

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

A comparison of the names on the local option petition revealed 71 names not entitled to a place on the petitions 570 remained, over 100 more than is necessary to submit the question to a vote.

Deeds recorded: City Cemetery Association to Della Hulce, 1 lot $20 Mary Ada Gilber to B F Harless, 8505 square feet near Brownsville 425 J. Larsen guardian to Carrie F. Larsen, 100 acres 50

Real estate mortgage for $1000. Chattel mortgage for $90. Cancellations for $141 and $300.

Probate: Final settlements in estate of L. Sanders, Wm. Uber and Samcel Glass.

6033 receipts have been given on the 1903 tax.

Table listing school funds for various districts: Albany $1910.82, Lebanon 714.59, Brownsville 381.42, etc.

Tom Parker's Bakers.

Extracts from Cottage Grove Leader: Tom Parker, the popular baker and confectioner, is an enthusiastic hunter. Last week he went into the tall timber in search of the elusive and fleet-footed, gazelle-eyed and extremely edible deer.

For the term of his absence he left in charge of the bread foundry a baker, to whom there came, in an evil hour, two itinerant vagabonds, seeking drink, shelter and wherewith to line the interior of their anatomical organisms.

At the Depot.

A new coal bunker is being erected just east of the depot, preparatory to the use of coal, already the fuel on some of the trains.

A County Institute.

A county institute will be held in Albany Nov. 21-23. The instructors will be State Superintendent Ackerman, W. E. Hertrant, superintendent of King County, Wash., President Ressler and Critic Rice, of Monmouth, Prof. Hays, of the Albany schools and Superintendent Jackson. Lecturers will be secured.

Senator Jones came over from Toledo this noon. Ed. Hogue, of the Salem Journal, spent Sunday in Albany. Dr. M. M. Davis, of the Yaquina-Newport steamship line, came over this noon.

Mr. James Johnson and family have moved to the Johnson farm near Peoria to reside. C. W. Sears has gone to the world's fair to see the big sights and also to visit eastern relatives.

Miss Lida Rumbaugh, of Portland, spent Sunday in Albany on a visit with relatives and friends. Rolly Ramp passed up the road for Roseburg this afternoon. He has sold his Salem butcher shop.

AN AUTOMOBILE

Frightens a Horse and Causes an Accident.

Henry and Oran, sons of S. H. McElmurry, of Lebanon, were returning home Saturday evening from a visit with their grandmother, and were near the home of W. W. Crawford, when they met G. H. Bruckman of this city, with his brother and another man in the former's automobile.

The Young People's Union

Of the Baptist church held a rally yesterday afternoon. Preliminary to it on Saturday evening there were addresses by Rev. C. L. Bauer and L. W. Riley, and Sunday morning a sermon by Rev. Riley.

The Sunday afternoon rally's program consisted of an opening devotional service, a talk by Mrs. C. E. Standard of Brownsville on the relationship of the young people to the missionary societies, remarks by Rev. Elmore of Brownsville on the work in the country churches, a paper on the devotional committee by Miss Foshay, Miss Standard on the social committee, a talk on the Christian culture course by Rev. Douglas and a discussion of the most important part of the young people's work.

An Escaped Wife.

Mr. Hartley, of Corvallis, the victim of two members of his family being Holy Rollers, was in the city this forenoon looking for his wife, a Roller, not yet sent to the asylum. She had left a note saying that she could not comply with his home restrictions in reference to Holy Rollerism, and it was thought that she had come here, but later a message was received saying that she had been found in the city in hiding. It will probably be necessary to also take her to Salem, where there is a daughter in the asylum.

A Trip Around the Northwest.

Mr. Cam Vandepool, of Benton county, was in the city today for the first time since his trip around Oregon and Washington. He went to Redding, Calif., and thence across the mountains into the Klamath country and back up west side into Washington, and then home, being about three months, traveling nearly fifteen hundred miles, over four hundred of it by stage. While gone he visited a good many Vanderpool families, making the young people presents, as mementoes of the visit, of fifteen gold rings and seven watches.

Born.

On Saturday evening, October 1, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Churchill a girl. Number one. All doing well.

A couple of school girls wish places where they can work for their board.

The Endowment Rank K. of P. paid Mrs. Virgil Parker, beneficiary, $1000 on Saturday evening.

A Nye Creek sale is A. B. Slauson and wife, of Washington, D. C., to E. B. Miles, 1 lot $50.

