.
GRANDMOTHER MAUPIN.

Roosevelt and Hanna.

In view of the announcement that Hanna is now a candidate himself for President the following from a Washington correspondent is full of interest:
The old political wheelhorses are laughing at Mr. Roosevelt's attempt to catch an old-timer like Senator Hanna with such palpably artificial bait. Mr. Roosevelt figures, and doubtless correctly that if he could get Senator Hanna to commit himself to remain at the head of the republican national committee and manage the next campaign he would remove Hanna as a possible rival candidate for the nomination. Assuming his own nomination to be certain, Mr. Roosevelt flatly asked Hanna to promise to retain the committee chairmanship, something never done by any candidate so far in advance of the nomination. What Hanna thought would make interesting reading. What he said was, of course, non-committal. Mr. Roosevelt then tried to get at Hanna through his man, Dick, telling him that he wanted Hanna for chairman and Dick far out of the vice-chairman—he wants two vice-chairmen so as to make ex-Gov. Crane, of Mass., one of them. Dick has been too well trained to commit either his boss or himself. So all that Mr. Roosevelt accomplished by trying to bind Hanna to his own political fortunes was to make the politicians laugh.

Daniel Frohman and some friend were discussing various theatrical matters in the lobby of the Lyric, when a stranger addressed them.
"I beg your pardon, gentlemen," said he, "but I'm a psychologist in search of information. I happened to overhear your conversation and presume you are connected with histrionic affairs. Can any of you tell me just what a stage kiss is? Of course, I mean its character, or kind."
Mr. Frohman declined to commit himself, but one of the party replied:
"Why, a stage kiss is about the same sort of a one a fellow's wife gives him when he comes home after losing his week's salary at the races."—World.

From "With the Procession" in the December Everybody's:
All the railroads that centre in Chicago have prohibited the use of liquor or tobacco by employees when on duty. Practically all the important railroads now concur in this prohibition. The Western Electric Company and numerous other great business concerns in the West forbid not only the use of liquor, but of cigarettes and the habit, now grown to an almost incredible extent among all classes of the community, of "playing the races." Business reasons thus make necessary the control or avoidance of habits against which moral reasons are too often helpless.

Henry Labouchere, editor of London Truth, doesn't think any more of the British passage than Henry Watterson does of the American "400."

There are a whole lot of us who are not likely to do any worrying because the American market is flooded with fake champagne.

Hanna is treading on Teddy's toes in trying to prevent the confirmation of the nomination of Leonard Wood to be major general.

"Nothing doing" will be the motto of the House for the remainder of the extra session. Members can go to the races every day.

Senator Foraker has denied that his name was pushing the House down in the smoking purpose.

A country editor called on me one day," said Clyde Fitch, "to ask my opinion about a play he had written. After talking a few moments he asked permission to wash his hands, as he had tumbled from a trolley car and gathered up morsels of the mud than he cared to carry home.
"Gimminy crips!" he exclaimed as he approached the wash basin, "do you see a clean towel every day? You ought to see the one I have in my composing room! Why, at the end of the week it looks as though it had been used to wipe the face of the earth!"

The following is handed the DEMOCRAT as worth republication:
"What became of your brother Charles? I regarded him as a very promising young man."
"I am ashamed to tell you. He fell into bad company, went from bad to worse, became involved in some dishonorable transaction and finally landed in the Missouri legislature. It broke father's heart."

Congressman Williams, the new democratic leader in the House, is right in the stand he had taken, that the decision of a party caucus should be binding upon all participants, and the sooner that policy is adopted by the democrats in both House and Senate the better it will be for the party.

Grange Meeting.

Harmony Grange No. 23, had a very pleasant meeting last Saturday, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a fairly large crowd was in attendance. Several questions were named for discussion, the most important being "Oyster Raising" which was ably discussed by J. M. Settle, W. S. Renner, Hon. F. D. Cornett, and others. The sisters of the order also made some very interesting remarks. The grange voted to have a "Basket Social" which will be held Saturday eve, Dec. 5, at the old "Dunkard church." Everybody come and bring baskets.
Oysters Served up any style.
You want them?
At Stetter's.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Foshay & Mason.

