

THURSDAY.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

The annual reunion and banquet of Albany College was held last evening in the basement of the United Presbyterian church.

After a short social session seventy-one people sat down to five well arranged and neatly spread tables, the members of the alumni taking their places in classes.

A delicious menu was served, consisting of clear tomato soup, pressed veal, sliced ham, olives, potato salad, pickles, rolls, jelly, chicken salad, salted wafers, strawberry ice cream, cake, coffee and salted almonds.

Gale S. Hill, '97, officiated as toastmaster with a dryness and urbanity that put a life into affairs rarely seen in a banquet.

During the evening Miss Hattie Parker added much to the enjoyment of the occasion with some choice music.

Obituary.

Elmira May Farlow, aged 11 years 10 months and 17 days, died at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Farlow in Syracuse precinct, on Sunday June 12th, 1904.

She had been ill for several months but bore her sufferings patiently till death came as a welcome relief.

Besides her parents she leaves a sister and brother and a host of relatives and friends who mourn her untimely death.

Rev. Silas Williams conducted the funeral services in a beautiful and impressive manner.

Go to thy rest, fair child, Go to thy dreamland bed, While yet so gentle, undefiled, With blessings on thy head.

Ere sin had seared thy breast Or sorrow waked the tear, Rise to thy throne of changeless rest, In your celestial sphere.

Shall love with weak embrace, Thy upward wing detain? No! gentle angel, seek thy place Amid the cherub train.

AN APOLLO REUNION.

Last night at the home of Mr. E. E. Goff occurred a reunion of what used to be quite a factor in the musical and social circles of Albany and vicinity. This was the Apollo Club, composed of 42 men at one time or another, organized in March 1890. It gained an enviable reputation throughout the state, appearing on programs in many towns.

Those who remember it in its halcyon days will never forget the great trip to Newport, and the three days entertainment it gave there at the State Teachers Association, much to the delight of State Superintendent McElroy, and the vexation of Prof. Hawthorne, who as chairman was trying to rush the program.

At one time the club purchased imitation horns, and appeared as a full fledged brass band, much to the astonishment and delight of the natives.

Another time the club essayed the base ball role, appearing in the field against the Philharmonic Club, with C. H. Hart as captain. 'The Apollos' won the battle after a hard struggle, 'so says the imperishable record, and it was 'moved and seconded that the librarian be custodian of the ball.'

Only eleven answered to roll call last night, but the singing was as hearty as of yore, and the old songs warmed the cockles of the heart, and stirred the blood to such a fever heat, that even 'the old man' wanted to 'sing it again.'

'Oh, that once could see her I would then wish to see her, A thousand times again.'

Tasty refreshments closed a most happy evening, and the old club moved out into the darkness of the night and dispersed.

Those present were: President Lee, C. W. Sears, S. N. Steele, Dr. J. C. Littler, Geo. S. Acheson, E. E. Goff, A. M. Hammer, Wm. Fortmiller, Fred Fortmiller, of this city and Rev. E. R. Prichard, of Aberdeen, Wash. In the city except F. J. Miller, who left on the night train for the east and F. E. Allen. Old members scattered over the world are C. H. Hart, Eugene, J. E. Miller, Portland, C. E. Hawkins, Toledo, Collins, Elkins, Lyle, Rev. H. W. Young, Seattle, Postmaster Concklin Sodaville, Frank Concklin Hanford, Calif., A. W. Thompson Los Angeles, C. A. McFarland, Hanford, Calif., Sherman Thompson, Wash., C. C. Goldsworthy and L. D. Miller, addresses unknown, and Geo. H. Keeney, J. J. Charlton and O. H. Irvine, deceased.

Base Ball.

Albany defeated Roseburg yesterday 8 to 7 in a close and exciting game. Gregory and Howard both pitched for Albany and Reed for Roseburg.

Sullivan, who had a grievance with Albany left the club, played left field in the game for Roseburg taking the place of Nadler, who left Roseburg on account of some grievance. Rupert and Bilyeu were the other fielders for Roseburg.

The Oswill brothers have been released by Eugene, and Streib of the Oakland, brother of Oakland's first base man secured.

At Salem the splendid team of that city shut out the Eugenes 12 to 0, worse than any drubbing given Albany. Calif pitched for Salem and McFarland for Eugene.

Next Sunday the K. O. T. M.'s will play one of the best teams in the country, under the management of John Barrett.

Albany is now in second place. The standing of the clubs is: Salem, 687; Albany, 555; Eugene, 550; Roseburg, 321.

Roseburg and Albany will play base ball carnival week. On Thursday and Friday the Dixie Co. will close all their shows but one during the games and furnish a band for the music.

There will be something doing next week, for the carnival is coming.

Ben Clelan returned this noon from Seal Rock, where he placed the three thousand greylings in the fresh water creeks near there.

Upon complaint of her husband Mary E. Shimanek, of the Bohemian district near Seio, was committed to the asylum this afternoon. Drs. Trimble and Wallace and Judge Palmer were the examining committee. Eleven years ago she was in the Nebraska asylum, but had recovered. Her treatment at home was not what it should have been.

Mr. McIlwain's Condition.

The condition of Mr. Henry F. McIlwain, accidentally shot near this city yesterday noon, remains about the same, and is critical. The call has not been found, and only developments can be awaited. Recovery depends upon the absence of peritonitis, which is always feared in such a case.

The wound is said to be almost the same as the one resulting in the death of President McKinley. The president was shot on September 6, 1901, and died on Sept. 14, living eight days.

It is earnestly hoped that a different turn may result for the better, but the danger is in blood poisoning.

The particulars of the accident show that Mr. McIlwain was behind some bushes, in a different place than supposed, when Mrs. McIlwain shot at a bird, the ball striking her husband. He was leaning over as shown by the direction of the ball. The devoted wife has been nearly prostrated by the unfortunate accident.

Death of Mrs. Pat Farrell.

County Treasurer Elkins at 6 o'clock last evening received a message from Woodburn announcing the death of his sister Mrs. Julia A. Farrell. It was sudden and unexpected as Mrs. Farrell had not been seriously ill. Mr. Farrell was at the Bay doing some marble work. He passed through the city for home this noon.

Mrs. Farrell was 60 years of age. She was born in Ohio and came to Oregon in 1852, where she was married. She lived with her family for many years in Eugene and then in Albany, a few years ago moving from here to Woodburn. She leaves a husband and two daughters Misses Lizzie and Lillian. The remains will be brought to Albany for burial, and the funeral will probably be held here on Sunday. Mrs. Farrell was a member of the Rathbone Sisters of this city.

A Pony Runaway.

This forenoon the pony team of P. B. Marshall had a live runaway. They were in his yard and started alone for the barn, but instead of going there took a fast hike around the yard, and before they were through had torn the buggy into small pieces. Drayman Nimmo was secured, and after some hunting secured the different sections and brought them up street for repairs.

CUTICURA

Soap, Ointment and Pills the World's Greatest Skin Cures.

PRICE THE SET $1

Complete Treatment for Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them.

The greatest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against monied hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale. In every clime and with every people they have met with the same reception. The confines of the earth are the only limits to their growth. They have conquered the world.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, etc. Sold in boxes of 25 Pills, 25c. per box of 50 Pills, 50c. per box. Depot: London, 27, Chancery Lane, E.C. 4. Paris, 2, Rue de la Paix, 2e. New York, 15, N. 5th St. Boston, 22, Cornhill. Philadelphia, 12, Chestnut St. Send for "A Book about Cuticura."