Laban Case, aged over 80 years, is lying at the point of death at the home of his son, E. R. Case, the barber.

Col. Sobieski, a well-known orator, will deliver a temperance address at the Baptist church next Saturday evening.

Mr. Henry Murphy, who was kicked at Bussard's by a horse Saturday afternoon, left for his home at Bunea Vista today, pretty lame from the experience.

Mrs. J. T. Custer and family left today for Eugene, where Mrs. Custer has bought a residence and will reside. Most of her relatives reside in Lane county.

Miss May Withers of Lebanon returned home this morning after an Albany visit, in which she was the guest of Miss Pet Marshall of the public schools and Miss Emma Sox of the college.

Mrs. Kola Neis, upon whom an operation was performed a week ago, is at Mrs. Neeland's hospital seriously ill, peritonitis having set in. There are hopes though for her recovery.

A meeting of the Thursday Musical Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Mrs. Norton's studio in Fremont Hall. All active members are requested to be present. Election of officers.

The train from the front which arrives at 5:45, continues the trip to Corvallis, after the arrival of the 7:10 train, leaving here at 7:15, and arrives in the morning at 6:45, leaving for the front at 7 o'clock. It will carry mail.

Fred Edwards and Horace McBride, two of Condon's leading farmers, were in the city on their way home from Corvallis, where they had been to play football in the initial game of their Alma mater.

Dr. Cynthia Ramsey returned Saturday evening from St. Louis, coming back by way of Los Angeles, where she spent two or three weeks. While in the world's fair city she took a special course which will materially assist her in her practice.

All the friends of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Wire, regardless of denomination or age, are invited to attend a farewell reception tomorrow evening at the residence of Dr. C. V. Littler, at Broadway and 7th streets, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

F. H. Pfeiffer Saturday secured his ten days, and was preparing to start for home, when the bag was found to have disappeared. It was not recovered until after reaching Albany, when a little Sherlock Holmes astuteness brought the missing birds to light.

HOTEL BURNED.

Detroit's Only Hotel Destroyed.

Word was received on the train from the front Saturday evening that the only hotel at Detroit, had gone up in flames. Saturday morning the frame structure was discovered in flames, which spread so rapidly that only a small amount of furniture could be gotten out. Those in the building escaped by quick work. The property was owned by Griff King, who also owned part of the furniture, the remainder being owned by the lessee Ed Heath. The building was insured for $900 and the furniture was insured.

A Eugene lawyer was fined $5 last Saturday for being drunk and disorderly.

Another water spout above Mitchell, Crook county, on Saturday, sent a flood through the town. The people escaped, fleeing to the hills.

A son of Geo. W. Davis, ex-secretary of the state land board, was in the city today. His father left the state on account of a shortage of $30,000, and is now in California, where he is now working as a carpenter. It is said he never had the benefit of the money at all.

The O. A. C. team last Saturday defeated the alumni boys, with only one practice by the latter, 11 to 0. Rhinehart, Walters, Elgin, Hamilton, Bodine, Thurston, Rhinehart, Seroggins, Holgate, Gault and Hall played for the alumni. At Salem the Willamettes defeated the Chemawa team by only 11 to 5.

Among those who hunted pheasants here on opening day were E. B. Townsend and Mr. Agnew, of Everett, Wash. With Mr. P. A. Young they had a successful hunt a few miles from the city, securing 21 birds altogether. Mr. Townsend is a former manager of the Red Crown Flour Mill.

THURSDAY.

A Pioneer's Death.

Mrs. Sarah Grier, wife of V. H. Caldwell, a prominent pioneer, died at her home, west of Albany in Orleans precinct at 2 o'clock this morning, after an illness of a couple of months. She was born in Ohio 59 years ago and came to Albany in the 50's when a girl. She was the mother of seventeen children, of whom fourteen survive here: Charles of Walls, Walla, George Portland lawyer, Mrs. John Kantz of Roseburg, Mrs. Ed Hughes of Pendleton, Mrs. Robert Marsh recently of Odessa, Wash., now of Linn county, A. J. W. M., James, Fred and Frank, Misses Fannie, Lydia, Jane and Media at and near home.

She was a member of the Baptist church at Riverside, a Christian woman who played her part well as a wife, mother and neighbor, whose death is a loss to the community as well as to the large family.

A Finger Accident.

Miss Bertha Thrift, residing beyond Oakville, this morning caught one of the fingers of her left hand in the cogs of a washing machine and the end taken off. Mr. Thrift brought her to Albany, making the fifteen miles in an hour and a half, and Dr. Davis dressed the wound.

