

Some World's Fair Point-ers.
Festival Hall, 200 feet high, in center of Cascade Gardens.
Palace of Varied Industries, 525 by 1,200 feet, cost $6,4,600.
Palace of Transportation, 550 by 1,300 feet, cost $696,000.
Seventy-five thousand yards of sod laid in Cascade territory.
Wireless telegraph station among great electrical exhibits.
Great Britain to reproduce the Orange of Kensington Palace.
The Art Palace, central structure permanent, cost $1,040,000.
The Pike, a mile long, concessions costing more than $5,000,000.
Thirty-five miles of asphalt and gravel roadways in grounds.
Inland Empire Exposition grounds, capacity for 400,000 persons.
United States Government's total appropriations, $6,473,000.
The Hermitage, Andrew Jackson's Tennessee home, reproduced.
Map of United States in growing crops, covers area of five acres.
Robert Burns' cottage at Ayrshire to be reproduced on grounds.
Ninety thousand gallons of water per minute flow over cascades.
Palace of Mines and Metallurgy, 625 feet, cost 0,000.
Forestry, Fish and Game Building, 300 by 600 feet, cost $171,000.
United States Government Building, 250 by 500 feet, cost $450,000.
General Grant's cabin in St. Louis county erected at Exposition.
Hospital perfectly equipped with surgical, physical and nursing.
Water in logwood system passes through the pumps every five hours.
Washington University Buildings, cost $1,000,000, used by Exposition.
Wild waterways, bearify the main picture, for gordolas and small craft.
California's State Building is a replica of the old Santa Barbara Mission.
Temple of Fraternity, 300 by 300 feet, headquarters for fraternal orders.
Cruciform, the Holy City, import an parts of which are faithfully reproduced.
Rabbit house over spring 100 years old water raised by old-fashioned well sweep.
Germany and America have competitive exhibits of forestry each five acres in extent.
A Washington Letter.
DAYTON, Wash., Nov. 28.
EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.

