Engagement Announced.

From the Eugene Register: At a reception given by Mrs. C. A Burden, 510 Lincoln street, yesterday the engagement of Miss Stella Robinson to Dr. C. Y. Littler of Albany was announced. Significance of the occasion was fittingly carried out in the conduct of the affair. The decorations of flowers and foliage were artistically fashioned to represent hearts. The forthcoming nuptial event was further emphasized in the card pastime of hearts. The rooms were done in pink. Favours of the tete-a-tete luncheon were valentines, elaborately fabricated bearing in appropriate verse the nuptial tidings. Eda and Hazel Humphrey daintily served the guests. Mrs. Smith and Miss Church secured the heart trophies. The guests were: Mesdames J. F. Robinson, R. H. Dearborn, P. E. Snodgrass, L. L. Whitson, Emma Thompson, R. S. Bryson, L. L. Goodrich, Geo. H. Smith, Miss Ada and Ruby Hendricks, Louise and Elizabeth Yoran, Ermine Church, Bessie and Kate Kelly, Dollie Ankeny, Carrie Paine, Lulu Renshaw, Eva and Maude Stinson, Carris Hall, Rosalia and Friendly.

Death of Lake Dorris.

M. L. Dorris died in Southern California on Tuesday at the age of 37 years, of bronchial trouble, generally reported to have been consumption. He was born at Scio in this county, coming with his parents to Albany when a boy. He clerked in stores at Albany, Corvallis, Independence and Eugene. On account of ill health he was obliged to discontinue his work at Eugene and went to California hoping for benefit from a change. He leaves a wife, now at Independence, a mother, Mrs. Ellen Dorris, of 623 West Tenth street, this city, and several brothers and sisters, being one of a family of twelve children. He was a member of the Odd Fellows. The remains will be brought to Albany for burial besides those of his father, who died about fifteen years ago.

Highway Robbery at Lebanon

From the Criterion: The insurance agents at this place have received notice from the Board of Underwriters of the Pacific, that hereafter the rates on all of the risks on the east side of Main street between Grant and Sherman streets will be 8 per cent. This is only in keeping with the other rates of the town as other risks in the town are as high as 7 per cent. The Board has become very arbitrary in the matter and propose to squeeze the last drop of blood out of our people. The present rates are nothing more than highway robbery.

GRAFTS.

Take no note of a man of doubtful credit. The person who winks when sitting for a photograph gets a reply in the negative. Barbed wire has stopped a good many Oregon politicians from being on the fence. Gamblers are still on deck. A bent pin is often a turning point in a boy's life. The sayings of some Albany men would take more space than their doings.

Wood Curtis & Co. are making steady shipments of produce from Albany for the California markets and as well as receiving car load lots of California fruits and goods for the valley trade. Albany is proving a good business center for the commission business. The Journal reports a fight in the Elk-head saloon at Salem that was of a very vicious order. Jack Kearns attacked Ben Dice. Dice knocked Kearns down twice in a very cool manner, and upon Kearns again coming to the attack got mad and knocked him down again. The claret flowed. Both men are said to be shoulder strikers.

FRIDAY.

A Very Young Couple.

From the Portland Journal: Surrounded by a number of clerks, gapping in astonishment, a boy and his mother stood in the county clerk's office this morning trying to get a license to wed a girl 16 years old. Bert Hower, the applicant, and his mother say he is 20 years of age, but he looks not more than 15. The boy and his mother live in Albina. They say he has made his own living for years as a lather and is well able to support a wife. The girl in the case, Nina Moore, is the daughter of a railroad man living at Albany and has been employed as domestic by the Howers for two months. "My boy's father is dead," said Mrs. Hower. "Nina's mother is dead. Her father has written her he is willing for the children to marry and I have no objection. He is a good boy and can take care of her."

Both the boy and his mother were keenly disappointed when informed by Clerk Frasp that they would have to get the father of the girl to address a letter consenting to the prospective union.

Mr. Robert Moore, father of the young lady, went to Portland this morning to look after the matter. He does not intend to give his consent to the marriage, believing his daughter is too young. He learned of the affair last night for the first time, upon being shown the Journal.

AN EDITOR'S EXPERIENCE

In the Treatment of Humours with More Than Magical Effect with

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

A Remarkable Testimonial from a Most Intelligent and Trustworthy Lady.

"A tumor came on my neck and in a day or two it was as large as half an orange. I was very much alarmed for fear it was malignant. My friends tried to persuade me to consult my physician; but dreading that he would insist on using the knife, I would not consent to go. Instead, I got Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Ointment. I took the former according to directions, and spread a thick layer of the Ointment on the swelling. On renewing it I would bathe my neck in very warm water and Cuticura Soap. In a few days the Cuticura Ointment had drawn the swelling to a head, when it broke. Every morning it was opened with a large sterilized needle, squeezed and bathed, and fresh Ointment put on. Pus and blood, and a yellow, cheesy, tumorous matter came out. In about three or four weeks' time this treatment completely eliminated the tumor. The soreness that had extended down into my chest was all gone, and my neck now seems to be perfectly well."

"About five or six years ago my sister had a similar experience, used the Cuticura Remedies with magical effect. I am willing you should use my testimonial, with the further privilege of revealing my name and address to such persons as may wish to substantiate the above statements by personal letter to me." Chicago, Nov. 19, 1902.