A. T. Stevens left today for Denver. F. E. Allen returned last night from a Seattle trip.

Mrs. Dr. Trimble left this afternoon on a visit with Portland relatives.

Mrs. Mike Gross, of the Revere, left yesterday evening on a trip to Seattle.

R. C. Church and wife have returned from a San Francisco pleasure and observation trip.

Deputy District Attorney Gail Hill went to Halacy this noon to prosecute the Williams case.

Mr. Nate Needham, a former Linn county clerk, arrived last night on a few day's business trip.

Mrs. Edwin Stone has returned from her San Francisco trip, where she visited with her son Will.

Mr. Allen Stellmacher and Hugo Karstens left this noon for the Siletz, to look after their farms.

J. S. Cooper, the Independence banker, and owner of the Albany and other hop yards, came over this noon on business.

Mrs. Bert Gilkey returned yesterday to her home in Portland after a two weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nealey of this city.

J. F. Troutman and wife returned this noon from Portland, where they attended the Congregational convention, afterwards visiting on the west side.

Mr. and Mrs. Kasper Vandran arrived yesterday for a few days' visit and on a Celestial hunt. Mr. Vandran yesterday in a couple of hours bagged nine pheasants.

Mr. J. C. Abbott, of Ashland, son of Rev. J. T. Abbott, formerly of this city arrived in Albany this morning. Mr. Abbott has become quite an extensive shipper of peaches.

F. M. Redfield returned last night from Portland, where he had been to meet his son Charles in that city in connection with business for the big Deschutes Irrigation Co. of which he is the engineer.

A PARK MEETING.

Will Albany Have a Park?

A park meeting was held last evening, attended by Judges Swarout of the county court, Councilmen Bowersox, Dawson and Danals of the city council and John Foshay, J. M. Ralston and J. L. Tomlinson of the school board, each a committee representing their respective bodies. The matter of a park between the court house and central school building was discussed for some time without action. The county court and county committee are said to be in favor of the movement, while the school board committee are opposed to it, and in fact will not release any of the rights of the district.

The plan outlined is said to be the closing of the street by the city council and the making a park anyway with the street and court house lot on the east side, and at the next meeting of the council a movement in that direction may be begun.

M. E. Appointments.

The M. E. conference at Eugene adjourned last evening after making the following among the many appointments: Albany.—D. T. Summerville. Brownsville.—A. J. Hollingsworth. Halsey and Harrisburg.—A. J. Skidmore. Jefferson.—E. C. Alford. Lebanon.—Alfred Thompson. Mt. Tabor.—S. E. Meminger. Sunnside.—T. B. Ford, also Alaska superintendent of missions. Salem.—W. H. Selleck first. W. H. Gordan, Leslie. Shedd.—D. L. Fields. Ashland.—J. T. Abbott. Cottage Grove.—F. F. Moore. Drain.—M. T. Wire. Monroe.—L. C. Zimmerman. Armitv.—T. L. Jones. Corvallis.—G. H. Feeze. Falls City.—G. F. Round. Hillsboro.—C. L. Hamilton. McMinnville.—E. F. Zimmerman. Newberg.—Hiram Gould. Toledo.—C. M. Bryan. Presiding elders: L. E. Rockwell east Portland district. M. C. Wire Eugene district. W. B. Hollingsworth west Portland district. I. D. Driver, lecturer in Willamette and member of Eugene conference.

M. E. South Conference.

Bishop Morrison preached a masterly sermon at Harrisburg, on Sunday and received $1500 on the Portland church. Dr. Reed who has been all over Manchuria on a bicycle spoke at night on Japan and Corea and raised the missionary assignment. His speech was that of a statesman of the first order. Following are the appointments: Willamette Dist.—L. C. McCausland. Albany—to be supplied. Tangent and Brownsville.—E. B. Jones. Dallas and Dixie.—C. E. Wright. Lebanon.—H. N. Rosser. Corvallis and McFarland.—Jno Reeves. Junction City.—J. T. Gardner. Roseburg and Oakland.—H. C. Allen. Myrtle Creek.—L. E. Ellis. Grants Pass.—W. T. Goulder. Medford and Ashland.—H. C. Brown. Williams.—A. J. Starmer. Myrtle Point.—T. P. Haynes. Corvallis City—to be supplied. Portland.—E. H. Mowrie. W. A. Iden, E. L. Fitch and J. C. Cook were transferred away. The conference is made into one district and a strong man from California is now presiding Elder.