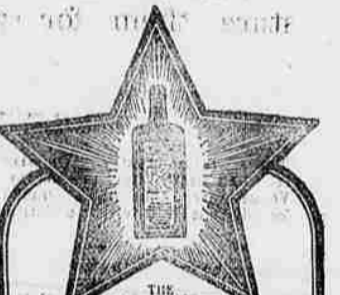

Sketch of the Life of the late John W. Gilmore.
The people of Oregon owe a debt of gratitude to the pioneer, that cannot be repaid. However, we can do to commemorate his bravery, his fortitude and the exposure of life and health he was forced to undergo. We can but admire his daring deeds and venerate and respect his memory. The explorations of Lewis and Clark is to be commemorated with a great international exposition and fair. But the sturdy pioneer who followed after; who peopled this Western coast; who forced the Indian back and into peaceful submission; who brought with them American traditions and love of Republican form of government and who made possible for the Federal government to claim this immense Northwest territory, by virtue of actual occupation by her citizens, a debt of gratitude is due that will last as long as the nation shall stand. Had it not been for the indomitable pluck and aggressiveness of their energetic and heroic early settlers, Oregon would be like British Columbia, an English colony. But the pioneer came; he saw; he conquered; and, in consequence, the Federal domain was enriched with territory out of which three large states have been erected and which is capable of supporting the population of an empire.
With the emigration of 1851 came John Wilson Gilmore and family, the subject of this sketch. He was born in Lincoln county, Kentucky, September 1813, very close to the spot where Daniel Boone made the first settlement of that state. In this county and in Christian county, Ky., he grew to manhood, received his very limited education, and learned the trade of blacksmith, in which he became quite expert. When quite a young man he was married to Miss Jane Bronough; of that state with whom he lived long and happily. The young couple, concluding that a tree state would afford their greater opportunities moved in the early '30's to Hancock Co., Illinois and settled at or near La Harpe. For several years they here experienced the privations and pleasures of the early settler. During this period the Mormon, having been driven from Missouri, settled and commenced building the city of Nauvoo, a new city of Zion, and which was but a short distance from the Gilmore homestead. The Mormons at first were welcomed by the then sparse population, and were treated in a neighborly manner. Had the Mormons been benefited by their Missouri experiences, and become honest law-abiding citizens, this neighborly treatment would have continued indefinitely. This, however, they failed to do and soon commenced the same practices of stealing, robbery and occasional murder, that had been the cause of their downfall in Missouri. They soon became so numerous in Hancock county, that they were enabled to elect county officers favorable to their peculiar institutions so that it soon became impossible to convict a Mormon of crime.
The gentiles, as the people were called by the Mormons, soon became so exasperated at these conditions, that they determined to follow the Missouri example and drive the Mormons out. This was difficult to do. The sympathy of Gov. Ford, then the governor of Illinois, seemed to be with the Mormons and as a result the effort to get rid of the objectionable citizens, had to be conducted without the sanction of the legal authorities. During the series of years covered by the trouble, matters gradually grew worse till, finally, the people rose in their might and, with the death of the Mormon prophet, Joe Smith, succeeded in starting the entire Mormon outfit for the West. In all of their difficulties Mr. Gilmore bore a very conspicuous part. So much so that he was, probably, the worst hated gentile of them all, from a Mormon viewpoint. Indeed, his life would have been forfeited had he fallen into their clutches.
In 1857, the stories of the remarkable fertility and salubrity of the Oregon country, proved so enticing to the Mormons that they with quite a numerous train, started westward from Fort Leavenworth in the early spring of that year. Mr. Gilmore was selected as wagon master of the train and filled the position with entire satisfaction to all.
After six months of arduous toil with the dangers and privations which usually occurred in "crossing the plains" in those days, our emigrants landed in Oregon. They settled temporarily in Washington county but in the following spring moved to Linn county, where a permanent settlement was effected. The donation land claim lies 3 1/2 miles west of Lebanon. During their first year or two in the new country they in common with others, experienced many vicissitudes and hardships.
As a sample, the wheat they had to buy for bread cost them six dollars per bushel. Farmers had not learned how to grow wheat without smut. So in order to make this wheat fit for bread it was washed, then dried and baked in an oven until brown, then ground with a coffee mill into a sort of chop and then baked into bread.
The Indians of the Willamette valley were generally peaceful and did not molest the settler to any great extent. Only one depredation in the way of petty thieving was attributable to them. An

STARVE THEM OUT!
Why not starve the germs to death? Scott's Emulsion will do it.
The germs of consumption are an invading army numbering millions upon millions; they must all be fed or they will soon die of starvation. A lung a little below "par" in vitality is just to their liking.
Why not put new life into it? Scott's Emulsion feeds the lungs. It fills the blood with nourishing food for all the weak parts. Good food means life. Life means resistive force.
Germs cannot live on healthy tissue. Scott's Emulsion and good fresh air drive out the germs of consumption.
We'll send you a sample free upon request.
SCOTT & BOWNE, 109 Fifth Street, New York.
Instances of some depredations by Sautam Indians caused complaint to be made by the settlers to their chief. He must have been a right thinking man, as he brought the two captives to the Gilmore house for punishment by the settlers. This was administered in the form of a sound whipping. The captives were strapped to staving horses to receive punishment. Dr. G. F. Crawford and A. Wishard were the birch wielders. Mr. Gilmore conducted a blacksmith shop on the homestead and manufactured most excellent plows. These were sold to the settlers for a dollar.
When the Rogue river Indian war broke out, Mr. Gilmore as wagon master and a number of his neighbors with their ox teams, were employed by the government to transport supplies from the Willamette valley to the seat of war. This was done, at times under hazardous and dangerous circumstances. For this laborious work, but partial payment has ever been made.
When the STATE RIGHTS DEMOCRAT was started in Albany, Mr. Gilmore was one of its backers, contributing money time after time until it was able to stand alone, and was a continuous patron.
At the Gilmore home modern spiritualism first made its appearance in Oregon. The mediums, two of the younger children, produced manifestations that convinced the most skeptical and demonstrated to a certainty that "Death does not end all." Mr. Gilmore was one of these converts to Spiritualism and to which he adhered to the time of his death. Some 20 years ago the wife was buried, since which time Uncle Johnny, as his friends and acquaintances called him, has made his home with a son and daughter at Silverton. Occasionally, long visits were made to his children in Washington. During the last of these visits, his demise occurred at Ellensburg, at the home of his eldest son. His illness was brief, lasting but for four days and was doubtless caused by the collapse that extreme old age surely brings. Three sons and two daughters survive him; the wife, one son and three daughters, having preceded him to the Great Beyond.
Uncle Johnny Gilmore was, notably a kind husband and affectionate father and an honorable, upright citizen. He had faults, (who has not for that matter) but his numerous good qualities covered them with the mantle of charity. Let us rather remember his ever open hearted hospitality, his charity and sympathy for the sufferings of all whom he came in contact.
A FRIEND.
Shears and Scissors at J. Ohling and Hulbert's.
The BEST line of Heaters, at Ohling and Hulbert's.
CASTORIA.
Bears the Signature of Charles H. Fletcher
The fisherman, the sailor, the yachtsman and every body, is liable to sudden attacks of cholera, cramps, sudden colds, or chills from exposure.
Painkiller
Acts like magic for cholera, cramps, sudden colds, or chills from exposure.
Take no substitute. Price 25c. a box.

