The ordinance committee was given further time on the ordinance providing for width of cement walks outside the cement district.

It was ordered that Broadalbin street from First to Water streets be graded and gravelled when the property owners have first put in their curbs and grade according to ordinance.

A communication from the Pacific Coast Association of fire chiefs in reference to the duties of chief engineers in small cities was read and referred.

Licenses to sell liquor were granted Carl Hodges, H. L. Oranor and James Gulley.

Cross walks were ordered built only to the curb line.

An ordinance covering the new fire alarm system was ordered prepared.

A resolution was passed providing for the building by the city of several cement sidewalks ordered heretofore.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Thanksgiving dinner at the Revere 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Dr. J. H. Erskine returned to Southern Oregon on last night's overland.

Ed Stewart of this city, was recently in a Chicago street car stoned by a mob.

Mrs. H. F. Smith and son, of Salem, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Blain.

Stowell Dawson is down street today on crutches, minus a foot and ankle but cheerful nevertheless.

Miss Alice Ross is home for the holidays after taking lessons in Portland on the guitar for some time.

Don Zan, the famous Portland tenor, has been in the city the guest of his brother M. P., with Father Metayer.

Rev. Louis Anderson, of Woodburn, has been in the city to make arrangements for some Woodburn boys to enter college.

Miss Emma Sox came up from Portland last night to spend the Thanksgiving season. She is greatly pleased with Prof. Dierk, her musical instructor.

Miss Florence Bennett, of San Francisco arrived in Albany last night on a visit the guest of P. A. Young and family, her second trip to Albany.

Mr. Frank Jordan, of Ashland and Miss Hannah Devise, of Lebanon, one of Linn county's finest young ladies, were recently united in marriage.

The DEMOCRAT man has received a very entertaining and readable private letter from Rev. O. R. Stevenson, of Vandergrift, Penn., formerly of this city. Mrs. Stevenson, nee Miss Mildred Burnham, who has been ill for some time, is improved, but is yet far from well. Their daughter Annetta is now sixteen months old and has charge of affairs in the household. The big steel mill in Vandergrift have never stopped, that being a favored place. The wages of the men, though, have been reduced twenty per cent.

Foot Ball To-Morrow.

The foot ball game to-morrow afternoon will be one of the best of the season. The Pacific University team has made a fine record this season, and Albany will have to hustle, though the general opinion is that the chances are in favor of the home team.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Everybody should go.

The second team went to Roseburg this afternoon to play Roseburg to-morrow and will line up as follows: Shaw at full, Blyden and Rowell half, McKeeher capt and quarter, French and Butler ends, Barnes and Waise tackle, Beam and Mcon guards, Weaver c., Zumalt and Davis subs., Walter Blyden manager.

Zaza Was Played

At the opera house last night to over one hundred people at $1.50, a number at $1 and a crowd at 50 cents. At the usual prices the house would have been packed.

The play is French, sensational and sensual, one which has been numerously criticised, like Sapho and Camille. It does though offer a big field for the actor. Miss Florence Roberts as Zaza gave an exhibition of as fine histrionic talent as has ever been presented here. Wonderfully natural she is a genius in comedy and emotion. She was well supported, particularly by Lucius Henderson as Bernard Dufrene, Fanny Young as the tipping Aunt Rosa, Wm Yerrance as Cascart and Virginia Brisson as Alice, a pretty character, whose purity was a redeeming feature in the story.

A very pleasant and welcome feature was the appearance of an orchestra composed of A. W. Marks, Owen Beam, Bert Westbrook, Del Burkharl and Miss Brenne, who furnished some excellent music.

IN AND AROUND ALBANY.

Thanksgiving dinner at the Revere 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

All the stores will close from 3 to 5 for the foot ball game.

Weather prediction: to-night and Thursday cloudy with probable occasional rain.

Born on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, to Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Winnard, a girl, Hurray.

Remember the benefit entertainment at the armory Friday night. A fine thing and something doing.

The four months old daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hodges died this morning of mumps and erysipelas.

T. Brink is receiving some very nice Christmas goods, and now is the time to make your friends a present.

Reserve the date Dec. 2nd for the Christmas Bazaar given in the Treadale Block by the U. P. Christian Endeavor.

According to custom the DEMOCRAT will not appear Thanksgiving evening. This is one of the three holidays we celebrate.

"The only way to beat a slot machine," said a man this morning, "is to keep your money in your pocket or use an axe."

Licenses have been issued for the marriage of Fred Seeha's and Myrtle L. Meeker, and Jas Newman and Sadie Logan and G. W. Hector and Mattie E. Warner.

The republicans claim on a poll of the city they have recently taken a majority of 200 in the city and an increase in all of 150 voters over the last city election.

At the Thanksgiving Service at the Cumberland Presbyterian church there will be a collection taken for the Ladies Aid Society to expend in helping the needy in our town. Let every one be prepared to help liberally.

J. R. Douglas has bought up a couple of car loads of onions and two car loads of potatoes for shipment to California, but is unable to secure cars yet for the shipment. The shortage seems to be as real as ever.

The Fraternal Union elected officers last night as follows: Ed J. Upham master, E. H. Livingstone justice, Mrs. McAlpin truth, Mrs. L. Morgan mercy, Mrs. Gilson secretary, D. F. Young treasurer, Margaret Livingstone protector, W. B. Gilson guide, Chas. Cochell guard, Miss Ireland sentinel, Mmes. Brown, Sears and Pray stewards.

Mr Rogers the Woodman

Mr. Geo. K. Rogers, State Deputy of the Woodmen of the World was in Albany a few hours today enroute to Brownsville where tomorrow evening he will dedicate the handsome new brick Woodman building erected by Brownsville Camp, and which is just completed. We understand that the Brownsville Woodmen have made very extensive arrangements for this event and that there will be Woodmen in attendance from all over the valley.

Mr Rogers will visit Albany Camp on Friday evening next and Harriburg on Saturday. They will have an initiation of several candidates, election of officers and a banquet. Inasmuch as Mr. Rogers is a fraternal speaker of note and is to take up matters of great interest to Albany Camp the attendance is certain to be very large.

FOR SALE—At $1.00 a piece each if taken soon, a few Buff Leghorn cockerels.

J. H. Cox Dead.

James Henry Cox died at his home at Post, Crook county, on Nov. 18, at the age of 50 years, of paralysis. He was an old resident of Linn county, residing at Knox's Butte for many years, moving from there to Crook county three or four years ago. He leaves a wife and no children. Many friends will regret the news of his death.

Mr. Cox was one of the charter members of the Albany lodge of Modern Woodmen, with a policy of $2,000 in favor of his wife.

HOW OLD IS ANN?

Only a short time left to bring in answers, all kinds of answers being brought in, mostly by the girls so boys hurry up, some one must get the answers.

HOW OLD IS ANN?

Mary is 24 years old, Mary is twice as old as Ann was when Mary was as old as Ann is now. How old is Ann.

Any school girl under 13 years of age bringing the first correct solution of the above problem before THANKSGIVING DAY will be fitted with the best pair of shoes in our store which means the best in town. Also any school boy bringing in the first correct solution will be fitted with the best pair of shoes in the house, NONE BETTER. Every answer must be sealed and will be placed on file, then on Thanksgiving Eve they will be taken from file and opened in rotation as they came in and the prizes awarded the first and girl giving correct solution.