Mrs. A. Gross has opened a dress making parlor in the Wright building adjoining the Sugar Bowl.

Mr. Lyle Bishop, manager of the Snow Ball company of amateurs, has gone to points north. The last engagement was at Jefferson, where expenses were made. The other proposed engagements have been given up.

Rev. Richard Wilkins, arrived this morning on his way to his home at Cornelia after attending the conference at Eugene. He has been returned to his former charge. Rev. Wilkins is a son of R. S. Wilkins of this city.

A gang of Chinamen passed through Albany this noon for Yaquina, where will work in the cannery the coming fall and winter.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

Circuit court: New case: Brownsville Woolen Mill Co. and N P Crume agt The Calapooia Lumber Co. The defendant is charged with building a dam, 18 or 20 feet high, which retains a large amount of water and prevents it flowing through a race to operate the mills of the plaintiff, which have used it for many years, the former for forty. An injunction is asked enjoining defendant from holding the waters of the Calapooia river in the dam or from interfering with the natural flow of the water of the stream.

Probate: Report of sale of real estate confirmed in estate of Peter Lo Francis.

Deeds recorded: Martin M Fry to John O Fry, 31 2-3 acres $400 N P Crume to S B Powers 80 acres 750 O E Martin to Jesse Ray 38 acres 150 J L Larsen to Jens Hausen 100 acres 3500 S H McElmurry et al to H W McElmurry, 160 acres 1 S H McElmurry et al to 1 J A Glass to Clyde C Snyder 7 1-100 acres Brownsville 700

R. E. Mortgage for $1000, chattel mortgage for $180 and $880.50. Cancellations for $225, $1400, $2181.75, $354.35, $1378, $2281.75, $1250, $500, $1250.

A Trapist Settlement.

Henry Pelletan, a Trapist priest, of the new settlement in Jordan valley, recently mentioned in the DEMOCRAT, was in the city today for the purpose of getting out articles of incorporation for the company which will have charge of the institutions of the colony. There will be a monastery, school, grist and saw mill and other things needed in such a colony. There are now several priests at the site of colony, where it is proposed to secure several thousand acres of land for the Trapist town. Fifty or sixty others are expected, all of whom have been expelled from France on account of their religion.

Killed a Turkey for a Pheasant.

An interesting incident in connection with the opening day of the upland bird season is told on Mr. G. B. Haight, of Portland, who piloted the sporting editor of the Oregonian, Mr. McRee through the pheasant frequented fields of the Dawson farms and those of that neighborhood. Mr. Haight mistook a fine looking turkey for a pheasant and blazed away. The turkey dropped, and it is alleged Mr. Haight had to drop a couple of dollars as recompense. He secured a promise of secrecy from all his friends and fixed the sporting editor of the Oregonian, but somehow or other it has slipped into the columns of the DEMOCRAT, always open for little things like this which make life worth living.

The Hecker Brothers today shipped a car load of sheep and hogs to Portland.

Col. Sobieski, the Polish orator, heir to the throne of Poland, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The case of the state against Chauncey Williams, of Halsey, charged with killing a Chinese pheasant out of season, was being hotly contested this afternoon before Justice Quick.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Wire are cordially invited to be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Littler tonight, at the reception in their honor previous to their departure for their new home at Eugene.

Mr. Geo. H. Himes, assistant secretary of the Oregon Historical Society stopped off in Albany last evening while on his way home from a trip to Southern Oregon. He is continually adding to the collection of historical things for Oregon's fine museum in the city hall in Portland.

The following people in and around Albany have started or will start for the world's fair and other eastern points during the week: C. W. Sears and E. Wagstaff, of this city, Mrs. R. L. Morton and daughter of Lebanon, and John Whiteaker and wife and Geo. Robinson, of Benton county.

We have a good supply of two-seated hacks, 1-1-8 and 1-1-4 with top or without. Upholstered to suit the purchaser, our rigs are guaranteed. Also a fine side spring buggy which can not be excelled for its lasting qualities. Organ from $90.00 up. If you need anything in this line it will pay you to see our goods. THE UNITED ORGAN AND CARRIAGE COMPANY, Albany, Ore.

To Comrades of the G. A. R.

Your attention is earnestly called to the address to be delivered next Saturday evening at the Baptist church in Albany at 7:30 p. m. by Col. John Sobieski of Los Angeles, Cal. one of the foremost temperance orators of America.