MISFITS.
Now leave the Celestials alone for ten months.
This has been a season of bazars and more in sight.
Portland will have to get a hotel move on before the big fair.
The Democrat predicts the extra session will last over ten days.
There is a big beam on the face of Salem people, caused by the extra session ordered.
Hodgins and Finnegan are reported to have formed a partnership in the grubbing business.
After reading of the lawlessness of Chicago, Oregonians have reason to congratulate themselves.
The Portland Journal refers to Ex-Governor Geer as the tall-tale of the Santiam. Look up your geography. Geer is the Waldo Stearns.
The famous DeMoss family are now on their thirty-second annual tour in order to relieve a strain on the public mind it needs to be stated that they are now on the other side of the Cascades.
The law allows twenty days for an extra session of the state legislature. The Democrat predicts the whole time will be taken, regardless of promises made the Governor. Too many grafters in the body.
Senator Mitchell has his shoulders under the Lewis and Clark appropriation bill and something will have to stir. It will go through unless the administration wants to defeat it for eastern election thunder.
The Silver Lake Oregonian has thirty holdings of timber land notices, some having eight or ten names in a notice, for each of which the robber price $15 is charged, $5 more than anywhere else, and the officials allow the graft.
Cottage Grove has two papers, the Leader and Nugget. The Nugget was republican and the Leader democratic, but it is not thusly now. Under new management both have flopped, and the Leader is republican and the Nugget democratic.
There were fourteen passenger trains in Albany yesterday. We are IT. Albany Democrat. Poor Albany. All they have to do down there is to watch the passing passenger trains enroute to live cities.—Eugene Guard.
Yes, and incidentally take care more freight than any city in the valley.
The Salem Journal says hobos are plentiful in Albany, but the fact is the same hobos do all the valley towns and are just as plentiful in one town as another, except that the police may have different policies. Here they are made to pass on or get a dose of bread and water.
The Portland Lantern says that the husband of a missionary lady, now in Portland, is running a saloon in the English colony at Tien Sing, China, where she has been doing missionary work. There is something tropical about that item, certainly an exception to missionary work.
The Eugene Register declares that the U. of O. got a dirty deal from Multnomah and that all relations will hereafter be broken and there will be no more Thaksgiving games between the teams. The truth is no college club stands any show against Multnomah on her own grounds, and if necessary the dirtiest tactics will be used. Oregon colleges might do well to combine and drop Multnomah.
Howard & Price's Bargains.
35 acres near Albany. House, barn, good orchard. Short time, $2600.
1 1/2 acres 3 miles from town. New house and barn, nearly all plow land of good quality, all fenced, nearly 10 acre timber. All for $4000.
124 acres 4 miles from Albany. Good house and barn, all fenced, 60 acres under the plow, balance pasture. Price $32 per acre.
160 acres, 50 acre in cultivation, small house, good barn, 1 1/2 miles to school, rural delivery mail, 5 miles to Lebanon. Price $22 per acre.
Team, harness and hack very cheap not much over half the worth. Call for prices.
Howard & Price's.
Piano and Organ Bargains at Anderson's Music House
New organs direct from Carpenter Factory $50.00 and up in dark oak or Walnut. One Newman Bros. octave organ $87.00. High grade upright piano dark oak case $175.00. Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines. Expert piano tuning. Phone Black 621. Address 208 Ferry St. Albany Oregon.
A Snap.
Do you want to purchase a nice home cheap and on your own terms? Ten years time without interest given to pay for this property. If you mean business address with stamp P O Box 126, City.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.
Cheating the Government.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—At last the long-looked-for report of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, J. L. Britton, is given to the public.
The total amount that the perpetrators of fraud themselves received cannot be definitely learned, but it will aggregate between $300,000 and $400,000, while the loss to the government, considering the unnecessary supplies that have been purchased and the inferior quality of those furnished by fraudulent contractors, cannot be estimated with any degree of accuracy.
A Baker City Murder!
BAKER CITY, Nov. 29.—Chief of Police Kilbourn was assaulted by James Welch this morning at 9 o'clock and fatally injured. Kilbourn arrested Welch for being drunk and disorderly on the street and took him to the city jail.
While searching him Welch suddenly turned on Kilbourn & knocked him down, jumped on him, breaking three ribs and kicking out all his teeth.
More Murders.
CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Peter Neidermeier, one of the members of the quartet of young bandits who the last six months have terrorized Chicago, in another confession today added several more crimes to the long list already charged against him and his companions, Vandine, Mark and Rosell.
Some Lynching.
SHERBROOK, La., Nov. 29.—Unconfirmed reports from Pelcher, where Robert Adger, a prominent planter and business man, was shot down by negroes last night, are to the effect that three of the negroes have been caught and identified and by this time have doubtless been lynched.
Stopped War Talk.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Dr. Herwin, the Colombian Minister, has silenced all the members of the Reyes party and the Bolivar commission. The Colombians are now holding warm conferences, in which they are attempting to find out just what steps should be taken to bring the South American republic out of the present squabble in the best form.
Our Bill.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Senator Mitchell is making arrangements to have the Senate committee on industrial exhibitions give his bill for the Lewis and Clark Fair a hearing. It will take place some time during the second week of the regular session, the week of December 14 and 19. Senator Fulton, Representative Williamson and Herwin will also make arguments before the committee at that time.
The Tacoma All Right.
SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 30.—The official trial trip of the protected cruiser Tacoma which was built at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, took place in the Santa Barbara Channel to under favorable conditions. The average speed made during the trip was 16.60 knots an hour.
A Good Showing.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The annual report of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has been submitted to the President. Secretary Wilson reviews at length the production and exports of agricultural products. The increase of exports of farm products for the half century ended 1901 was from $147,000,000 to $952,000,000. The exports of farm products for the closing decade of the last century were over $700,000,000 and for 1903 over $878,000,000.
An Important Decision.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The Supreme Court of the United States affirmed today the constitutionality of the 8 hour law of the State of Kansas regulating labor on public works. Justice Harlan said in handing down the opinion that if the statute is mischievous the responsibility rests with the Legislature and not the courts. Chief Justice Fuller and Justices Brewer and Peckham dissented.
A Holy Roller.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—Henry M. Boggs, who says that he fled from Oregon to escape persecution at the hands of the "Holy Rollers", a fanatic religious sect, was given lodging at the City Prison last night.
Boggs is 62 years old and claims to be a spirit medium.
Taken Up.
25 head of Cotswold sheep, stuce 10th of October. Owner can have them up on payment of pasturage and expenses, by calling upon Hiram Parker.