The Best Liniment

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered best liniment on the market," writes Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Va. No other liniment will heat a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Pooteville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind known of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious aftereffect. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system and the use of drastic cathartics like the old-fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Foshay & Mason.
Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are becoming a favorite for stomach troubles and constipation. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

The New York World

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the news all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise. It is, in fact, almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you cannot afford to be without it.

Republican and democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth. In addition to news, it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside. The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this year for 150 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the ALL-BEST DEMOCRAT together one year for $2.00.

MISFITS.

Oregon prunes against the world as the Live Oak of Albany first.
Mr. Hick's good weather, it is thought, has started in.
"Bully for Roberts!" is the heading of an item in the Toledo Leader.

Albany wants the carriage and towel factory. Establish it and make it a credit to the city.

Everybody should push for the carriage and organ factory. Factories like this make cities.

The Celestial rooster may crow Chinese pheasants are $1.25 to $1.50 per pair in Portland.

The special session will be confined to the tax law just as the Governor very properly insisted on.

The turkeys are making their last gobbles. The people are preparing to do the gobbling this week.

It is said there is no salmon law applying to Yaquina and that the fish may be caught almost any time—if you know how.

So many turkeys have been shipped away to Seattle and other points that local dealers have had to do some extra rustling for birds.

The U. of O. foot ball team are champions of Oregon colleges with no chance for a dispute. But Multnomah will carry off the state plum.

The city is being polled, indicating anxiety in connection with the coming city election.

Mr. Beals the government weather man is completely in a fog these days, missing it five times out of five.

The Eugene Register man raved over Florence Roberts as Zzz. Otto's heart was evidently broken into splinters.

The city has already paid $93.87 cents for its Broadalbin street come it cross walk, which has been boarded in order to enable it to settle—not the bill.

The Oregonian's gallin gun is now turned upon Congressman Williamson. This should have been done before his election.

Albany has expanded sufficiently for its name to appear on a shipment of prunes sent to London, England. Let the band play.

O. V. Hurt is reported to have shipped the Holy Rollers from his house near Corvallis. But this will not stop them. They will break out somewhere else.

The Holy Roller smoke at Corvallis has proven a good deal of an exaggeration. It transpires that the dog instead of being killed religiously was killed simply because he sucked eggs.

There may not be many Bernard Dufrenes in the U. S. men who have a wife at home and a paramour somewhere else, but there are some, and too many husbands who are as faithless as Dufrenes, and one doesn't have to go out of the U. S. or even Oregon, to find them.

This new alarm system is up-to-date, but it is feared it will never alarm any one very much in the middle of the night with its lazy, clock like stroke, no more energetic than the striking of the midnight hour. The clock fashioned stroke stirred people up, but no one knew where the fire was.

This Hanna boom is of course a paper affair. Though Hanna and Roosevelt are undoubtedly at outs personally there is little prospect of Hanna being a candidate and of course his denial is expected.

A libel suit against the Eugene Register by W. Lair Thompson, the well known foot ball referee and newspaper correspondent, may be looked for. The Register gives his name as follows: "W. Lair Thompson."

The Albany telephone exchange keeps expanding with a rush. But there is one place it is safe to say will never be so needed, the post office. Who would like to be P. M. with a telephone in the office. And yet it would save many a fruitless trip.

The Albany College Student recently gave the graduating years of five of the girls as 1937 to 2000 and intervening numbers. The girls have just received some fine orange and black pins with the dates designated upon them, accepting the joke at face value.

Letter List.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the Postoffice at Albany, Linn county, Oregon, Nov. 24, 1903. Persons calling for these letters must give the date on which advertised:
Bowen, Mrs. Walter S. Bickley, J. C. Crane, Mr. M. M. Bickney, A. P. Comid, Mr. Y. D. Holmes, Mr. D. H. Harben, Mr. J. S. (2) Kennedy, Mrs. Chas. Maxwell, Mrs. Hattie Massey, Mr. George Nelson, Mr. A. W. Owen, C. H. Renter, R. H. Smith, Mr. G. W. Ross, Mrs. S. Winters.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Colombians Mad.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The press of Columbia continues evenly to criticize and denounce the American Government for its action in the matter of Panama. This is shown in a dispatch received at the State department last night from Minister Desprez at Bogota.