He is a veteran of the Civil war, and was wounded in battle. Is a patriot in its largest sense, and though rightful heir to the throne of Poland is intensely loyal to the land of his adoption, to which he came as an exile when but 13 years of age. Please give him a royal welcome. CYRUS H. WALKER.

WANTED.—A good industrious young man of about 20, to work at and learn the meat business. Inquire at SCHULTZ Bros., Albany, Ore.

REFEREE'S SALE

In the Circuit Court for Linn county, Oregon, Department No. 2. Susau M. Goodman, Nancy E. McCully and A. T. McCully, her husband; Mary E. Shelton and A. J. Shelton, her husband; Theresa Bryant, Lucinda Bryant, Lola Bryant, Loyd W. Bryant and Edna I. Bryant, minors, by Diphia Bryant their general guardian, plaintiffs, vs H. Bryant and Adda E. Bryant, his wife and Olive K. Beers defendants. Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a commission and order of sale issued out of the above entitled court, in the above entitled cause, on the 2nd day of September, 1904, and to me directed and delivered, I will, on Saturday the Eighth day of October, 1904, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon, at the front door of the court house in Albany, Linn county, Oregon, offer for sale to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest of the above named plaintiffs and defendants in the following described real property, to-wit:

The South East quarter of Section Twenty-six, Township Nine, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian; and beginning at a point which is 48 rods West and 2 1/2 rods South of the North East corner of Section Two, Township Ten, South, Range One, East of the Willamette Meridian, thence West 317 1/2 rods; thence North 100 1/2 rods; thence East to the West boundary line of Section Thirty-five in Township Nine, South, Range One East of the Willamette Meridian; thence North to the North West corner of said Section Thirty-five which is 30 5/16 rods North of the South East corner of Section Thirty-five; thence West 10.79 chains; thence South to the place of beginning; also the West half of the South West quarter of Section 35 in Township Nine, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, and containing in the aggregate of the tracts of land above described 898 1/2 acres more or less in Linn County, Oregon.

Also beginning 20 chains West of the South East corner of the Donation Land Claim of J. S. Thomas a d wife, being Notification Number 5991 and Claim Number 40, in Township Ten, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, and running thence West 34 chains; thence North 47.06 chains; thence East 34 chains; thence South 47.06 chains to the place of beginning, excepting all of the land North of the center channel of Thomas creek; also Lots Three, Four, Five and six Section Three, Township Ten, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, and containing in the aggregate of the land last above described 102 acres more or less in Linn County, Oregon.

Also beginning at the South West corner of Section Three, Township Ten, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, thence North 20 chains; thence East 40 chains; thence South 50 chains; thence West 40 chains; thence North 30 1/2 chains to the place of beginning, excepting therefrom one acre heretofore deeded to School District No 124; also Lots One and Two in Section Three Township Ten, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, and containing in the aggregate of the land last above described 208 1/2 acres more or less in Linn County, Oregon.

Also beginning at the North East corner of the Donation Land Claim of John B. Yeau and wife, Notification No. 5724, Claim No. 50, in Township Ten, South, of Range One East of the Willamette Meridian, thence South 40.20 chains; thence West 50 chains to the center of a county road; thence North 100 1/2 rods following the meanderings of said road and in the center thereof to a point 5 chains more or less South of the North West corner of said Donation Land Claim No. 50 in the center of an intersecting county road; thence Easterly, following the meanderings of said intersecting road and in the center thereof, to the East boundary line of Section Nine in said Township and Range; thence North to the North East boundary line of said Claim No. 50; thence East 10 chains to the place of beginning, and containing 152 acres more or less in Linn County, Oregon.

The South half of the North West quarter of Section 12 Township 10, South, of Range 1 East of the Willamette meridian in Linn, Ore., a c. n. s. n. l. 80 acres.

Also Lots One, two, three and Four in Block No. 1 in Bryant's Second addition to the city of Albany, Linn County, Oregon.

Also beginning at South East corner of Block 2 in Bryant's Second addition to the city of Albany, Linn County, Oregon, and running thence North on the West boundary line of said block two hundred twenty feet and two tenths of a foot to the place of beginning, and then West to the North boundary of the county road; thence Easterly two hundred and fifty feet more or less to the place of beginning.

Dated at Albany, Oregon, September 5th, 1904. J. N. DUNCAN, Referee.