Hermann's Committee.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—After a conference with Senator Cannon this morning Representative Hermann abandoned hope of securing an appointment on the rivers and harbors committee. The Speaker, however, asked him if he would like an assignment on insular affairs, the committee handling Philippine legislation, and Hermann assured him if he could not secure the place of his first choice that insular affairs would be quite satisfactory.
Will Be Settled.
PARIS, Dec. 1.—The Associated Press learns that Japan and Russia are on the verge of a settlement of the Far Eastern controversy, which promises to dissipate the war cloud that has been hanging over both countries. This settlement will be the result of the negotiations which have been impending for some time past, and which were assisted by the friendly representations of France to Russia and of Great Britain to Japan.
Dowie Bankrupt.
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Financial difficulties, which began during the crusade of John Alexander Dowie, the self styled "Elijah H.", and his restoration host to New York a month ago, and which have been rapidly increasing since Dowie's return, culminated tonight in the Federal Courts taking possession of all property controlled by Dowie in Zion City, Ill.
Just Married and Arrested.
SPokane, Dec. 1.—Arrested on his wedding day, in his wedding garments, in company with his promised bride, C. H. Newman, alias H. C. Miller, was taken into custody, a little before noon today at the Palace department store by Detective McErmont.
The young man was caught in the act of passing a worthless check on the dry goods company in exchange for wedding purchases, made by his betrothed.
For an Assay Office.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Senator Mitchell has received from the Oregon Miners' Association, of Sumpter, a strong recommendation in support of legislation establishing an assay office at some point in Oregon. In replying to this letter, Senator Mitchell says he has already introduced a bill establishing an assay office at Portland and he has hopes that this bill will pass.
Failed Fair!
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The House, after being in session for a little more than an hour today, adjourned until Friday. The time was chiefly consumed in a tariff debate.
Oysters Served up any style? You want them! At Stetter's.