A Vessel Wrecked.
SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—A special dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Juneau, announces that J. Bent, a passenger on the steamer Excelsior, Capt. in Moore, arriving today, reports that a mass of wreckage from the steamer Discovery was washed ashore at the mouth of Seal River. Bent's information makes it practically certain that the Discovery is lost and leaves little hope for either passengers or crew.

Desperado Captured.
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 22.—Sheriff Webb and Deputies Greenwood and Haines, of Natrona County, captured Tom Oday, the notorious survivor of the Curry gang of outlaws, on the summit of the Big Horn mountains, at daybreak today. Oday had twenty four head of stolen horses in a narrow ravine but his companions had deserted him.

The Senate and Cuba.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Senate will begin this week in a state of uncertainty as to whether a final adjournment of the extra session will be secured during the week, or the regular daily sessions continued. A majority of Senators are anxious to bring the session to a close, and to this end an agreement has practically been entered into for a vote December 16 on the Cuban bill.

Fulton's Committees.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Without exception Senator Fulton has been given better committee assignments than any Senator who is now entering upon his first term, and it is a matter of some comment that he, as a new man, is far better placed on committees than a number of Representatives who are now beginning their second term in Congress. His committees are Canadian relations, Public lands, Fisheries, Irrigation, Claims and Revision of the laws.

The Hanna Boom.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—There is a good deal of speculation as to what Senator Hanna intends to do politically in the Senate. It is known he has discouraged every effort to boom him for the Presidency, and has informed President Roosevelt he does not desire to take the chairmanship of the republican national committee next year.

Panama and Cuba.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Panama and Cuba engaged the attention of the Senate today to the exclusion of all other questions. Hale moved to reconsider the vote by which the Newlands joint resolution for the annexation of Cuba was referred to a committee and several speeches were made on the motion with out disposing of it.

The Chicago Strike.
CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Fierce fighting, in which the police used their clubs freely and twice their revolvers, marked the opening of the State-street cable line by the Chicago City Railway today. As far as can be learned, no one was seriously injured, although there were many broken heads among the rioters who came in contact with the clubs of the police.

Too Much Snow.
LEBANON, Nov. 23.—Henry Faulkner and party, who started over the mountains via the McKenzie route about three weeks ago, and about whom considerable anxiety has been felt, returned to this place yesterday. The storm overtook them at Lost Creek, 18 miles above the McKenzie bridge. After stopping there a few days they started across the mountains on horseback and got as far as the first summit where the snow was about 30 inches deep and decided to turn back.

Panama First.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Panama canal question was again the leading topic under discussion by the Senate, and Mr. Morgan was again the speaker of the day. He continued his review of the history of the efforts to secure an isthmian canal and declared that to the President's ambition to secure the credit of a unique administration must be credited the favoritism manifested by him toward the Panama route.

Will Support the Fair Bill.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Lewis and Clark Exposition project was success fully launched in Washington tonight at the banquet tendered by Senator Mitchell to 52 Senators, Representatives and other men of prominence at the Highlands. As a net result ten Senators stand absolutely pledged to vote for the pending Lewis and Clark bill, as do two Representatives, exclusive of members of the Oregon delegation.

The Armstrong Case.
SALEM, Nov. 24.—The Supreme Court today overruled the motion for a rehearing in the case of the State against Pleasant Armstrong, and the case is thus finally disposed of so far as the Supreme Court is concerned. The case will now go back to the Circuit Court for Baker county, and the question can be fought on in that tribunal whether Armstrong can be hanged under the statutes now in force.

Will Support Roosevelt.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Senator Thomas O. Platt and Governor Benjamin P. Odell of New York, have reached an absolute and entire agreement politically. Both will work in perfect harmony with each other and with President Roosevelt.

Ware Will Return.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—It can be announced that Eugene E. Ware, Commissioner of Penitents, will retire from that office by about the middle of November next, and will return immediately to the practice of law in Kansas.

Revolutionist Win.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—In a cablegram received here today from Minister Powell, dated Santo Domingo, November 23, he announced that the president of Santo Domingo had agreed to surrender the city to the revolutionists.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.
The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For burn, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Foshay & Mason, Burkhart & Lee.

The Pleasure of Eating.
Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for indigestion and dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilating and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Foshay & Mason, Burkhart & Lee.

Purgative Pleasure.
I never took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not grip, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says: "No better pill can be found than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold by Foshay & Mason.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE
The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored spots break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing.