THE STAR OF HEALTH
KODOL digests what you eat!
KODOL cleanses, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach.
KODOL cures indigestion, dyspepsia, and all stomach and bowel troubles.
KODOL accelerates the action of the gastric glands and gives tone to the digestive organs.
KODOL relieves an overworked stomach of all nervous strain, gives to the heart a full, free and untrammeled action, nourishes the nervous system and feeds the brain.
KODOL is the wonderful remedy that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by giving to their bodies all of the nourishment that is contained in the food they eat.
Your Dealer Can Supply You.
Bottles only, $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.
PREPARED ONLY BY E. C. DEWITT & CO., CHICAGO

At Burkhardt & Lee's
SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.
Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint.
Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.
No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.
S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.
THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
Scrofula appeared on the head of my little granddaughter when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent. It was then that we decided to try S. S. S. The medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a strong, healthy, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.
MRS. RUTH BERRY, Salina, Kan.
150 South 5th Street.

Shoe Repairing.
First class work at reasonable prices at the up-to-date shoe repair shop, located in The Star Shoe Store, opposite First National Bank. Ladies shoes specialty.
W. C. Burns.
Our stock of H. C. C. new complete and we make a specialty of repairing shoes. Respectfully,
C. E. BROWN.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
Four weeks ago accompanied by my wife and daughter we left Tangent for a visit with our daughter who lives in Moscow, Idaho.
We stopped on the way and visited with Mr. A. O. Morgan and family who once lived near Tangent, where we spent a short time at their home in Douglas Morrow county, Oregon. While there we indulged in a rabbit hunt in the Sand hill and sage brush, where we had the opportunity of shooting blackleg rabbits for a couple of hours. We succeeded in getting 22 rabbits when we left for home having been deprived of our dinner we all felt inclined to return.
We left Douglas on the 7th and the next day arrived at Moscow, where we were warmly welcomed by our children. Moscow is near the size of Albany and is located on the Palouse river, and is surrounded by high hills which constitute the farming part of the country. The ground is a rich, loose soil and is easily tilled, and produces large crops of grain and vegetables. The weather was very disagreeable. While we were there the ground was covered with snow during our entire visit, so we cannot say just how we like the country. The orchards are often on the highest hills and seem to grow and bear well. The trees are free from moss and look quite different from the orchards in western Oregon.
We visited the home of Mr. D. S. Bridgman who moved from Tangent a year ago, found them all well and seemingly well pleased with the arrival of a new girl in the family. Uncle Jesse McGhee lives with them and is as jovial and friendly as when he used to live in Webfoot. They seem well pleased with their new home and to say that they were surprised and pleased to see us does not begin to express it. Our visit to them was short but pleasant, and the time for us to say good-by came altogether too soon. We left Moscow for Dayton, Wash., for a visit with my sister who resides in that pleasant little town. Of the remainder of our trip I will write later on.
J. H. Scott.